Farmers' Column.

MANURE OF DIFFERENT CLASSES OF ANINALS.

Cows in full milk or with calf, secrete from their feed great quantities of valuable substance which fattening cows or oxen will not withdraw from what they eat—hence the manure of the milch cow is not worth nearly so much as that of fattening animals. This must be evident from the obvious fact, that out of the milk, or what would be milk, the calf is formed. If the calf continues to grow, and learns to eat the same food the cow does, and for several years is building up his frame work of bones; all the valuable ingredients permanently entering into his system, of course come out of his feed, and would, were he a full grown steer, have passed into the manure. Many farmers are likely to undervalue the important difference in the quality of the excrements of different classes of the same kind of stock.—The differences which we have alluded to, of course exist as well in the manure of other kinds of animals as in that of neat cattle. Let us then remember that keeping milk-giving and growing animals is a great tax upon the land, that fattening animals make rich manure heaps, and that full-grown male animals draw much less upon the soil than females bearing young and giving milk.—Amer. Agriculturist.

WHERE ARE THE BEST CATTLE?

The most valuable breeds of neat cattle originated in Great Britian—the Short-horns, Devons, and Herefords in England; Ayrshires in Scotland; and Alderneys in the Channel Islands. It would be natural to suppose that the best specimens of these breeds are still to be found in Great Britain, but we are by no means sure that this is necessarily the case. Among the great variety of soils and climates in this country, there are those peculiarly adapted to certain of these established breeds, and considering the tendency of the surrounding circumstances to change the type of animals bred, for several generations under similar influences and the constant study of our best stock-breeders to improve their herds, we may reasonably expect marked improvement in favorable localities. It is certainly true that we have as fine Devons and Ayrshires as there are anywhere. Alderneys too have been selected with great care, the highest prices have been paid, and many prize animals have been imported. Our short-horn breeders have been exceedingly liberal and judicious in their purchases in England, paying the highest prices and taking off the very choice of the best herds of England in repeated cases. A few years since American breed short-horns began to find their way back to British pastures, and now we notice that descendants of these Americans are prize-takers at British Shows. At the Royal Agricultural Society's Show in Worcester, the 1st prize for heifer calves over 6 and under 11 months old, was awarded to D. McIntosh, for Lady Oxford 5th, 11 mos. old, got by 3rd Duke of Thorndale out of Lady Oxford 4th—both of which animals were bred by S. Thorn of Thorndale, Dutchess Co., N.Y.

IMPORTANT FACT IN BREEDING.

At a recent session of the Massachusetts Board of Agriculture, Prof. Agassiz gave an account of several experiments made to ascertain the influence exerted by the sire upon the future progeny of the dam. He coupled a water-dog with a Newfoundland slut. Part of the resulting litter showed the external marks of the sire, another portion more resembled the dam, and the remainder partook of both breeds. A second litter was bred from the same slut by a greyhound, and the pups were almost precisely like the first litter, part Newfoundland, and part greyhound. Similar results were obtained with rabbits of different varieties. This appears to indicate that the first feecundation of the female is not confined in all its results to the immediate progeny, but extends to the further issue. The idea is not new, but additional proof from such a high quarter is valuable. Every one can readily see its application in breeding farm stock. Great disappointment has often been felt by parties who have paid largely for the services of well-bred sires, because the resulting issue has shown little likeness to the male parent, and the latter has been condemned as a poor stock-getter. It is possible that in such cases the results were caused by the female having previously borne young by an animal essentially differing from the sire subsequently employed, and thus having been rendered incapable of producing true offspring to any very dissimilar animal. If so, it is an additional reason for securing the use of well-bred animals, especially for the first progeny of any female. The expansion and conformation of the productive organs may perhaps be permanently effected by the character of the first progeny.

Long may "Canada" be the rallying cry of those who are dissatisfied with their homes in the east. Long may they continue to sing, as they do at present, in the inspiring words of the song:—

To the West! To the West! To the land of the free,
Where mighty St. Lawrence rolls down to the sea;
Where a man is a man, if he is willing to toil,
And the humblest may gather the fruits of the soil;
Where children are blessings, and he who has most
Has aid for labour and fortune to boast;
Away! far away! let us hope for the best,
And build up a home in the land of the West.

