FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1889.

BETHANY.

Special to The Warder.

At the regular meeting of Lr O. L. No. 1022, the following resolution was carried amidst the greatest enthusiasm:—Moved by Bro. George McCartney, seconded by Bro. L. H. Brereton, ex-M.P.P. and resolved. That we, the members of Lr O. L. No. 1022, in lodge assembled, desire to express in the most emphatic manner our complete disapproval of the vote given by our representative in the House of Commons "Mr. H. A. Ward," in favor of that iniquitous measure known as the "Jesuit Estates Act" a measure that we believe to be fraught with danger to our common country. We further wish to repudiate the sentiments contained in the remarks of Charles Rykert with reference to the Protestant Ministers of our land; and also his reference to the Orange Sentinel. We also wish to convey a sense of our gratitude and admiration for those thirteen who so manfully and with such ability raised their voices in defence of Religious Franchise and equality. When the extent to which freedom is endangered by the forces that have secured this extraordinary Legislation comes to be fully known the service which these men have rendered to their country will not be forgotten.

CANNINGTON.

Special to the Warder.

"The Scott Act is dead." Of mediæval legislation born of that spirit which made a "Spanish Inquisition" possible, the people have spoken against in a voice of thunder throughout the land. Who are these who have so spoken? Are they to be considered but a loathsome herd of "whisky soakers," "vile reptiles," the "scum of humanity," with any other low or slanderous epithet which an over zealotic, not to say intolerant section of the community have thought it wise and clever, through the late contest, to hurl at the hearts of those who dared to differ from their peculiar views. With as fine a degree of contempt, but with respectful language, we reply, not so. It is a plain and palpable truth that those tremendous majorities for the repeal represent that great, tolerant and temperate party who have registered their pronounced disapproval of intolerant views and legislation, alike injurious to the best interests of humanity. From this there is an important lesson to be learned. It is this: that it matters not how commendable or deserving the principle or cause may be, extreme views aided by coercive measures, are sure to irritate, and tend to the defeat of the object or end desired. It is now given out that the next step to be taken will be in the direction of national prohibition, local option having been tried and proved abortive. Vain and delusive will the effort prove. Let the thinking man look at his Atlas and observe the geographical condition of British North America, with its immense sea coast line, and then say—with prohibition the law in Canada, and every other country in the world engaged in the manufacture and sale of spirituous liquors—if he for one moment really believes that smuggling on a very large scale can not be prevented, even with the aid of an army of excise men. For better or worse—wholly depending on individual use—liquor is in the world and to stay. The people are a unit in condemnation of its abuse, and it is now the leg pronouncedly divided as to its use. Under such condition, what is the course to pursue. Common sense and reason point to a protection, rather than coercion measure, as the one most likely to meet with common acceptation. In the license system only can those protective safeguards be found. The Crooks Act is in itself an excellent law, yet is capable of a greater improvement in this direction. Why then cannot the true lover of temperance avail himself of the possible, instead of beating the air striving after the impossible. Why not endeavor to improve the licensing system which shall forbid the sale of liquors to minors; the rigid enforcement of the Sunday closing clause; the abolition of saloons—for which there can be no conceivable use; the abolition of treating custom by punishing both the seller and the purchaser alike, and the same penalty to be inflicted for individual drunkenness; and further, if desirable, the furnishing of bonds by hotelkepers for the due observance of the law. In this manner we believe the cause of true temperance will best be served, and the many objectionable features in connection with the liquor traffic will rapidly disappear. We have misread public sentiment very greatly, indeed, if all true lovers of the common weal on the lines we have imperfectly tried to lay down, would not find common ground for unity and action.

All finishes done in the latest and modern styles. The stairs are winding and built with birch and ash. As a whole it deserves great credit to the builders, C. W. Jones & Son.

HARTLEY.

Special to The Warder.

THE following resolution was unanimously adopted by Hartley L.O.L.No. 1158, at its last regular meeting: Whereas the act of the legislature of the Province of Quebec incorporating the Society of Jesus was in the judgment of this lodge unconstitutional and whereas the act of the Province of Quebec, commonly known as the Jesuits Estate's Bill, especially reserves to the Pope, a foreign potentate, the right to distribute in his judgment the sum of $400,000 granted to the Jesuits by the said Bill. Therefore, this lodge enters its protest against said act of incorporation and against acknowledgement of a right of the Pope or any foreign ecclesiastic the right to distribute moneys in this protestant Dominion voted by a British Parliament which we believe is ruled by Jesuits which has been expelled from all Europe and allowed to be incorporated in Canada. Be it therefore resolved, that we as a lodge withdraw our influence and support from any government or party that we believe to be in favor of so unjust an act. Signed

GEO. ASHMAN, W. M.
NEIL MCMILLAN, D. M.
DONALD CURRIE, Secy.

