ARE YOU A DISCHARGED VETERAN? LET'S HEAR OF YOUR WHEREABOUTS!

McHenry folks and those from the surrounding community have done a splendid job in sharing the burden of helping us send the Plaindealer each week to the many boys and girls from here who serve in all parts of the world. The many letters printed from time to time in the paper are ample proof of the appreciation of these servicemen and women.

Now, more and more of our boys are being released from active duty and are returning home. Some of these have been unfortunate enough to have come back handicapped. Others, who experienced a less rigorous service life, have returned in appearance much as when they left, yet with indefinite ideas as to what the future holds for them. True to human nature, it is natural that once these men are discharged we are inclined to forget them to a certain extent, focusing our attention upon those still fighting the enemy. Yet this readjustment period is the most difficult of all for many of them.

To show our boys that McHenry has not forgotten them for the fine effort put forth to speed the victory that is finally in sight, we would like to carry out the following plan. We wish that all men who are discharged, or their families, would send in their names and also let us know just what work they are doing at present. There are also many who have no doubt not yet found work which interests them as a future full-time job. If this is the case, let us know in what work you are most interested and in what you are best qualified. Local folks will be glad to hear of the progress of those already located and perhaps will be in a position to give to someone not yet entered in some line of work. In fact, we have already noted one such case, where both employer and employee were benefitted.

Drop us a line during the next week, even though you may have been discharged some time ago. Local folks may have lost trace of you after you left for service. They will be interested in knowing whereabouts of boys who have returned. A future article containing this news should be worthwhile to all concerned.

RESIDENCE CHANGES

The L. B. Drake family is now residing in the Lallinger home west of McHenry, which they recently purchased.

Mrs. Clarence Anderson and daughter, Linda Evelyn, are making their home in McHenry while Lieut. Anderson prepares to leave for Pacific duty.

NEWS ABOUT OUR SERVICEMEN

T. C. Winkel of Lilymoor dropped into our office during the past week to say "thanks" for receiving the Plaindealer during his two years of overseas service. We remember a similar visit from him just before leaving the States. While the time has seemed short to us, the young soldier has no doubt experienced so many changes that the past twenty-four months has seemed a long time. Sgt. Winkel was one of the many unfortunate men who has come home not only to changed general surroundings but also to a change within his own home, for his father passed away several months after he went overseas. However, he has returned the same smiling soldier that left, and is enjoying a thirty-day furlough with his mother.

Several of our serviceman of whom we had lost trace of as far as address was concerned, have informed us as follows: Richard Weber is now at Oceanside, Calif., William O'Brien at Camp Claiborne, La., and Henry Buch at Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Frank Martin has been transferred from San Diego to San Francisco, Calif.

A letter from Mrs. H. O. Krepel of Crystal Lake, formerly of McHenry, informs us that she has had no word from her son, LaVern, in four months. The Red Cross has been notified.

Sgt. Harold A. Dowell has been transferred from Fort Riley, Kas., to Kearns, Utah.

Both Steve and Paul Harvey have been visiting home folks during the past week. Steve has spent most of this summer traveling with the "Here's Your Infantry" show, which has been touring the country. Paul is stationed at Waycross, Ga.

M. L. McIntyre has been transferred from Yuma, Arizona, to Blythe, Calif.

R. J. Sutton returned to Santa Maria, Calif., on Saturday after a furlough spent with his parents.

Two local soldiers were recently discharged at Fort Sheridan. They were Sgt. Richard Schneider and Corp. Robert Doran.

Irvin L. Freund is enjoying a thirty-day furlough after service in the Pacific area.

Corp. Glen R. Glos, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Glos, now stationed at Langley Field, Va., AAF training command radar observers school, where he is serving as radar technician, has been promoted to sergeant it was announced this week. This promotion was one of ten hundred and forty-four announced at the post during the week, making one of the largest lists raising enlisted men and women in grade in the history of the post.

Local servicemen who were farsighted enough to take with them their cameras when going overseas will no doubt be the proud possessors of some very treasured pictures in years to come. Some of these viewed lately were taken at Agra, India, by Warren Jones, who has sent home some beautiful pictures of the famed Taj Mahal. We have seen no better ones in encyclopedias. Another scene which should capture a prize was one of some native beasts of burden drawing a wagon laden with goods. No doubt a good many such pictures will come out of this war.

