Tiger game ends in donnybrook

MARKHAM — An Aurora Tiger player sparked a riot here Friday that delayed an Ontario Provincial Jr. A hockey game 30 minutes and resulted in all but a player from each club being assessed ten-minute misconduct penalties.

The brawl during the Tiger-Markham Waxer game began in the stands between the two benches and spread to the ice when players from both clubs rushed to the aid of their respective team officials.

Randy Humphries was skating to his own bench when he jabbed his stick and Waxer assistant trainer Andy Curr.

Curr, a trainer with the Markham Jr. B hockey club, rushed Humphries but, in his attempt to get into the Aurora bench, was met by Tiger coach Jack Ferguson.

"I kind of went up to him and said, 'Get away from our bench'," Ferguson later told reporters.

The two men came shoulder - to - shoulder before Humphries re-entered the fray.

"I never got a lick in because Hump was over me and the brawl was on and on and on..." explained the Tiger coach.

Assistant Tiger coach Jim Williams rushed to Ferguson's aid and suffered cuts to his face when struck by the stick of a Markham player.

The benches cleared and supporters for both clubs rushed to the crowded corridor that separated the two teams.

Ferguson, whose Tigers lost the game 4-2, was philosophical about the incident.

"I don't know if I've got 19 hockey players but I've sure got 19 friends," he said after the entire team had rushed to his aid. "Better make that 21 because I saw George and Danny (George Berger and Danny Atkinson, two Aurora players not dressed for the game) in there too."

The battle was quelled in less than 15 minutes but Kerry Gilmour, manager of Markham Centennial Centre where the game was being played, brought howls of protests from the crowd when he announced that police had been called and any fans not in their seats when police arrived would be charged.

A single officer arrived and was greeted by a jeering but otherwise pacified crowd. He was joined by three reinforcements who talked to officials for both clubs.

As the first civilian assaulted, Ferguson was given the option of laying charges but declined to do so.

The game resumed after a total delay of about half an hour and Markham went on to win the contest 4-2.

Newmarket wins cliffhanger against Williams' juniors

AURORA — "It was a real cliff hanger. A game designed to produce more grey hairs." That was the way Newmarket coach, Vivian Campbell described the Newmarket High School junior girls' volleyball victory over Williams Secondary School here, Thursday.

The first game of the match went to Newmarket by a score of 15-11, but Williams rallied to win the second game 15-9.

It was the final game that inspired Campbell's vivid description.

With first Newmarket, then Williams dropping in a point, the score seesawed back and forth, with Newmarket finally winning the game 17-15.

Anne Emerson and Heather Spark led the Newmarket team with nine points each, while Barb Strange and Janet Catto picked up eight each for Williams.

In senior competition, Newmarket downed Williams in two straight games, winning the match 15-9 and 15-8.

Williams turned the tables on Aurora High School 15-4 and 15-9.

In other junior action, Williams downed Aurora in a close match, that saw Aurora win the first game 15-6 only to have Williams come back and win the next two by the identical scores of 15-13.

Maureen Figge picked up 17 points in all to spark the Williams victory, while Janet Catto grabbed six and Linda Patton seven.

Lynn Weller scored six points in the first game for Aurora.

Newmarket did not play Aurora in the Thursday competition.
