Stoving from the Retail Trade.

Mr. A. Wright has decided to retire from the retail boot and shoe business and is now offering his large and well assorted stock at cost. The prices quoted are certainly very low and the goods are of the choicest description. As soon as the store is cleared the shop will be to lease, but the factory in the rear and upstairs will be continued with increased vigor. Mr. Wright's object in giving up the retail trade is to concentrate all his capital and energies in the wholesale business, which he proposes increasing to the utmost extent that business will warrant. In this development of his business he has the best wishes of every person for his success.

The thermometer registered 68° in the shade yesterday.

Mr. Rackett, the leader of the Port Hope band, has "exoded" to Elmira, N. Y.

Lindsay was not represented in the convention of chief constables held in Toronto on Tuesday.

A married woman named Sarah Peters was on Wednesday committed to gaol as being dangerously insane.

Scott & Andros photographed Dobson's corner from Bradburn's store on Thursday week. The picture is an excellent one.

Mr. Arthur McQuade M.P. sold to Mr. C. Quinsat of Montreal Friday last at Peter Hope's auction sale "Hobby Noble" mares for $400. There weight was 2,700 lbs.

Several hours were occupied at the Fenelon Falls division court over two cases, the amounts in dispute not exceeding 20 cents in the one and 30 cents in the other.

Messrs. Cooper & Smith, barristers, have opened a law office at Bobcaygeon, which will be in charge of Mr. D. H. Cooper. The business in Lindsay will be carried on as usual.

Prof. G. W. Hotchkin makes his last visit to Lindsay on the 16th, 17th and 18th of June next, when all who may require trusses, or who are suffering from rupture etc., would do well to call on him.

Good, well conditioned cattle are in demand to put on pasture and fatten for summer and fall sale. Several farmers are feeding quite a number and Mr. P. R. McIlhargey intends to feed sixty or eighty head.

The cheese factory on the 7th concession of Mariposa, owned by J. C. Rogers, is to be re-opened about the first of June. This will supply a long felt want to the farmers of that vicinity, and they will no doubt appreciate it by patronizing it liberally.

The Boston Traveller says: "We believe we may justly say that, considering the timeliness of its articles, its high literary merit and its artistic features the May number of Scribner's Monthly is probably the finest of any illustrated magazine published."

M. Sheehan, of Oscoda, Mich., writes: "I have used Dr. Thomas Eclectric Oil on horses for different diseases and found it to be just as you recommended. It has done wonders, and I shall use it on every occasion, and I shall always recommend it as the best oil for horses I ever used.

The Victoria railway announce special passenger rates for the Queen's birthday at one and a third fare between all stations good from Monday, 23rd, to Wednesday, 25th. On the 24th tickets will be issued at half fare. A grand celebration at Haliburton is announced and a special train will be run in connection therewith, leaving Lindsay at 8 a.m.

Fenelon Falls is to become a suburb of Lindsay. Several families have engaged rooms at Panwell's hotel and intend living there during the summer months. The gentlemen come every morning by the Victoria railway and attend to business during the day and go home by the evening train. The new arrangement on the Victoria will greatly facilitate this arrangement.

At the regular communication of Faithful Brethern Lodge A. F. & A. M., held Friday evening last, Rev. J. W. Smithett was presented with a handsomely engrossed address by the officers and members, in which the valuable services he had rendered to the fraternity were acknowledged, regret expressed at his removal from the town, and kind and brotherly wishes were expressed for success in whatever field of labor he may in the future be placed.

We commend this idea to the attention of citizens of Lindsay, who should take action in the same direction. The annual holiday for tree-planting and generally beautifying the town was held at Listowel last Thursday. Business was suspended. The efforts of the citizens were particularly applied to the agricultural grounds, which have lately come into the possession of the corporation, and will be used as a park and cricket ground.

Mr. Howells, in resigning the editorship of the Atlantic, evidently means to carry out his plan of devoting himself more exclusively to authorship. He has just put the last touches to "A Fearful Responsibility," which, although covering as many as forty-two Scribner's pages, will be given complete in two numbers of the magazine, namely, those for June and July. The scene of the story is laid in Venice. Mr. Howell's is now said to be busily employed upon a longer serial story for Scribner's Monthly, and in the conversation of other literary enterprises whose scope has not yet been announced.

