A party of British officers at Salonika fell into a dispute. The question was which smelt the worst a Turk or a goat. One of the officers was duly constituted judge. A goat was led in, and the officer fainted. Then the Turk was brought in, and the goat fainted.

What constitutes a days work? We figure it out that it depends altogether on your occupation. If you lay brick, eight hours; if you keep house, sixteen hours; if you preach the gospel, two hours; if you are a porter in a sleeping car, twenty hours; if you serve the government, one hour; and if you are a newspaper man, twenty four hours.

Walkerton

Miss Agnes Kempel, who went violently insane here last week, was examined by two local physicians on Thursday before Magistrate Tolton, and on being found mentally deranged, was ordered by the court to be committed to the asylum. She is now in the Walkerton jail, pending her removal to London.

The incoming C. P. R. passenger train while crossing over the bridge this side of Durham on Tuesday noon last began to rock until the hair of many of the passengers went up straight with excitement. After striking land again in safety the train was stopped and an investigation made when it was discovered that one of the piles supporting the bridge had sunk fourteen inches, it being undermined by the flood which almost reached the top of the bridge. Amongst the passengers was Chief Justice Mulock, of Toronto, who was coming here to preside over the Assizes, and who during a long life hasn't probably had many closer calls. The bridge was put in repair again yesterday, and traffic over the structure has been resumed.

Given by Judge Greig ten days to get out of town, Mrs. Emma Helwig is about to depart, if she hasn't already left, for other fields, and the fact that few eyes will be wet over her farewell shows the unenviable reputation that she acquired during nearly a year's sojourn here Coming from Hanover as Tony Zuber's house-keeper she sprung into the lime-light as a conspirator. Her specialty was to accuse prominent local men of having wrongful relations with her and then try to wring real money out of them by threatening them with prosecution unless they came and settled The game was too transparent, and none of the "easy money" came. Instead, however, she was landed into court on the charge of conspiring against two local citizens and and sending them menacing letters demanding money. She pleaded guilty before Judge Greig on Friday to the entire program and was let off on suspended sentence on condition that she leaves town within ten days.—Bruce Herald and Times.

We Must Still Recruit

We ought not to deceive ourselves by the idea that the war is already won. While there are many hopeful signs, there is still a vast amount of heavy work to do before the needful end is reached. The following serious words are from a recent communication from England :—"Some of our commanders incline towards the belief that Germany's coming repulse, however quickly followed up, may still necessitate a further Autumn and Spring campaign in 1918 for the final blows. There must in their opinion be no weakening of recruiting enthusiasm in Canada. Many men will be wanted, they say. They must train now or they will never be of use. General Lipsett, speaking when distributing prizes at a divisional boxing competition, warned the soldiers that while Germany approaches the final round of the fight showing signs of exhaustion, boxers seemingly exhausted often have a big punch in reserve. Don't cease preparations, rather redouble them, is the army's message." When the end is within reach it means usually, that even greater efforts than before must be put forth in order to finish the task at once. There is still much to do before Canada raises the 500,000 promised by Sir Robt. Borden, and each county must do its share.

In Loving Memory

Of Lucy McDonald, who died in March 1916.

We loved her, yes we loved her,
But Jesus loved her more;
And he has sweetly called her,
To yonder shining shore.

—D. McDonald and family.

The Brick Company are taking steps to bore for oil and gas at Cardwell Junction. It is claimed that the same strata exists as at Milton and Collingwood. The granite strata lies at a depth of 500 feet at Collingwood but gradually deepens as the vein proceeds south to nearly 2000 ft.

This is the Economical Paint to Use

CERTAIN inherent qualities are essential in paint to ensure your permanent satisfaction with its application.

Of these, the more important are Endurance and Covering Capacity. The extent to which these qualities are present, accurately determines the real value of your paint.

B-H "ENGLISH" PAINT 70% Pure White Lead, 30% Pure White Zinc, 100% Pure Paint made in over fifty artistic shades, combines these virtues in such a manner as to produce a result no other paint can excel, and few can equal.

It is economical because it will cover more surface and wear longer than other paints. A cheap paint does not permit of the use of the best ingredients, and always is expensive in the long run.

B-H "English" Paint—costing but little more than a cheap mixture—produces a better job that lasts three to four times as long.
