December Sessions.

Condensed from the O. S. Times.

Eaton v. Smith—An action for balance of a liquor account. Argument on the legal issues involved in the action postponed.

McDuffy v. C. P. R.—Plaintiff lives in Glenelg township, and has for neighbors Mr. Campbell and Mr. Beaton. The C. P. R. crosses the three farms. Plaintiff alleged that the part of the three farms which lay back of the railway track had been fenced in and used by the three owners as a common pasture; that about the 4th of July last the railway fence on the Beaton farm was burnt, and that about the 25th of July one of plaintiff's colts was killed by a passing train; that the value of the colt was $80 or $100. Action dismissed.

Owen v. O'Neagl was disposed of Wednesday forenoon. The prisoner was arrested, and the indictment charged him with breaking into Carson Price's store at Holland Center and with the larceny of certain goods. He pled "Not Guilty;" after which the Crown wound around him a very strong chain of evidence. Constable Galbraith produced a complete set of burglar's tools which he found on the prisoner, and a revolver. Verdict—Guilty. Sentenced—seven years in penitentiary. W. Reid, Q.C., for the Crown; J. M. [illegible] for the prisoner.
