DISTRICT SAYINGS AND DOINGS.

In the Arrangement of Which, Scissors and Pen are Freely Used.

——We regret to state that Dr. McWilliams is again confined to his room by illness. Dr. Christoe visited him on Tuesday. The Dr's. many friends wish him a speedy recovery.—Dundalk Herald.

The enervation and lassitude of spring time are but indications of the sluggish action of the blood, overloaded with carbonates accumulated by the use of heating food in winter. This condition may be remedied by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier known.

——Miss Bridget Rodgers, 107 years old, and who has been in the county gaol for the past two years, was on Tuesday last removed to the house of Providence, Toronto, where she will be looked after for the balance of her life.—Dufferin Post.

A Great Mistake.—It is a great mistake to suppose that dyspepsia can't be cured, but must be endured, and life made gloomy and miserable thereby. Alexander Burns, of Cobourg, was cured after suffering fifteen years Burdock Blood Bitters cured him.

——Saturday afternoon a little daughter of Mr. Jas. Elder, of Peabody, was playing on a sleigh on a log had been left, and the log rolled on to the child and killed her. Mr. Elder has the sympathy of the whole neighborhood in his affliction.—Chesley Enterprise.

Can Deafness be Cured?—Mr. John Clark, of Milldridge, Ont., declares it can, and that Hagyard's Yellow Oil is the remedy that cured him. It is also a specific for all inflammation and pain.

——Mr. Isaac Wilkinson, of Normanby, near Varney, has two ewes which have had seven lambs this season, one three and one four, and they are all doing well. Four lambs at once is a very rare occurrence, and for them all to be doing well is a thing seldom heard of.—Mt. Forest Confederate.

The Secret Out.—The secret of success of Burdock Blood Bitters is that it acts upon the bowels, the liver, the kidneys, the skin and the blood; removing obstructions and imparting health and vigor.

——In the libel suit Von Pirch vs. Rettinger, tried at Waterloo Assizes, a verdict for plaintiff of $1 and costs was returned. Mr. Rettinger, editor of the Walkerton Glocke, it appears, accused Rev. Von Pirch of being an impostor of Polish decent, and not as he represented himself, the son of a German baron.—Hanover Post.

Waterloo News.—Walter Linton, of Waterloo, writes that Hagyard's Yellow Oil has done great good in his family, his wife being cured of Callouse lumps that other medicines failed to remove, he also states that a neighbor was promptly relieved of Rheumatism by the same remedy.

——A painful accident befell Mrs. Gideon Moore, an old lady 69 years of age, of Bell's Corners, last Friday forenoon. Mrs. Moore had just stepped outside the door of the house when she slipped and fell on some ice, breaking her thigh near the hip joint. Dr. Jones was immediately summoned and everything possible was done to relieve the old lady. A break of this kind is a serious matter to a person of her age.—Mt. Forest Representative.

Ten years ago all our fine manufactured tobacco came from the United States. But month after month and year after year the superior quality of the "Myrtle Navy" brand has been driving the American article out of the Canadian market. The "Myrtle Navy" is now known in every village in the Dominion, and is as familiar to the smokers upon the Atlantic and Pacific coasts as to those of the city in which it is manufactured.

——Cruelty to Animals.—On Monday morning Wallace Jones was up before the Mayor for cruelly cutting off the tail of a calf belonging to Mr. Heitman, 5th street. John Irving and Joseph Kean were also in trouble charged with assisting their ringleader in annoying Mr. Heitman. After a severe admonition the youngsters were discharged in the hope that they would mend their manners in the future.—Collingwood Bulletin.

FOR Rough conditions of the Skin, Shampooing the head, Pimples, Fruption and Skin Diseases, use Prof. Low's Sulphur Soap.

——Boarded the Wrong Train.—A young man not twenty miles from here left Good Friday to visit friends in Mount Forest. On his arrival at Orangeville he boarded the Credit Valley train Imagine his horror and surprise when the conductor asked for tickets for Brampton. The mistake was not so serious, as he had friends in Brampton, where we expect he spent a pleasant time.—Shelburne Economist.

——Sent to Owen Sound.—James Stonehouse of this town, was sent to Owen Sound jail, as a dangerous lunatic, last Tuesday. For a long time he has been employed by Mr. Robert Bull, but for the last few weeks showed signs of serious aberrations of mind, which developed themselves so strongly as to warrant his committment, and on Monday last James Carson conveyed him to the County jail, much to the relief of the inhabitants of this enlightened and prosperous burg.—Durham Chronicle.

Cholera Preventative.

In order to withstand Cholera and such like epidemics a perfect purity of blood, and the proper action of the proper action of the stomach are required. To insure that end, in the cheapest, most available and complete manner, use McGregor's Speedy Cure for Dyspepsia, and Impure Blood. There is no purer, safer or more reliable remedy in existence for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, etc. Ask your neighbor or any person who used it. Sold at Richardson's Drug Store. Trial bottle given free.

——Sudden Death.—Mrs. Arch. Hunter, of this town, died very suddenly on Saturday morning last, of conjestion of the lungs. She was an old resident, having been here about 30 years. She came to the neighborhood with her father and lived in Bentinck, just north of Durham, but after removed into the town, and married the late Arch. Hunter, who died some eight years ago. She has since resided with her son-in-law, Mr. Arch. Hunter. The funeral took place to the Presbyterian cemetery, and was largely attended by relations and friends, who came out to pay a last tribute to an old and much respected citizen.—Grey Review.