BALLYDUFF.

To the Editor of The Warder

DEAR SIR,—We received a copy of THE WARDER which we think very interesting.

Ballyduff, though a small place, is situated in a good section of country, in which there are as many nice looking girls and well behaved young men as you will find in any other part of the Dominion. We are also as free from that blighting, withering curse of society, gossiping and backbiting, as any other people. All are sociable, and yet each one attends to their own business. Just now a gap is being made in the social circle which will be difficult to fill, caused by the removal of Mr. J. C. Williamson and family to the vicinity of Peterboro. Mr Williamson has been elder in the church for 25 years. Mr. R. J. Williamson has filled the position of organist for years, and Master Herb. D. assisted very materially on the cornet in the choir, consequently they will be very much missed in the church. About the minister's difficulty—there is no case either civil or ecclesiastical. A woman from Quebec, claims some articles in the Manse belonging to a deceased sister, who died there, some two years ago. Although present at her sister's demise and taking all she could of said sister's effects, yet immediately upon hearing of minister's marriage, lays claim to something more. The minister's statement as to what she has a right to and what she has not, and her's do not agree; hence the "wonderful case" which has engaged the attention of that great body of divinity, the Peterboro presbytery, since the 15th of January. We have not the honor of being a member of the orange order, but we think if a person were a good standing member of any society for five years, his word would be taken by his brethren in preference to that of one whom they had never seen or even heard of previously. It does seem strange that while some men are holding meetings purposely to discuss subjects of vital importance to us as a nation and people, and the best ways of averting coming evil, such as the Jesuits Estate's Bill, others will take up their time and talents in trying to find something against a brother that will injure his reputation. The most casual observer can easily see that there is someone interested in this, who has done much to keep the germs of the case alive as they were indeed very weak at first, but we are often led to say "Behold how great a matter a little fire kindleth." "Brethren if one be overtaken in a fault restore such an one." One minister's name will take him through the world any place. He is of a family which can not be tarnished or shamed. We know that slander loves a high mark; we know too that slander like dried mud soon rubs off. The injury is not done our minister but to our church. The deputation which was sent to Port Hope with the petition, think they were taken for spies and the whole petition for a forgery.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

CAVANVILLE.

Special to The Warder.

ON Wednesday evening, April 10th, a large number of friends visited the residence of Miss Fannie Thompson. After a suitable address had been read by Mr, Henry Staples, superintendent of the Sabbath school, the presentation of a purse was made to Miss Thompson for efficient services as teacher in the Sunday school. A sumptuous supper was set up and all spent a pleasant evening.

Mr. Ed Keegan, grain buyer for McKey, has re-turned to Cavan to spend a few weeks, when he is going back to his employment. Welcome back, Ned.

THE Friday night Bible readings under Rev. Mr. Gratrix, are largely attended, and the members from here occasionally go to Peterborough to hear Cressley and Hunter.

If the emigration to Manitoba continues Cavan will have to devise some way of supplying the vacancy, or its population will not increase to any great extent.

MR. Jas. Finney, carriage maker, has begun a good business, and some good rigs may be seen at his shop.

MR. Lewis has been conducting cottage meetings for several weeks in and around Cavanville. Some of the village boys are now taking active proceedings in the cause, but as the evenings are short, it is inconvenient for the people to attend all such meetings.

ONE Sunday recently the villagers were aroused from their mid-day meal to struggle with the fury of the flames.

BRICK CORNERS—MANVERS.

Special to the Warder.

FARMERS are busy seeding in this neighborhood.