POST PARAGRAPHIANA.

Midland District Notes.

Times are improving in Oshawa. An iron fence was painted last week.

Mr. Wm. Beattie of Pickering has been offered $2,500 for his celebrated imported stallion.

The assessors return the population of Peterboro at 7,615, a very considerable decrease.

Over fifty carloads of cattle and sheep and eighteen carloads of horses have been shipped from Manilla.

Mr. H. Madill of Pickering lost a pocket book, containing $1,100 last week while crossing suspension bridge.

Within the past few days a large number of sheep, valued at $900, have been destroyed by dogs in Thurlow.

Rev. J. S. Bogart of Napanee has been appointed rector of St. Alban's church, Ottawa, the fashionable and somewhat high church of the capital.

Edward Miall, the noted Nonconformist leader who recently died in England, was the father of Mr. F. Miall, a former resident of Oshawa, now of Ottawa.

A Mrs. Hunt of South Oshawa is suing J. Brooks, a hotel keeper, of the Port, for damages for enticing her husband with liquor after having been forbidden to do so.

The Port Perry Observer gives but a half hearted support to the new candidate. There is a nigger on the fence somewhere; perhaps it is the disappointed candidate.

On Thursday morning Dodd's Express of Perry Point, Belleville, collided with a night line a sturgeon five feet one inch in length and weighing seventy eight pounds.

Mr. Bell the agent for the Midland railway at Port Hope, has been removed to Garden Hill was presented with a handsome album and an address by the villagers.

Hon. T. Ryan Gibbs offered $30 per month by a citizen of Oshawa for the exclusive privilege of taking water from his mill race. He refused the offer and the town reaps the benefit.

—The Midland railway has notified Capt. Kerr that a demand of two dollars will be made for each and every time the "Lady of the Lakes" calls at the Orillia wharf during the coming summer.

—A scaffolding about twenty feet high in St. George's church, Oshawa, gave way and precipitated two or three men who were on it to the floor. All escaped with but a few bruises.

George Fizzeore, the sergeant of the 15th batt. at Belleville, who was wounded when working at the butts in October last, has detected his wife, taking with him $80 all the money they had and other property.

Mr. Wilmot, son of the superintendent of fisheries, has lately placed 20,000 salmon trout spawn in Lake Couchiching and 20,000 more in Lake Simcoe. Some of them are California fish.

An old resident of Port Hope who had been on a spree for some time the other day undertook to commit suicide by taking Paris green. A stomach pump was administered in time to save his life.

Daniel Tompkins, a cooper by trade, residing about one mile north of Brighton, deliberately shot himself Wednesday morning about 8 o'clock. The cause for his committing the awful deed is not known.

The ladies' aid society of the Methodist church at Brighton have struck on a novel idea for raising funds. They are making an album quilt and any person having ten cents can have his name worked thereon.

—A public meeting was held the other night in Colmbus to arrange for planting shade trees through the village. Lindsay might do well to follow the example, even if it does emanate from an obscure village.

The Uxbridge Journal says a petition asking for the appointment of Mr. W. Smith as police magistrate was forwarded to the Attorney General last Monday and that the appointment will be made in due time.

The village of Harmony boasts of having turned out on the world more professional men than any village in the district. Harmony has sent no less than five doctors. The well for the sake of Harmony they are not all there now.

The Cobchiching lake monster has reappeared with the opening of navigation. He was seen the other day in Sparrow lake. The Times hasn't seen the monster with bright and hopes he will be a terror to the boys swimming in the vicinity of the town.

How many village churches are used as to inviting Mr. Arnold Hammond. Some say an occasional sermon by an outsider is a good thing, others say the regular clergymen are the best outsiders to do their work, confess themselves failures.

The Port Hope News printed last week the names and occupations of over one hundred and fifty people who have left Port Hope during the last two years and taken up their residences in the United States. And still they say there is no exodus.