First Steps.

Hush the baby stands alone,
Hold your breath and watch her,
Now she takes a step—just one,
Wavers, stops,—quick catch her!
Courage! Life's first step will cost,
Now again she's trying—
One, two,—three! she walks almost,
Trembling, stumbling,crying.

Precious baby! up once more—
Tiny feet advancing,
Little arms stretched out before,
Bright eyes upward glancing,
Where mama with cheering smile,
To her darling beckons,
Softly coaxing baby, while
Her first steps she reckons:

One, two, three—Oh! she will walk
Now, before we know it:
Hear her sweet—voiced baby—talk,
Little bird, or poet!
Prattling, toddling, there she goes,
Stepping off so proudly—
Turning in her untaught toes,
Pleased then laughing loudly.

First exploit of self—content:
Now she's growing bolder,
Strength and courage yet unspent,
One can hardly hold her—
She so presses to advance,
In her baby—learning—
Pulls so—Ah! by what mischance
Is this overturning?

There lies baby on the floor
Sprawling, rolling, screaming!
Are life's first attempts so poor?
Baby was but dreaming
When she felt so bold and strong;
Gladly now she's clinging
To the one whose soothing song
Back her smile is bringing.

Hurts are cured by mama's kiss—
Brave again as ever
See, the plucky little miss
Makes her best endeavor:
Walks right off—the darling pet—
Rush now to caress her!
Come what will of first steps yet.
All good angels bless her!

To My Sister, Lately Married.

(By Special Request.)

Let not my sister, though a wife,
Bid all her fears adieu,
Comforts there are in married life,
But there are crosses too.

I do not wish to mar your mirth,
With an ungrateful sound:
But yet remember, bliss on earth,
No mortal ever found.

Your prospects and your hopes are great,
May God your hope fulfil;
But you will find in every state
Some difficulties still.

The rites which lately joined your hands,
Cannot ensure content:
Religion forms the strongest oands,
And Love the best cement.

A friendship founded on esteem,
Life's battering blast endure.
It will not vanish as a dream,
And which I hope is yours.

But yet God's blessing daily crave,
Nor trust your youthful heart;
You must divine assistance have,
To act a prudent part.

Though you have left a parent's wing,
No longer ask its care;
It is but seldom husbands bring
A lighter yoke to wear.

They have their humors and their faults,
So mutable is man,
Excuse his failing in your thoughts,
And hide them if you can.

No anger or resentment keep,
Whatever is amiss,
Be reconciled before you sleep,
And seal it with a kiss.

Should he see cause to reprehend,
Bear it with mild address,
Remember he's thy dearest friend,
And love him ne'er the less.

It's not the way to scold at large,
To clamor, rage or boast,
For wives their duty best discharge,
Who condescend the most.

Mutual attempts to serve and please
Each other will endear,
Thus you may spend your life with ease,
Nor discord interferes.

Thus give your tender passions scope,
Yet better things pursue,
Be Heaven the object of your hope,
And lead him hither too.

Since you must both resign your breath,
And only God knows when;
So live that you may part at neath,
To meet with joy again.

And may the Lord your ways approve,
And grant you both a share
Of his redeeming, saving love,
And providential care.

——On Easter Monday a certain county town editor drove his best girl to the station and tied up his horse there while he escorted her on board. He was so engrossed in seeing her comfortably settled for her long and dreary ride of twelve miles that he did not hear the signal and was carried off by the train. Whether the horse remained at the station until the return of its driver next day or was taken care of by some sympathizing stranger is not recorded, but the c. t. e. looked as happy as if he had arranged the whole programme beforehand.—Chesley Enterprise.

Horsemen, Attention!

When your horse is galled, scratched or cut, or has any ugly sore, bathe twice daily, and apply McGregor & Parke's Carbolic Cerate. It is undoubtedly the finest healing and cleansing application for it. Be sure you get McGregor and Parke's. Sold for 25c. per box, at Richardsons Drug Store.

Catarrh—A New Treatment.

Perhaps the most extraordinary success that has been achieved in modern medicine has been attained by the Dixon treatment for Catarrh. Out of 2,000 patients treated during the past six months, fully ninety per cent. have been cured of this stubborn malady. This is none the less startling when it is remembered that not five per cent. of patients presenting themselves to the regular practitioner are benefited, while the patent medicines and other advertised cures never record a cure at all. Starting with the claim now generally believed by the most scientific men that the disease is due to the presence of living parasites in the tissue, Mr. Dixon at once adapted his cure to their extermination—this accomplished, he claims the Catarrh is practically cured, and the permanency is unquestioned, as cures effected by him four years ago are cures still. No one else has ever attempted to cure Catarrh in this manner, and no other treatment has ever cured Catarrh. The application of the remedy is simple, and can be done at home, and the present season of the year is the most favourable for a speedy and permanent cure, the majority of cases being cured at one treatment Sufferers should correspond with Messrs. H. A. Dixon & Son, 305 King street west, Toronto, Canada, and enclose stamp for their treatise on Catarrh.—Montreal Star, Nov. 17, 1882.
