Alcohol not needed

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows.

Ayer's — We publish our formulas. We banish alcohol from our medicines. We urge you to consult your doctor

Ask your doctor, "What is the first great rule of health?" Nine doctors out of ten will quickly reply, "Keep the bowels regular." Then ask him another question, "What do you think of Ayer's Pills for constipation?"

Addresses and Presentations.

On Friday evening March 11th a large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Braniff to bid farewell to them before their departure to their new home in Markdale, when they were presented with lovely upholstered chairs. Mr. Alex Carruthers read the address while Mr. Robt. McMullen made the presentation.

To Mr. and Mrs. John Braniff,

Dear Friends,—It is with a feeling of sincere regret that we, your friends and neighbors have gathered at your home to bid you farewell. In the fifty-two years of your sojourn among us we have ever found you obliging and benevolent neighbors. We feel assured that your going away will be deeply regretted by the community at large. When we look back and recount the number of kindnesses received at your hands our regret is more than words can express. As a token of the esteem in which you are held, and as a mark of appreciation we ask you to accept these chairs. We hope that you both may enjoy long life, health and prosperity in your new home.

Signed on behalf of the friends and neighbors:—Fred Stuart, Robr. McMullen.

Mr. Braniff made a very appropriate reply in behalf of himself and Mrs. Braniff. After a bountiful lunch and some speeches the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing by the young people till the wee sma' hours of the mornin'.

On Friday afternoon March 11th the teacher, Miss Teed, and pupils of "Sunlight College" presented Willie Braniff with a toilet case. Howard Smith read the following address and Comford Thompson made the presentation.

Dear Willie,—It is with a feeling of sincere regret that we, your teacher and schoolmates, realize that you are about to leave us. When we look back on the good times we have had together both in and out of school our regret is more than words can utter. As a token of the esteem in which you are held, and as a mark of appreciation of your kindness and helpfulness we ask you to accept this toilet case, hoping that you will ever remember your many schoolmates.

Signed on behalf of the school:—Howard Smith and Comford Thompson.

Quite a number of the young men from this vicinity went west. Some of the girls are feeling lonesome. Cheer up, girls, there are as good fish in the sea as ever were caught.

Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. W. Richardson in their sad bereavement in the loss of their eldest son. Joe was well known in this neighborhood.

Hurry up O.D.R. cor. and don't let the S. Line beat you for news.

Knox Church, Leamington, Ont., on March 7, decided to extend a call to Rev. A. W. Shepherd, of Markdale. The call has yet to come before the Presbytery of Chatham to be sustained, and also before the Presbytery of Owen Sound, and while it will not be definitely settled for a month yet, it is probable that Mr. Shepherd will be transferred to Leamington. Leamington is a town of over 3000 inhabitants, and is 36 miles east of Windsor on Lake Erie. It has all the modern conveniences, such as waterworks, High School, and is in the centre of the fruit country.—Standard.

ON THE VERGE OF BREAKDOWN

When You Think Yourself Only Out of Sorts You are Often Seriously Ill.

Thousands are just on the edge of the crater—just ready to topple in the crater of ill-health and nervous breakdown. Such was the case with Mr. E. E. Follett, a well-known figure in all business social circles of Grand Rapids.

"I had not been well for a year or more. I had lost in weight and could not pick up. I tired of my work—it seemed like drudgery—no pleasure in it like there used to be. When I got thin, I seemed to have little blood and my hands and feet were clammy and cold. To make matters worse I grew nervous—got irritable and worried over mere trifles. I tried dieting and various medicines, but profited by none of them. I was on the verge of a breakdown when my druggist recommended 'Ferrozone.' It wasn't very long before I felt it was a true blood and nerve builder. I was encouraged so much after the third box that I got six boxes more. In seven weeks I gained six pounds and was looking the picture of health. Ferrozone has made a new man of me."

Ferrozone Builds Up Gives Strength

There is no tonic so quick and sure to build you up as Ferrozone—just one or two tablets to take at meal time, try it. Fifty cents a box, six for $2.50, all dealers or The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Canada.

"The Best Editorial Page in Canada"

The Toronto Daily Star publishes every day six columns of editorials and editorial features—and there's not a dry line in the six columns.

John Lewis, author of "The Life of John Brown" (Morang's Series) has few equals in Canada. He is by many considered to be second only to Goldwin Smith as a master of English.

Joseph T. Clark, known as "Mack" when he was editor of "Saturday Night", is known throughout Canada as a keen, clever and witty writer. His cables and letters on the British elections from England, where he was sent by the Star, have attracted wide attention.

Two things to be specially noted about all the Star's editorials are first that they are always fair—no bitterness or biased partizanship—and second that they are never dull, but deal in a bright way with the subjects in which you and your neighbors are interested.

In a lighter vein are the "Chronicles of the Khan"—delightfully humorous-pathetic studies from real life, particularly rural life—"Uncle Walt's Corner" of clever poetry in prose—and "A Little of Everything"—that you can always count on for a pleasant ten minutes.

A regular reading of the Star's Editorial page will keep a man informed on every topic of live interest to Canadians. Why not subscribe now?

Says the Miller:

"Old Bill Stumps who used to run the bake-shop in our town told me that was the strongest doggone Manitoba flour he ever baked. It was Bill that first called me the Flour Wizard, and even up to the time of his death he was kind of suspicious that I put something in the flour to make it so powerful strong.

'Cream of the West' Flour

"But Bill was wrong there. 'Cream of the West flour is made from the best wheat, and its strength is the result of 'Model Mill' Methods."