Forty barrels of coal oil were smuggled into this country from the United States at Port Hope, recently. The oil was frozen in at Picton, Ont. The original barrels were returned before the ice broke and the shippers were not prosecuted until the vessel arrived at Oswego recently.

—Three children of Mr. A. Pace, Belleville, were on the point of being poisoned by sausage which was purchased at a grocery on Saturday night. Prompt means were taken to counteract the poisonous effects, and the two elder children have recovered but the youngest is still very unwell.

—A man from a city across the lines is in the vicinity of Colborne, offering genteel situations and $20 per month and board to good-looking young girls. The pretty girls should consult their parents before accepting any such engagement or perhaps they will be led to their ruin.

—Miss Fizzeore, a girl of twelve years, while walking along the Grand Trunk railway track a short distance west of Oshawa station coming and meeting, was struck by the engine of the west bound express and thrown some distance down a steep embankment. She was badly bruised about the head and body. There are hopes of her recovery.

A complimentary banquet was given to Mr. Henry Wade, the new secretary of the agricultural and arts association on Friday evening last. About seventy-five of the leading farmers and gentlemen of Port Hope and vicinity sat down to the board. The chair was occupied by Mr. S. S. Ward, and after the usual toasts had been drunk the guests dispersed.

BUSINESS CHANGE.—Mr. A. McIntyre, proprietor of the cheese factory here for the last three years, has given up that business and intends starting a boarding-house—a sort of summer resort—for the accommodation of tourists and pleasure-seekers who visit Balsam lake during the summer. The building is situated in such a position as to command a splendid view of the lake and surrounding country. As Mr. McIntyre is gifted with all the qualities necessary for a good landlord and is also an excellent judge of dainties no doubt he will be well patronized.

EXCURSION.—Our Sunday school teachers propose to have an excursion to Sturgeon Point about the last of May or 1st of June. They intended to have one to the same place last year, but owing to some mismanagement it did not come off. We hope they will put forth an extra effort this time and carry out their intentions.

REMOVING.—Mr. John Fox, one of our village blacksmiths, is leaving here to go to Cookstown, where he has accepted a situation as traveling agent for the Sylvester foundry at a good salary. Mr. Fox has been here for a long time and by his uprightness and friendly manner has won for himself a host of friends who will greatly miss him here and who will wish him well in his new home.

CRADLE FACTORY.—Mr. P. Carr has his factory for the manufacture of cradles and other harvesting tools in full blast and will this year turn out two hundred cradles alone. His work has always given satisfaction.

PERSONAL.—Rev. D. M. Billings of the M. E. church here has lately moved from his late place of residence to a short distance north of the village and as the ex-M.P. health he will not preach any this year. His place has been filled by the appointment of the Rev. Mr. Pomeroy of the conference recently held.

BARN-BUILDING.—Mr. Profit is building a new barn just north of the village. Mr. Wells is the carpenter.

PUSHING.—Johnston & Beattie, our agricultural implement agents, are pushing things with renewed vigor this season and their ware rooms are constantly being replenished with implements from the different firms which they sell for.

The division is in a prosperous condition, with a large membership and meetings are held every evening of each week.

HYMENEAL.—Mr. Wesley Raymond, our much respected townsman, has taken unto himself a partner in life and taken up his residence here. We wish the young couple much happiness.

RUNAWAY.—As Mr. John Hodgson of this place was engaged rolling recently his horses became frightened and the old gentleman not being able to manage them they ran away with the roller, going through a tight board fence in two pieces. No damage done only to the roller, which was somewhat ricked.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Edmund F. Luke, jr., of this place is teaching at Machier's section, No. 4, Brock, and is meeting with good success. Mr. Luke is an efficient teacher. Miss Sarah Comer is teaching at Black's, Mariposa, and is likewise meeting with good success.

SCRAPS.—Weather cold.... Roads are bad.... Farmers busy seeding.... Some getting nearly through.

