The Canadian Post.

Chas. D. Bank, Editor and Proprietor.

Vol. XIX. Whole Number 965. LINDSAY, ONT., FRIDAY, MARCH 8, 1878. [Postage Prepaid by the Publisher.

Terms, $1.50 in Advance.

The Canadian Post.

PUBLISHERS NOTICES.

CHANGE OF ADVERTISEMENTS.—In acceptance with regular business, the Canadian Post is a medium, in order to secure insertion, that the leading country newspapers are to adhere more strictly to the cash system and to restrict long credits.

TRANSIENT ADVERTISEMENTS such as farms and other property for sale, situations vacant, lost or found, cash payable in advance or for first week of insertion of publication. Notes and estimates for work to be paid. Small notices published three or four times for one dollar cash.

CONTRACT ADVERTISEMENTS to be settled every three months. No discount, notes and business accounts to be paid for in advance or in the first part of the year.

SUBSCRIPTIONS.—Strictly cash in advance, or to be paid for quarterly in advance. Subscribers who do not receive their papers regularly will please report the date to the publisher. Subscribers who do not receive their papers on time will please report the date to the publisher. Subscribers who do not receive their papers on time will please report the date to the publisher. Subscribers who do not receive their papers on time will please report the date to the publisher.

SUBSCRIPTIONS.—The paper will be sent to subscribers until the amount due is paid and the publisher is notified to stop the paper. Subscribers are responsible for the subscription until the publisher is notified to stop the paper