To Everyman

THE first and most important aim of Everyman who desires to succeed should be the same as that of successful business and financial houses—the formation of a Reserve Fund.

A reserve is not only invaluable when reverses or emergencies arise, but it is a guarantee of strength and promotes self-confidence.

Knocked Down Jaw Broken

A mysterious and painful accident occurred on Wednsday evening last and one which created considerable excitement for a few hours. Little Billie Welton, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Welton, disappeared in the afternoon, and when he did not come home for supper his mother became worried, but nothing was done until the father, who had been away, arrived home about 9 o'clock. Then a posse of citizens was organized and a search begun. It was learned that he had been playing with two boys, one his own age and the other two years older, sons of Wm. Brown, who lives in the suburbs. Mrs. Brown says the boys came home and brought Billie's pup with them, saying the latter had given it to them and had gone fishing. The eldest Brown boy agreed when pressed to show where he had last seen little Billie, but before he did so other members of the search party found the little lad lying in R. Bentham's pasture field unconscious and moaning, not far from the highway. He was picked up and brought to his home when Drs. Guy and Henry made an examination but could not arrive at the extent of his injuries. He was placed in an auto and hurried to a Toronto hospital, where it was found that his jaw was broken, but the face was not disfigured. A plate had to be made to keep the bone in place, and he is still in the hospital.

A mystery surrounds the accident. The eldest boy claimed the next day that a horse kicked Billie, although he said nothing about it the night before. A stick was lying a few feet away that was the most probable means of the injury, although different theories are advanced.

There is much sympathy expressed for the little fellow, who is a sweet tempered, manly little lad, and a general favorite with everybody.

Mr. and Mrs. Welton wish to thank the citizens of Flatherton and surrounding country for their assistance during the search for the little lad.