FINE CATTLE.—Mr. H. Whether of the 10th concession line sold a young heifer to Mr. Mawer of Cannington, twenty two months old, weighing 1,200 lbs. Mr. J. Elliott also sold five fine steers to Mr. Masker, the average weight being 1,200 lbs. Mr. J. Michael also sold to Mr. Kings five steers at $50 each. The farmers are getting plainly by exercising the benefit of using a thoroughbred sire years ago, the first that came into the township. He has purchased the third one this season from Mr. Kay of Brock, bred by Mr. Joseph Ward of Reach. It is a very fine animal, a dark roan, three years old.

LITTLE BRITAIN.

[Correspondence of The Post.]

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—The inhabitants of this village were alarmed last Monday morning very early on hearing that Mr. Neil McCaller and wife, living one mile west of this place, had been struck by lightning Sunday night while asleep. The neighbors found them in their bed almost helpless in the morning, the house being dreadfully shattered, the lightning appears to have run down the chimney, bursting a hole in the ceiling at one end of the roof, knocking out windows, tearing out a good deal of the upper and lower floor, splitting posts, and splitting the bark off one side of the house. Mrs. McCaller had a miraculous escape from death, as the electricity singed their hair, splitting the bed on a few inches from their feet. A cat in the cellar was killed.... The next day Mr. T. Short's barn was struck by lightning. Not much damage done.... Mr. and Mrs. McCaller are slowly recovering from the stroke under Dr. Vrooman's treatment.

HORSE TRAINING.—Prof. Brush, the celebrated horse trainer, camped quite an encampment in this place. He had a large school, his horses were well trained, and seemed to give general satisfaction.

MISSIONARY MEETING.—The annual missionary meeting of the Christian church was held last week. Elder Hainer, Rev. D. P. Sweet and Rev. Mr. Alsworth were present, each giving suitable addresses. The pastor of the circuit occupied the chair. The meeting passed off pleasantly and successfully. The choir rendered some choice musical selections.

VILLAGE IMPROVEMENTS.—The windows of the R. C. church have been refrosted.... A row of trees have been planted from Main-st. up past the R. C. cemetery and around the church. This shows taste and enterprise in our citizens, especially Mr. J. Cowle, who set the scheme in motion.

MEMOIR OF THE LATE MRS. WM. PRIOR.—Mrs. Prior was born in the year 1805 in the village of Northlew, Parish of Halwell, Devonshire, England. Joanna Browning was her maiden name. She was of a bright, cheerful temperament and of a lively disposition. The beautiful scenery of her native country was to her a source of never-failing pleasure. From very early youth she was the subject of religious impressions and these coupled with her natural buoyancy of spirits tended to her becoming a very happy christian. In the year 1831 she was joined with her now bereaved husband in the hold bonds of matrimony.

"Together they walked to the house of God,
Together they journeyed in life,
Expecting to reach a blest abode,
Together to dwell as husband and wife."

Faithful husband and wife, they, on the 1st March their golden wedding day arrived, they were fifty years married. A most blessed term of matrimony. Many pleasing reminiscences throw their adornment over these years, and although the cold and icy hand of death has been laid on Mrs. Prior, she is not lost but gone before; and the cheer of the past and the cheer of the future lights up the grave, for she has died in the hope of a most glorious resurrection. Husband and wife were both members of the Baptist church for a great many years but severed their relationship with the same owing to their having England for America. Twenty-six years ago they left the green-capped hills of England in the distance and on arriving in Canada settled in Mariposa township where they have resided ever since. Although no Baptist society was adjacent to which they could attach themselves, apart from the church of God they could not keep, hence they have been consistent members of the Christian church, Little Britain, for more than twenty years. About six years ago a paralytic stroke laid a fierce blow but one which deceased was able to bear throughout with christian resignation. In her death it could be plainly seen how a christian can die. To all who visited Mrs. Prior before her decease she gave the clearest testimony that all was well. Her children, all of whom have been trained in the good way, arise and call her blessed. "Mother" is to them one of the dearest and most treasured words of the English language. Mrs. Prior having died on Tuesday morning, 19th April, at three o'clock, was buried on the following Friday afternoon, at two o'clock. Friday afternoon, 21st April, a very large concourse of relatives and friends being in attendance. The writer of this memorial preaching a sermon founded on the words, "At evening time it shall be light."—Zech. xiv. 7. For the present mourning totally in order to carry out the instructions of the deceased in the following notice in accordance with sec. 506, chap. 174, of the revised statutes, that the council will at its next meeting pass a by-law to close up that part of Perry and Florence and the whole of Sussex, in the village of Oakwood, in accordance with a petition presented to this council from Mr. A. Cameron and twenty-seven others.—Carried. Moved by Mr. Bowes, seconded by Mr. Parkinson, that by-law No. 269, being a by-law to amend by-law No. 263, the same being a by-law to appoint overseers of highways for the year 1881 be received and read a first time.—Carried. Farnham, $10; ass to J. Sayles for 9.203 lbs. of meat, $1; for funeral expenses for Lemon Wallace.—Carried. Moved by Mr. Parkinson, seconded by Mr. Bowes, that the council pay office fees for indigent persons in the gift of the reeve.—Carried. J. F. CUMMINGS, clerk.