WHAT BECOMES OF DEAD HORSES.—Some people will no doubt be astonished to learn that large fortunes have been made every year since the commencement of the war out of the dead horses of the army of the Potomac. The popular idea is that when Rosinante yields up the ghost, he is buried in some field, or left to moulder into mother earth in the wood somewhere. Not so. He has made his last charge, and gnawed his last fence rail, but there is from $20 to $40 in the old fellow yet. A contract for the purchase of the dead horses of the army of the Potomac, for the ensuing year, was let a few days ago to the highest bidder, at $1 76 per head, delivered at the factory of the contractor. Last year, $60,000 was cleared on the contract, and this year, it is thought, $100,000 can be made on it. The animals die at the rate of about fifty per day, at the lowest calculation. At the contractor's establishment they are thoroughly dissected. First the shoes are pulled off; they are usually worth fifty cents a set. Then the hoofs are cut off; they bring about two dollars a set. Then comes the caudal appendages, worth half a dollar.—Then the hide—I don't know what that sells for. Then the tallow, if it be possible to extract tallow from army horses, which I think extremely doubtful, unless he die immediately after entering the service. And last, but not least, the shin bones are valuable, being convertible into a variety of articles that many believe to be composed of pure ivory, such as cane-heads, knife-handles, &c. By the time that the contractor gets through with the "late lamented" steed, there is hardly enough of him left to feed a bull-pup.

PROSPECTUS OF THE CANADA FARMER,

a new (fortnightly) journal, of Agriculture, Horticulture, & Rural Affairs,

THE Subscriber has determined to make the experiment whether a first-class Agricultural Journal can be sustained in Canada. He purposes to issue early in January, 1864, the first number of THE CANADA FARMER, and continue the publication on the 1st and 15th days of each month. Each number will contain sixteen pages quarto of closely printed matter. It will be printed on fine paper, from an entirely new font of type. The services of an able agricultural writer as Editor-in-chief have been secured, and he will be assisted by an efficient staff of writers, reporters and correspondents. First-class artists and engravers have also been retained to prepare illustrations for the paper. No exertion or expenditure will be spared to render the new journal a worthy representative and advocate of the Agricultural interests of Canada.

In the conduct of the CANADA FARMER, the following ends will be zealously laboured for:—

1. To arouse public attention, by frank and temperate discussion, to all questions scientific, commercial, legislative or otherwise, specially effecting the farming interest.

2. To stimulate the Agriculturists of our country to adopt an improved system of husbandry, by blending the lessons of modern science with the practical experience of the Canadian Farmer.

3. To bring under the attention of our Farmers all improvements at home or abroad, worthy of adoption, affecting the management of Field Crops—the Barn Yard—the Stable—the Dairy—the Orchard—the Poultry Yard—the Apiary—the Kitchen Garden—and the Flower Garden; and to excite an interest in the progress of Rural Architecture and Landscape Gardening, and in all that concerns the Domestic Economy of the Farm-house.

4. To mark and report all improvements in Agricultural Machinery—foster new inventions—and promote the adoption of all labour-saving machines in the work of the farm and garden.

5. To keep prominently under attention all that specially concerns the Dairy-farmer and the Grazier;—the best breeds of cattle—the best system of feeding—the most approved process of cheese and butter making—the best mode of packing—and the best markets to sell in.

6. To keep prominently in view whatever is specially interesting to the Sheep-raiser and Wool-grower—the breeds best adapted to our climate—the best systems of winter and summer management—and the varying prospects of the wool market.

7. To afford the Farmers of Canada an ever-open medium for addressing their brother agriculturists throughout the Province, suggesting matters of common interest and advantage, and eliciting information or advice on practical questions of difficulty or doubt.

