—On Friday evening of last week, a witty old Irishment boarded the south-bound C. V. R. train at Orangeville. He had come to the latter place, he said, to get the "pure McCoy." He took a back seat in the passenger car, and being pretty heavily charged with forty-rod, addressed a young gentleman,—who was lazily reclining on a seat just in front of him—at some length upon the evils and "ungintlemanly attichudes of some vagabonds whin they wor thravellin in company wid ladies and gintlemin." In order to enforce his arguments—so to speak—he assumed an "oratorical" uprightness, when alas! the bottle of the "sthuff" concealed in an inner pocket fell to the floor with a crash and was smashed to bits—the "McCoy" covering a space on the car floor of about four feet square and "wasting its fragrance on the desert air." With a vigorous exclamation of surprise and indignation at this unlooked for termination of his "peroration," the old gentleman kicked a fragment of the bottle nearest him to the other side of the car, and got off at "Church's Falls" amid shouts of laughter from some of the passengers. Whether he took the next train for Orangeville "to lay in" a fresh supply of the "pure McCoy" or otherwise, deponent sayeth not.

An Enterprising Priceville Merchant.

Our readers will notice in to-day's ADVANCE a large advertising square on the 1st page of the paper, in the centre of which a few lines of type are placed in rather an odd position. Those of our readers who have not, as yet, examined it, should do so now, when they will find that the name of the lady who has adopted this original style of advertising, is Mrs. E. J. Grier, the energetic and enterprising Priceville merchant. Her store at Priceville will be found to contain a large and carefully selected stock of general dry goods, groceries, boots & shoes, hats & caps, and everything usually found in a first-class general store. The public will do well to call and inspect Mrs. Grier's stock, and note the bargains now being offered.

"How are we ever going to get through our spring and summer's work? We are all run down, tired out before it begins." So say many a farmer's family. We answer, go to your druggist and pay five dollars for six bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This is just the medicine you need, and will pay compound interest on the investment.

THE "Myrtle Navy plug" correctly represents the whole plan upon which its manufacture is conducted. There is not a fractional part of a cent expended upon it for mere a ppearance. It is neither wrapped in tin foil nor worked into fancy shapes, nor put in any fancy cases, nor subjected to any kind of expense merely to please the eye or captivate the fancy. The manufacturers rightly believed that tobacco was not purchased for ornament, but for smoking, and therefore all extraneous expense was avoided and added to the quality of the tobacco. The public have testified in its case that they prefer paying their money for a high quality of article than for ornament out of place.

THE INDIANS IN ARMS.

OTTAWA, March 31—In the house of commons shortly before midnight Sir Hector Langevin read the official news of to-night from the Northwest given in two despatches. The first despatch says that all the Indians—Crees and Stoneys—under Chief Red Pheasant are up in arms and that matters look most alarming. The second despatch says that Indian instructors Payne and Applegarth have been murdered by Indians. The house immediately adjourned on hearing the news. All the members appeared too sadly impressed to care about further business.

Poundmaker's tribe numbers 155 and Pine's 421, or together 577, out of whom probably 250 warriors could be had. The total number of Indians, nearly all Crees, in the district to which the rebellion may extend is as follows: At Fort Pitt 1190, at Edmonton 2921, at Carleton 1791, at Battleford 2423; a total of 8325—probably one half of whom are warriors.

The post office department has made extra postal arrangements for the convenience of the expedition.

There are over 16,000 treaty Indians in the Northwest territories, and about 1190 non-treaty Indians.

FREEMAN'S WORM POWDERS require no other Purgative. They are safe and sure to remove all varieties of Worms.