New on our list of soldiers and sailors is Richard W. Kelley, stationed at Las Vegas, Nevada.

Pvt. Walter J. Grisham, 19, son of Mrs. Emma Grisham of 160 S. Aldine avenue, Elgin, who was wounded in Belgium on February 9, and returned to the States in April for hospitalization, has been given an honorable discharge from the army at the convalescent hospital at Camp Carson, Colo. He was being treated there for frozen feet and shrapnel wounds in the arm. A graduate of the Elgin high school in 1944, he was employed by the Illinois Watch Case company and the shoe department of Block & Kuhl before entering service in July of 1944. He is the son of the late James B. Grisham, a veteran of World War 1 and former commander of the Watch City post of Veterans of Foreign Wars. The Grisham family formerly made their home in McHenry.

Recent transfers include Merle C. Davis, from Jacksonville, Fla., to Cherry Point, N. Carolina, and Bob Stilling from Columbia, S. Carolina, to San Diego.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Justen are the parents of their second son, born last Thursday, August 9, at the Woodstock hospital. Mrs. Justen is the former Beatrice Weber.

A son was born last Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Thompson. Mrs. Thompson was formerly Miss Kathryn Worts.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schmitt of Johnsburg are the parents of a daughter, born on Sunday at the Woodstock hospital.

A daughter was born on Wednesday, August 8, at the Woodstock hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Julian Thomas of Woodstock. Mrs. Thomas is the former Miss Virginia Engeln. The couple has one other child, a girl.

A marriage license has been issued in Chicago to Arthur J. Wright of Ringwood and Angela Classy of Chicago.

MARSHALL BACON

The above picture of Marshall Bacon was taken several months ago, upon the soldier's return from service in the European theatre. Marshall, the son of Mrs. Zena Bacon, entered the army early in the war and was one of the first of our local men wounded, in the spring of 1942, in North Africa. After a period of hospitilazation in Florida upon his return to the States, Marshall was honorably discharged a few weeks ago at Camp Grant.

Miss Frances Barber of Richmond, a Junior in the local high school, will be guest soloist at the band concert to be presented this Friday evening at 8 o'clock on the high school grounds. Miss Barber, a member of the bass section of the band, has a lovely soprano voice which lends itself well to her chosen numbers, "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" and 'Moonlight and Roses." Miss Barber acted as vocal soloist at programs last winter at the school and should prove equally as popular with the band this Friday night.

ILLINOIS' BIGGEST BIRTHDAY LIST IS NOW IN COMPILATION

Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett has begun preparation of the biggest birthday list ever compiled in Illinois.

When completed, the list will consist of more than three million names—the names of all the state's motorists having driver's licenses.

It will be employed, in the future, in issuing driver's licenses under a new law which became effective July 1. This legislation provides that licenses issued this year shall expire upon the first anniversary of the applicants birth occurring after May 1, 1948. It will be up to each driver after that date to apply for a new license, good for three years, when his birthday rolls around.

Purpose of the law, which is operative in Illinois only, among the forty-eight states, is to spread the work of handling applications. Since the driver's license law was enacted in Illinois, requiring motorists to have permits by May 1 every three years, there has been a tri-ennial pile-up in the automobile department of the Secretary of State's office, with inevitable delays in issuing licenses. The birthday timing of the new law will eliminate delays, save the considerable expense of extra help hire, and increase the general efficiency of the operation. Secretary Barrett's birthday list will make it impossible for any driver to avoid applying for a license on time.

There is even a provision in the law covering those persons born in leap year, who are said to have birthdays only once in four years. The law says: "The anniversary of the date of birth of any applicant born on February 29, shall, for the purposes of this section, during the years in which there is no February 29, be considered as March 1."

SURPLUS OF WAR PROPERTY GOES TO RETURNED VETERANS

Veterans wishing to apply for surplus war property for use in connection with an agricultural enterprise should contact the local county AAA office, Chairman Bert Bridges has stated.

Triple—A offices have been designated to make the applications available to the veteran and to assist him in completing the form. When the application has been certified by the Triple-A committee, it will then be forwarded to the district office of the Smaller War Plans Corporation.

Mr. Bridges says he believes this program of the Surplus Property Board set up to make surplus goods available first to the veteran who needs equipment in establishing or maintaining his own agricultural enterprise will benefit a great number.

CARD OF THANKS

In this way I wish to express my appreciation to those who sent me cards, letters and who visited me during my stay in the Woodstock hospital.

