Bad 'flu year
Alfred Dumoulin, Ruth Ann Dodds and Peter Johnson attended the Cochrane Music Festival
The Annual school picnic was held at Silver Queen Lake
Sandra Knight won the Cochrane Royal Canadian Legion Public speaking contest St. George Chapter of the I.O.D.E. in Toronto donated books to students with the greatest progress, and the T. Eaton Co. donated books for the highest points at the School Fall Fair

1960 Mumps outbreak
Sandra Knight was chosen to represent Northern Ontario in provincial public speaking contest in Toronto.
Marina Webster won the Cochrane Royal Canadian Legion Public speaking contest

1962 Local school Board supplied soup, cocoa and multiple vitamin tablets for the school children

1963 February: A petition was signed by 90% of the local population, 150 names, within a radius of 50 miles requesting rural mail delivery. Residents were told, in 1964, that a minimum of 50% of the mail boxes must be erected before rural mail delivery can begin. The cost of delivery would be $4.00 per year. Rural mail delivery began on July 1st 1967.
December 2nd: Ontario Northland Commission connected 14 telephones

1964 November: The amalgamation of several local school boards was scheduled for the beginning of January.

1965 January 21st: the amalgamated school board is titled Glackmeyer School Board and will manage all the schools located in the public school area of the Township of Glackmeyer. Clute School has 3 rooms.

1967 St George Chapter of the IODE once again sent gifts to the school children

1968 Christmas treats were given to the school children.
Glackmeyer School Board is in partnership with Smooth Rock Falls School Board.

CLUTE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY

1959: Sponsored winter card parties
Hosted a turkey supper for about 60 people
Sponsored a field crop competition featuring Garry Oats and Potatoes

1961: Clute Fall Fair has been held since 1924; in addition, a School Fair was held in conjunction with the fall fair. The School Fair has been held since 1923.