THE Jesuit Estates Bill is the leading topic at present. It is somewhat amusing to read the article in last week's WARDER from your Lifford special on the school question. At first glance one would be led to suppose that it had been written by the witty, shrewd little Orangeman who stoops to work so low that no public school teacher with any self respect would do. But on a second look one can see that it was from the hand of a pupil who had studied at the feet of this modern Gamaliel. How beautiful everything is fixed. Mr. G. W. Ross, M.E., rules Mr. Foster in and Mr. Weatherilt out. In reference to the two votes said to have been struck off by the Minister of Education: The Minister has no authority to strike off votes. He can give his opinion on the matter, and it is not so high an authority after all, as he is only a lawyer by act of Parliament. A special act would make the "Little Orangeman" one, too; and then he could settle matters of this kind without applying to Mr. Tilley or G. W. Ross. For the benefit of your innocent special lest he might laugh immoderately and injure his constitution, which would be a matter to be regretted, just make up your mind that Joseph Weatherilt is trustee at present, and will remain trustee until he is legally unseated.

Our Ottawa Letter.

OTTAWA, April 10th, 1889.

POSTAL ALTERATIONS.

Last night the House was occupied in discussing the alterations to be made in the rates of postage on drop letters. At present there is a considerable loss on this department, which of course has to be made up from the general taxation of the country. In proposing to increase the postage on drop letters in all cities and towns where there is a delivery system, it is hoped in some small degree to raise the revenue derived from this branch of the postage service. The Postmaster General explained that the law was thus assimilated to that of Great Britain and the United States. The increase of all letters from half an ounce to one ounce as a minimum is given as a compensation, and will no doubt be duly appreciated.

THE DOMINION DAIRYMEN.

An important meeting was held yesterday by those interested in the dairy industry at which it was decided to form a Dominion Dairyman's Association. It was pointed out that the Provincial Associations were not able to secure the legislation which often became necessary for the protection and extension of the trade. One object of the association would be to secure a uniform system of making butter and cheese, and to improve the manufacturing of dairy products. The following were elected officers:—

President—D. A. McPherson.
Vice-Presidents—The different presidents of each provincial association.
Secretary—J. C. Chapais.
Treasurer—H. S Foster.
Directors Col. Patton, Mr. Beaubien, Mr. Barnachier, Quebec; Mr. W. H. Egan, Mr. J. Haggarty, Mr. E. Caswell, Ontario; Mejor Boulton, Hon. Mr. Clifford, Prof. Parry, Manitoba.

After this business was transacted the members, on the invitation of Prof. Saunders, proceeded to the Experimetal Farm, and were shown the various attractions there.

This morning the Association waited upon the Committee of Agriculture and stated their views on the subject of the appointment by the Government of a dairy commissioner. After hearing the views of the different gentlemen, the chairman (Hon. P. White) promised to take the subject into consideration. The committee eventually decided to recommend the appointment of a dairy commissioner.

MR. HUDSPETH M P.

Mr. Hudspeth has been suffering from a severe cold, and was confined to his room all day yesterday. He was, however, in his place to-day, and though still suffering from hoarseness, is decidedly better.

OTTAWA, April 11th.

U. S. CONSULAR APPOINTMENT.

Mr. Hudspeth has been informed by the Under Secretary of State that the appointment of Mr. M. Knowlson of Lindsay as U.S. Consular agent, has been confirmed.

The exertions of Mr Hudspeth and others which have been directed to putting a stop to the wholesale destruction of fish in Lakes Scugog, Sturgeon and Pigeon by means of snares, have been successful. Mr. Hudspeth has received a letter from the Minister of Fisheries (Hon. C. H. Tupper) stating that a regulation has been issued by the Department prohibiting the taking of fish by means of snares.

The Franchise Act Amendment has taken up a considerable portion of the time of the House this last week, and on it the Opposition has expended a considerable amount of talent in the way of obstruction. Mr. Barron has contributed his mite to the flood of talk which has come from the liberal side of the House. It is rather comical, though, when this gentleman gets up in his place and attempts to teach the Minister of Justice his duty in the matter. Yet this is precisely what he tried to do on Wednesday night, and the gentle snub he received was probably too gentle to wound the self-conceit which the member for North Victoria is remarkable for. No doubt Mr. Barron and his colleagues would like to see the Government adopt the provincial lists and thus prevent a considerable number of persons from exercising their rights. It is bad enough that the Grit politicians should deprive honest electors of any share in the government of the province, but it would be worse still if they were allowed to extend this disqualification over the whole of Canada.

The most agreeable, restorative tonic and mild stimulant is Milburn's Beef, Iron and Wine.—72-4.

Our Vancouver Correspondent.

From Esquimault B.C., Mrs. A. B. Cameron writes that being very much troubled with dyspepsia she tried two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters, which gave great relief, and hopes that others may be induced to try it also and receive like benefits.—74-2.