MRS FORD HANFORD.

ESCAPE SERIOUS INJURY

Two Harvard residents narrowly escaped with their lives in serious automobile accidents last week. Both men, Roy Anderson and Harry Esmond, were hospitalized. Anderson employed by the Gorham trucking company in Woodstock, was returning home in his car early Saturday evening, August 4. He pulled around a semi-trailer truck to pass it, near the outskirts of Woodstock, but, when he saw another car approaching, tried to duck back in line. He smashed into the rear of the truck and the front of his car was demolished. Anderson suffered severe cuts on his head, chest and arms, and his leg was injured.

RETURNS STOLEN PURSE

The person who took a purse from Mrs. Don Thompson of Barrington, wife of a serviceman, while she was shopping in a grocery store, has returned the bag with the family supply of ration books and everything else in it except the $40 cash. The disappearance of the large black bag was reported to Barrington police on July 28. On Tuesday of the next week Mrs. Thompson was notified by the post office that a package had been left there for her without postage or a return address. It was the purse with all its contents less the money. Her address was printed on the wrapping. The parcel had been deposited in the mailbox in front of the post office.

LIMIT LICENSES

At a meeting last week the Libertyville Village board adopted an ordinance which places a limit on the number of licenses which can be issued to serve alcoholic beverages. Under terms of the ordinance, effective now, only five Class A, two Class B, and five Class C licenses may be granted. There are five Class A (taverns which can sell beers, wines and liquors) now operating; there are two Class B (package goods) establishments, and one Class C (beer only) licenseholder.

RAILWAY PROTECTION

Otto Buhl, secretary of the Crystal Lake Chamber of Commerce, has received word from the Chicago & North Western Railway company that the request for more adequate crossing protection on Terra Cotta avenue will be investigated and a report made. The request to the railway company was made when Leonard Larsen narrowly averted death there on July 23 when a milk truck he was driving was struck by a passenger train.

MOTHER IS ARRESTED

Mrs. Dorothy Stocker, 25, who resides in Vernon township near Wheeling, has been arraigned in Waukegan on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of her five minor children. Mrs. Stocker was arrested at her home on Rt. 45 by deputy sheriffs. Her husband, Felix, was wounded in action and is now confined to an army hospital. Deputy sheriffs found the children, ranging in age from eight months to eight years, naked and dirty. They were unattended. She had left them alone for hours and it was after midnight when she returned home, where the deputies were waiting.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH

A coroner's jury returned a verdict that Fred Tuerck, 48, came to his death July 28, by being accidentally run over by an Elgin, Joliet and Eastern freight train near Diamond Lake. Tuerck had been employed as a section hand on the railroad. The verdict was returned after it was stipulated that if further evidence is developed, the inquest can be reopened. Chemical analysis of stains found on a shirt Tuerck had worn the night before his body was found on the railway, had not been completed when the inquest was held. When Tuerck's body was found it was nude above the waist. The stain-marked shirt was found in a bunkhouse where he lived with other section hands.

Bob Richardson Has Narrow Escape In Truck-Train Crash

Bob Richardson had a narrow escape on Friday afternoon of last week when the truck he was driving was struck by the 2 o'clock passenger train from the north at the McCullom Lake crossing. Bob, driving for A. P. Freund, contractor, approached the crossing traveling west. Finding that he was unable to stop in time, he turned the truck sideways, resulting in the back of the vehicle being struck by the train first and as the truck swung around the front of it was hit. While it was completely wrecked, the driver fortunately escaped without a scratch.

RURAL POWER LINES BEING BUILT RAPIDLY SAYS PUBLIC SERVICE

More than 400 farms and rural establishments were added to the rural electric lines of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois during the first six months of 1945, making a total of 25,430 rural customers served by the company as of June 30. Britton I. Budd, president, said another 134 farms were in process of connection on that date and still another 581 were adjacent to present lines, making electricity available to 87.2% of the farms in the 6,200 square mile, 16-county area comprising the company's territory.

Rural power lines, he added, are being built just as rapidly as manpower materials permit. Of the 29,971 farms and rural units in the company's territory, only 3,826 now require power line extensions and completion of the job of rural electrification is scheduled for the immediate postwar period.

During the year ending June 30, farm customers of the company used an average of 2,500 kilowatthours of electricity, an increase of 154 over the previous year, Budd said.
