New Trier High school's "Music" team, scoring 1,190 out of a possible 1,200 points, won the grand piano offered as the prize in the music memory contest held in Orchestra hall, Chicago, Saturday afternoon. Evanston teams took third places in both the high school and grade school divisions.

The contest was carried on under the direction of Mrs. Marion V. Cotton, with the Chicago Symphony orchestra furnishing the music. All schools in Cook county outside of Chicago were represented. The contest consisted in naming the composers of twenty-five selections played by the orchestra under the direction of Mr. Stock, together with the composer's birthplace.

Wallace Muehlberg, Katherine Hamilton, Marie Levi, Dorothy Clyde and Pauline Manchester comprised the victorious New Trier quintet. The grade school competition was won by the Cicero team over the youngsters from Wilmette. Out of a possible 950 points the winning team scored 946.

Members of the Wilmette grade schools team were: Pauline Billow, Alice Sanderson, Homer Flentye, Anna Margaret Stansell, Ruth Caldwell, Louise McCoy and Mary Elizabeth Sturtevant.
