East Grey County Lodge

The annual meeting of the County Orange Lodge of East Grey was held in Dundalk on Tuesday afternoon and was attended by a fair representation from the different parts of the jurisdiction. The past year has been one of the most successful for some time and a substantial increase in membership was shown. A County Celebration will be held in Markdale on July 12th, when it is expected that many lodges outside the county will unite with those in East Grey for one of the biggest gatherings ever held in Markdale. County Master Alfred Down of Flesherton was re-elected as was also the Deputy-Master, Arthur Jamieson of Hatherton. The other officers are: Chaplain, A. E. Colgan, Markdale; Rec.-Sec., Ernest Acheson, Proton Station; Fin.-Sec., A. D. Harrison, Dundalk; Treasurer, J. S. Wellwood, Dundalk; Marshal, C. J. Bellamy, Flesherton; Lecturers, J. Stewart, Corbetton, and W. Alcox, Orange Valley; Deputy Lecturers, C. Meddaugh, Proton Station, and O. Milner, Swinton Park.

The competition for the Sproule Memorial Cup will take place at Flesherton on the first Friday in November.

Grey County Council

Grey County's thirty-seven representatives spent last week in Owen Sound attending to the business of the County Council. At the first session, held Tuesday evening, Mr. Chas. Holm, Reeve of Normanby, was elected as Warden and a Committee appointed to strike the standing committees.

Wednesday forenoon was spent in selecting the members of the various committees and in the afternoon a regular session of the Council was held at which the committee chairmen were appointed as follows: Finance and Assessment, A. E. Colgan, Reeve of Markdale; Roads and Bridges, W. J. Field, Deputy-Reeve of Collingwood; County Property, A. Bell, Reeve of Durham; Education, D. J. Gardiner, Reeve of Holland; Agriculture, J. J. Buchanan, Reeve of Collingwood; Printing, A. S. Thurston, Deputy-Reeve of Meaford; Communications and Memorials, John Ferguson, Deputy-Reeve of Egremont; House of Refuge, M. Armstrong, Reeve of Hanover; Warden's, D. McDonald, Reeve of Bentinck; County Roads, A. Pringle, Reeve of Keppel. The other members of the County Roads Committee are N. Calder, Reeve of Egremont, J. Lembke, Reeve of Sullivan, W. L. Taylor, Reeve of Osprey, and the Warden.

Messrs. Walter Hastie and W. R. Cole were appointed as auditors. By-laws were also passed appointing a member of the Judicial Board of Audit, a member of Entrance Board of Examiners, the trustees for the several High Schools in the County. Ten thousand dollars was set aside for the construction and maintenance of roads in the suburban area, forty thousand dollars for the maintenance of the county roads and one hundred and twenty thousand dollars for construction of county roads. The County Treasurer was authorized to borrow two hundred and fifty thousand dollars to meet the current expenditures.

Report No. 1 of the Finance Committee recommended the following grants: $50.00 to the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, $100.00 to the Salvation Army Rescue Home [illegible] Owen Sound, Durham and Hanover Hospitals.

Report No. [illegible] Education Committee recommended that the [illegible] several High [illegible]

The County Property, the Road and Bridge and the Printing Committees recommended payment of several accounts.

The County Agricultural Committee granted $100.00 to meet the expenses of a special exhibit at the Canadian National Exhibition and $150.00 each was given to the Agricultural Societies in the County.

The Children's Aid Society was given a grant of $1000.00. At a conference between the Finance Committees of Owen Sound City Council and the County Council the matter of financing the institution was discussed. The County was prepared to give $1500.00 if the city would give $1000.00, but the latter were not willing to do so. During the past twelve years the city has provided 45 per cent. of the cases handled and the county 55 per cent. On maintenance at 50 cents per day for each child cared for in 1926 Owen Sound paid $1200 and the County $800.

Durham and Hanover were given assurance that pavements would be constructed in 1927.
