"TRADE AND GET RICH."

On the principle of an honest equivalent in goods and work for every dollar received. This has been my method of founding a good business standing, and in the last 21 months it has been successful. I keep a large stock of Fine Goods, Watches, Clocks, Jewelry &c.; sell every article for just what it is, and at such prices that customers get value for their money. I deal almost exclusively with the large firms of Smith & Fudger, Toronto, and J. H. Jones & Co., Montreal, And these firms I can rely on, for they handle A 1 goods. It will pay to come 15 miles to get a large stock to select from and prices that ensure satisfaction. I have booked for Repairs since Oct. 25th, '83, 508 Watches and Clocks. Repairing carefully attended to and fully warranted.

Welcome Volunteers!

Welcome fathers, lovers, brothers!
Heroes not afraid to die.
Loving wives, sweethearts and mothers
Laughing, weeping, welcome cry.

Nobly have you served your nation.
Nobly have you borne the strain;
Listen to the acclamation:
Welcome patriots home again!

Bravely have you fought each battle,
Never once did courage fail;
Steady, cool, amid the rattle
And the ping of deadly hail.

Onward marching, forward rushing,
Charging with resistless might;
Strong positions taking—pushing
Out the foe 'mid fiercest fight.

Cool, when comrades fought no longer,
But lay wounded on the field;
Brave, when death, sometimes the stronger,
Forced the dauntless heart to yield.

Brave were ye, who faced the foeman!
Not less brave the noble corps,
With a touch like that of woman,
From the field the wounded bore.

Saving life by quick appliance,
Of the means by skill devised;
Bidding death meanwhile defiance,
Danger scarcely realized.

Honored heroes, worn by marches,
Long and arduous o'er the plain.
Welcome! with triumphal arches,
Welcome to our hearts again!

Welcome! Let the joy-bells tell it,
Welcome let cannons roar:
Let the flags and banners wave it
From each flagstaff, house and store.

Welcome! Let the trumpets blow it;
Welcome! To the brave and true.
Welcome! Let each bright face show it,
Thank God mourners are but few.

But of those to-day in sadness.
We have feelings deep, unseen;
And in all this joy and gladness
Keep their loved one's memory green.

And we pray, God bless the weeping,
War-bereft fond hearts to-day;
Thinking of her dear ones sleeping,
Crowned with laurel wreaths and bay.

They have passed beyond the portal,
Leaving something more than name.
Heroism is immortal,
They have won a deathless fame.

Welcome fathers, lovers, brothers!
Heroes not afraid to die.
Loving wives, sweethearts and mothers,
Laughing, weeping, welcome cry.

THE CHOLERA.—Possibly the Cholera may not reach our locality this season. Nevertheless, we should take every precaution against it. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, Colic, Cramp, Diarrhœa and Dysentery.

Letter from Rev. Mr. McDowell.

To the Editor of The Advance.

MR. EDITOR,—I have thought you and our friends there might be pleased to hear how we succeeded, after leaving Flesherton, in reaching our destination.

You will remember we left on the evening of Dominion Day, about 7 o'clock, and as the weather was fair and cool, we had a pleasant drive to Durham. It will be a gurantee that we did not spend unnecessary time on the way, when I inform you that the gentleman who had charge of the mode of travel was our friend, Mr. Thorpe Wright, who conveyed us in his commodious family carriage, drawn by a dashing span of horses, which seemed to increase in speed and spirit until we reached the town of Durham, a little after 9 o'clock. We stopped at Mr. Middaugh's hotel, which is a magnificent edifice, affording every accommodation necessary for travellers and which is kept in such style by the gentlemanly proprietor, that it would do credit to one of our cities.

Having arranged matters for the night and bidden farewell to our friend, who returned to his home, we repaired to our rooms to seek rest, not at all unnecessary on the occasion. Next morning, thankful for the care of Providence, we were up and soon ready for the road again; and after settling bills, &c.—having arrived at the station and purchased through tickets to Wingham, we were soon on board the train, which started about 7 o'clock. In about two hours travel we arrived at the town of Palmerston: here we met the Rev. Mr. Stafford, one of the resident ministers, and as we had to wait for the Toronto train at 1:30 in the afternoon, he constrained us to go with him to the parsonage. Having, therefore, some time, I thought I would like to see the church and what of the town I could. We have two churches here, two ministers and many earnest, working people. I had the pleasure of meeting with Mrs. Dr. Stewart, a daughter of the late Rev. James Spencer, whom I had not seen since she was a little girl. Her father was then Editor of the Guardian and I boarded with the family, a junior preacher. An elder sister of Mrs. Stewart has been sent out by the Missionary authorities of the Church to labor in the mission field in Japan.

Taking the train on its arrival from Toronto, we passed through a beautiful part of the country, with rich, flourishing farms, farm mansions and small towns, and arrived at Wingham about 4 o'clock. On the platform, at the depot, were the members of the Official Board, who conducted us to the parsonage, where the good sisters belonging to the church had a sumptuous repast prepared for us.

After spending a pleasant time there, we were taken by a couple of the friends to their homes for the night.

The car containing our goods arrived shortly after and the greater part of the time since has been employed in getting settled for work. We have met with nothing but kindness since our arrival here, and I trust we are determined upon entire devotion for the promotion of the Master's work and glory.

A STRANGE DISEASE.—There is scarcely a symptom belonging to chronic complaints but that is common to the poor dyspeptic, and he often feels as if he had every disease in the catalogue. Burdock Blood Bitters cures the worst form of Chronic Dyspepsia.

—Change in form of the ADVANCE next week.

KEEP YOUR HOUSE GUARDED.—Keep your house guarded against sudden attacks of Colic, Cramps, Diarrhœa, Dysentery and Cholera Infantum. They are liable to come when least expected. The safest, best and most reliable remedy is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

Catarrh—A New Treatment.

Perhaps the most extraordinary success that has been achieved in modern medicine has been attained by the Dixon treatment for Catarrh. Out of 2,000 patients treated during the past six months, fully ninety per cent. have been cured of this stubborn malady. This is none the less startling when it is remembered that not five per cent. of patients presenting themselves to the regular practitioner are benefited, while the patent medicines and other advertised cures never record a cure at all. Starting with the claim now generally believed by the most scientific men that the disease is due to the presence of living parasites in the tissue, Mr. Dixon at once adapted his cure to their extermination—this accomplished, he claims the Catarrh is practically cured, and the permanency is unquestioned, as cures effected by him four years ago are cures still. No one else has ever attempted to cure Catarrh in this manner, and no other treatment has ever cured Catarrh. The application of the remedy is simple, and can be done at home, and the present season of the year is the most favourable for a speedy and permanent cure, the majority of cases being cured at one treatment. Sufferers should correspond with Messrs. H. A. Dixon & Son, 305 King street west, Toronto, Canada, and enclose stamp for their treatise on Catarrh.—Montreal Star, Nov. 17, 1882.