8. To report concisely the Proceedings at Agricultural Shows, Fairs and Sales throughout the Province—note the condition and progress of the Herbs and Flocks, of prominent Stock-breeders; record the Importation of Thorough-bred stock from abroad, and publish Engravings of First Class Prize Animals.

9. To watch and report carefully and promptly the actual state and probable prospects of the Produce Markets at home and abroad, and specially promote all movements designed to secure the best prices in the best markets for Canadian Farm Produce.

10. To afford the Farmers of Canada a common medium where all who have for sale Live Stock, or Seed Grain, or Land, or who may wish to buy such, can make his desires known directly to the whole farming population of Canada.

THE SCIENCE OF HEALTH.

EVERY MAN HIS OWN PHYSICIAN.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS, AND HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Disorders of the Stomach, Liver & Bowels.

The Stomach is the great centre which influences the health or disease of the system—Abused or debilitated by excess—indigestion, offensive breath and physical prostration are the natural consequences. Allied to the brain, it is the source of headaches, mental depression, nervous complaints and unrefreshing sleep. The liver becomes affected and generates billious disorders, pains in the side, &c. The Bowels sympathise by Costiveness, Diarrhœa and Dysentry. The principal action of these Pills is on the stomach, and the liver, lungs, bowels and kidneys participate in their recuperative and regenerative operation.

Erysipelas, and Salt Rheum

Are two of the most common and virulent disorders prevalent on this continent, to those the Ointment is especially antagonistic, its "modus operandi" is first to eradicate the venom and then complete the cure.

Bad Legs, Old Sores, and Ulcers.

Cases of many years standing that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment, have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful unguent.

Eruptions on the Skin,

Arising from a bad state of the blood or chronic disease, are eradicated, and a clear and transparent surface regained by the restorative action of this Ointment. It surpasses many of the cosmetics and other toilet appliances in its power to dispel rashes and other disfigurements of the face.

Female Complaints,

Whether in the young or old, married or single, at the dawn of Womanhood, or the turn of life, these tonic medicines display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible in the health of the patient. Being a purely vegetable preparation, they are a safe and reliable remedy for all classes of Females in every condition of health and station of life.

Piles and Fistula.

Every form and feature of these prevalent and stubborn disorders is eradicated locally and entirely by the use of this emollient; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healthy qualities will be found to be thorough and invariable.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions,	Skin Diseases,
Burns,	Swelled Glands,
Chapped Hands,	Sore Legs,
Chilblains,	Sore Breasts,
Fistula,	Sore Heads,
Gout,	Sore Throats,
Lumbago,	Sores of all kinds,
Mercurial Eruptions,	Sprains,
Piles,	Stiff Joints,
Rheumatism,	Tetters,
Ringworm,	Ulcers,
Salt Rheum,	Venereal Sores,
Scalds,	Wounds of all kinds

CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernible as a Watermark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

They cure all those ills to which the female system is subjected with dispatch and a degree of certainty which nothing but a scientifically compounded fluid preparation could reach.

For my Drops stand before the world as the ne plus ultra of all remedies, for the cure of all diseases of the Kidneys and bladder, Leucoreah, Prolapsus, and the mild, but positive correction of all irregularities.

by those who have other preparations, which they desire to palm off upon the strength of the popularity of my Drops, and who recommend their own nostrums, thus appropriating to themselves the constant demand for my Periodical Drops, as a medium for selling something which is worthless and inefficient. But when the druggist you apply to has not got them, either make him buy them for you, or else enclose one Dollar to the nearest general wholesale agent, who will return you a bottle by return Express.

You will thus save yourselves trouble and obtain relief from the greatest Female Regulator of the the Nineteenth Century.

Over 25,000 Bottles of this medicine have been sold within the last six months, and every Lady that has used them, but for the nature of cure, would furnish us with her sworn certificate of their efficacy. It takes but one Dollar to make the experiment, and I appeal to those of your sex who are suffering—will you waste away when a single Dollar will give you instant relief.

Prepared solely by DR. JNO. L. LYON, Practicing Physician.

Price $1 per bottle.
