A Model Wife

Wealth, honor, a perfect wife
Of her husband's heart, though she be windowless fair
Is to her truth and purity of life,
Her tenderness and love, and her wakeful care
Day from year to year, poured her bright life Upon her home and children. The sacred vow Has been to her a talisman, to keep Her heart from wandering, and her faithful heart
Has been its guardian.
Her husband's home is happy, quietly bright,
Hopeful, and full of love; and he, in return, Has given her what she asks, a home, and honor, and wealth, for his care this she gives Back again, after years, a purer light, Richer and more mellow, broaden within its rays Little children, who love her with all their hearts,
Call her blessed, and around her every evening
Their little prattling lips, in childish joy, Lisp the name of mother, and ever Rise from her bedside her daily and nightly prayer
Are for her children and husband.
Blessed is the woman Who has such a husband, such children, such a home
Such a husband, such children, such a home
Such a husband, such children, such a home
Such a husband, such children, such