PUGILISTIC.—We are having quite a number of pugilistic encounters here lately. A little difficulty between two men had quite an encounter in Mr. Chirpaw's hotel, but as Mr. Chirpaw is determined to have no rows on his premises he had them put out.

IMPROVEMENTS.—The corduroy bridge here has been newly planked.... Mr Geo. Graham has built a new verandah which greatly improves his house.

NOTES.—Suckers are beginning to run.... Quite a number of drives will soon be down.

[Correspondence of The Post.]

ACCIDENT.—Mr. H. A. McLaughlin and Mr. Birchard of Norland were up here on a visit to their friends last week, and as they were about to leave the horse starting suddenly jammed Mr. McLaughlin badly between the gate post and the buggy, threw Mr. Birchard out on his head, and broke the shafts and whiffletree of the buggy; these being repaired the horse was hitched on again, and as Mr. McLaughlin was starting off the horse went as near as he could gallop and almost ran over a pine stump. Fortunately he did not or he would have smashed the buggy all to pieces as well as endangered his life.

FENELON FALLS

MILL ACCIDENT.—On Saturday last Mr. James Henley, of Fenelon, while engaged in jacking up logs in Mr. Fell's saw-mill in Verulam, accidentally slipped his left foot against the saw, which cut through the little toe and injured the foot, but only slightly, as the saw happened to be moving slowly. The toe was so badly mangled that Dr. Wilson thought it necessary to amputate it, an operation that was quickly performed, after which the foot was dressed and bandaged, and the patient made as comfortable as possible under the circumstances.

ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday of last week the youngest son of Mr. Cornelius Curnain of Verulam had the misfortune of his left arm broken about midway between the wrist and the elbow, by falling while climbing into a small enclosure to get a calf within which he and some other boys were playing. Dr. Wilson was sent for and set the fracture, and the patient, who is about ten years of age, is doing well.—[Gazette.

NORLAND.

[Correspondence of The Post.]

RUNAWAY.—On Saturday last our usually quiet village was thrown into excitement by a team belonging to Mr. Samuel Parker coming at a furious rate from the saw-mill. The team was left standing untied and taking fright they started on a disastrous expedition through the principal streets, working destruction on everything they came in contact with.

SOCIAL.—A grand entertainment was held in the school house last Monday evening, where young and old spent a pleasant time. After the inner man had been satisfied by the good things the young ladies had supplied, Mr. A. Hastings, J. P., was elected chairman and Rev. Mr. Davies of Coboconk delivered an appropriate address. The musical part was rendered in good style by the Norland choir. Some very pathetic and recitations were given by the young people; amongst which was a reading entitled "How he edited an agricultural paper," by our school teacher, Mr. T. C. Birchard. At the close of the entertainment a handsome sum of money was presented to Rev. Mr. Mourne, for whose benefit the social was held. Mr. Mourne made a few appropriate remarks and brought the meeting to a close. Mr. Mourne leaves for a new field of labor after a stay of one year amongst us. He carries with him the best wishes of the people of Norland.
