Mrs. S. Flynn of Hanover, aged 79 years, knit 300 pairs of socks for the soldiers during the year. So far as is known Mrs. Flynn holds the record for Hanover district.

The C. P. R. bridge building gang has been working on the Walkerton division for the past few days and are at present replacing some of the underpining and girders in the bridge over the Saugeen at Durham.

A horse, belonging to F. G. Dunning, of Durham, ran away n Sunday afternoon. Beyond sm ning the cutter no further damage was done.

Sheriff T. I. Thompson, of Owen Sound, passed away on Sunday of last week after a lengthy illness. He was Mayor of Owen Sound for a term and also represented North Grey in the Dominion Parl ament.

In Chatsworth recently Harry Brown discovered a large brown butterfly winging about his garden and at intervals trying to squeeze itself through the glass of his living room windows.

A public reception was given to Col. McFarland, late commander of the 147th Batt., and later second in command of the 4th C.M.Rs. in France, recently in Hanover and Durham. He gave a talk on the realities of war as he saw them while at the front.

In a letter which appeared in the Markdale Standard, Sergt. Das. Mercer of that town says he has applied to bring home the big siege howitzer which he was in charge of during the final stages of the war.

An assault case came up for trial in Hanover recently in which Jacob Pheffer, of Bentinck, and Edward Monk were implicated. The quarrel arose as the result of a dispute over the payment of an account. Pheffer alleged he was struck on the face with a measuring stick in the hands of Monk. Monk was ordered to pay the costs and the medical bill.

The last issue of the Renfrew Mertury contains an account of the annual meeting of the Renfrew Machinery Co. of that place, the general manager of which is Mr. F. D. Vickers, a native of Bentinck, and a former resident in Durham. That the company is having a successful career, there is no doubt, and Mr. Vicker's old friends here will be pleased to know that it is owing largely to his business ability that such a state of affairs exists. In the awarding of prizes, which is an annual incentive to their travellers and agents to do their best, we notice that our two local men, Mr. F. G. Dunning and Mr. W. J. Rabb, were successful contestants, the former winning third prize in the Organization contest and the latter winning prize No. 6 for agents. As the company does business all over Canada, Messrs. Dunning and Rabb may well congratulate themselves on their season's work.—Durham Chronicle.

Written In War Time.

That some celebrated of drinking songs, "We Won't Go Home Till Morning," found its inspiration in war. The air was composed by an unknown French soldier after the battle of Malplaquet, which was fought in 1709. The French troops suffered severely in the battle, and when night came a cold, drizzling rain and a shortage of food added to their discomfort. The trooper-composer wrote the song on a drumhead, and it was designed to cheer his unhappy comrades. It immediately attained popularity, and spread all over France, and thence to England and America.

The Bulgars.

The first barbarians to settle permanently in the Balkan peninsula were the Bulgars, a Finnish people, whose home was the middle Volga districts. The Slavs are said to have begun to pour into this region as early as the third century, but they were not established until some time after the Bulgarian invasion.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church will give a play entitled "Aunt Susie's Visit" on March 13. Further particulars later.

Wants a High Tower

Editor Flesherton Advance,

Dear Sir;—I have heard many suggestions for the erection of some lasting monument to our soldier boys and I believe that a public building would not fill the bill. I think that some monument should be erected which would be purely monumental in its purpose and effect.

Perhaps no place in the Province of Ontario is better suited for the erection of something which will at once be recognized as a monument pure and simple.

We all know of Calton Hill in Edinboro, Scotland, where several shafts are erected in honour of the Scottish soldiers who fell at Waterloo.

Owen Sound has a site unique in the Province and that is the top of the rock ledge on the Garafraxa Road at what is known as Holmes' Lime Kiln. This point is fourteen feet higher than the highest point in Markdale, twenty four miles south. A shaft along the line of the Eiffel Tower in Paris and two hundred feet or so high with a lighting system in the shape of a cross could be seen from every point in the County of Grey, from the North shore of Georgian Bay, from Lake Huron and from the County of Simcoe at the Collingwood Mountains. I suggest an iron monument built of iron, on the principle of the highest class of light house with a system of enclosed steps with a cupola at the top properly wired for safety which would give a view unsurpassed in Canada.

Why intrude the question of utility in a matter of this kind? One might as well suggest, instead of giving a soldier a badge of honour to wear upon his breast, he should be given an inscribed cup to drink out of. Would we wish to commemorate the deeds of our hero dead, let us do so in a prescribed way, by erecting a monument pure and simple.

Were a monument of the kind I suggest erected it would be an outstanding feature of the landscape in the day time and at night its rays of light would tell the mariner all over the Georgian Bay and away on the waters of Lake Huron, as well as the residents of all the parts of the distant county that here is one ever living evidence that we have not forgotten those who sacrificed their young lives that we should live.

I would like to hear what others have to say regarding this matter of commemorating the sacrifice of our soldier boys.

Yours truly,
H. G. Tucker.

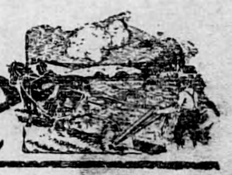
War to Peace



Make The Returning Soldier Welcome

THIS is an important hour for Canada. The nation is entering on a new era. It is passing from war to peace. Let us start this new era right. There are thousands of soldiers returning from overseas. The Government is doing all in its power to get these men back to civil life.

It is giving a War Service Gratuity—more than any other nation—to keep the soldier going till he gets a job.

It gives him a pension—where his usefulness is impaired by his service.

It teaches a man a new trade when his service unfits him for his former trade.

It gives him free medical treatment when illness recurs, and supplies free artificial limbs and surgical appliances.

It is bringing back to Canada at the public expense the soldiers' dependents now overseas.

But the Government, however willing, cannot provide the personal touch needed in this work of repatriation. That must be given by the people themselves.

The men who went from these parts to fight in Flanders deserve a real welcome home—the best we can give.

In most towns committees of citizens have already been organized to meet the soldiers and their dependents at the station, to provide hot meals, supply automobiles, afford temporary accommodation when necessary.

In addition, many other towns are organizing social gatherings to give public welcome to returned men after they have been home a few days.

After he has rested, the soldier must be provided with an opportunity for employment. In towns of 10,000 population, Public Employment Offices have been established to help soldiers, as well as war-workers, secure good jobs quickly. Where these exist, citizens should co-operate. Where they do not exist, the citizens themselves should help put the soldier in touch with employment.

* * *

The fighting job is done. It has cost many a heart-burning. But it has been well done. The least we can do is to show our appreciation in no uncertain manner.

Don't let the welcome die away with the cheers.
