LOCAL NEWS-LETTERS

OAKWOOD

(Correspondence of The Post.)

SOCIAL.—A party of people from the direction of Lindsay [illegible] on Sunday last supplied with liquor inside and outside, behaving themselves besides shooting their guns [illegible] driving away chickens. [illegible] constable will look after the [illegible] that comes this way.

SEEDING is well on here.

[illegible] to be Methodist exclusively on the 23th inst.

PERSONAL.—Miss Carscallen, Lindsay, has been visiting here at her sister's, Mrs. Parson's—at McGlashan's. Mr. James McGlashan, Toronto, has been [illegible] Miss Jennie Bank's [illegible] visit to Oshawa, Port Perry and Markham.

A CHEAP SALE.—[illegible] Remember the auction sale of valuable piano and household furniture at residence of Mr. James McGlashan (rear of McGlashan & Co.'s store) at Oakwood, Saturday, [illegible] and will be sold at one o'clock. No reserve whatever as the proprietor is leaving Oakwood. A capital chance this for bargains in furniture.—[illegible]

COLBORNE

(Correspondence of The Post.)

[illegible] has been confined to the house with a severe attack of this village [illegible] with consumption of the lungs. The disease has laid her very low, but we are glad to learn she is slowly recovering. Her little daughter is very much better, at one time was despaired of, but is out of danger now.

[illegible] Mr. [illegible] of Marden, was a welcome visitor to our village last Sunday. Our [illegible] friend [illegible]

[illegible] Good and Fair [illegible] fresh beef, [illegible] people to get [illegible]

[illegible] have begun to come in, and [illegible] are way [illegible]

[illegible] is making some changes in the front, which is intended to make more commodious [illegible]

[illegible] Gould [illegible] work.

[illegible] are looking fine and farmers have [illegible] the weather this spring.

BEAVERTON

(Correspondence of The Post.)

CONSTABLE CONNOR.—[illegible] be remembered that about the middle of last April an individual named Bradford, [illegible] in connection with the fishery law [illegible] swooped down on [illegible] citizens and proposed to arrest everybody [illegible] fish hook. [illegible] the fine inspectors accompanied [illegible] sort of tinder [illegible] anticipated to carry things with a high hand, [illegible] discovered that [illegible] strong snap which they tried to overawe the sturdy citizens of Beaverton, Bradford having secured [illegible] assistance from whom he had previously promised to protect and who behaved [illegible] game who would [illegible] pay their fines and thus [illegible] table Bradford. But there is many a [illegible] and the lip as [illegible] in his eager haste to catch his victims committed a most flagrant breach of the village by-laws. Now our constables are amendable to the law [illegible] Bradford having offended [illegible] fined, [illegible] pocket, [illegible] with [illegible] dust of Beaverton [illegible] and returned. But we had not heard the last of him, for in the Barrie Advance of April 29th a letter appears over his signature in which after abusing the people of Beaverton generally he makes insinuations of a most despicable and [illegible] character against our worthy reeve and J. P., Mr. Geo. F. Bruce. The whole letter from beginning to end is a tissue of falsehoods and misrepresentation. An honest character for cleaning out even handed justice on all sides requires no indication from us. His probity and honesty of purpose are too well known to be in the slightest degree injured by the scurrilous scribbling of a roguish and contemptible jackanapes. In conclusion we would remind Mr. Constable Bradford that libel is a criminal as well as a civil offence and that to gentlemen of his character and informers generally the criminal branch is applied.

MONEY.—$50,000 private and company funds to lend at 6 per cent.—LOUIS M. HAYES, Barrister, Beaverton.—92-tf.

BRANCH OFFICE.—We understand that one of our legal fraternity, Mr. Hayes, intends opening a branch office in Brechin, where he will personally attend every Monday. We have no doubt this will considerably extend Mr. Hayes's practice.

GRAND PICNIC.—It becomes our pleasant duty this week to announce an event of great importance to Beaverton. It has been decided to hold a grand reform picnic here on the 22nd of next month, at which there will be present the Hon. Edward Blake and several of the leaders of the reform party. Many of us have never before had an opportunity of hearing a man who is also greatly admired in England. It behooves our distinguished visitor a right royal welcome and [illegible] committees will at once [illegible] to make all needful arrangements. An event of this kind will be of great benefit in advertising and bringing Beaverton into prominence. We hope every [illegible] in attendance for the occasion [illegible] and [illegible] will take place and it will be the duty of every [illegible] to see that a hearty welcome is extended by the people of Beaverton to all comers.

LAKE VIEW—CARTWRIGHT.

(Correspondence of The Post.)

PERSONAL.—Mr. Wm. Wilson is off to Pontypool. Miss Nellie is visiting at Mrs. Campbell's. Messrs. John Veale and Thos. Suggest from the Port Perry high school were home for the Easter holidays, looking as if studying agreed with them. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson of Hartleton are visiting their many friends in Manvers and Cartwright.

PRESENTATION.—Mrs. J. Elford presented her husband with a young daughter a few days ago.

SEEDING.—The farmers of this vicinity are busily engaged putting in their spring crop and business seems very brisk.

S. S. ANNIVERSARY.—The good people of this place seem quite undecided whether to hold their usual Sunday school anniversary or not. There is no time to be lost. Don't let the Sunday school go down. It is of great importance.

NOTE.—The attendance of the public school is very large at present. A wedding is expected soon.

COMMERCIAL NEWS.

OFFICE OF THE CANADIAN POST, LINDSAY, May 13, 1886.

Live Stock Markets.

There continues to be a good demand at Boston for horses of all descriptions with a good supply in the market, and prices appear to be as firm as earlier in the season. As the horses on sale are distributed at the different sale stables in the city they are easy of access.

During the past week Mr. Kimball of Montreal shipped to various points in the States ten car-loads of horses, which have mostly been brought in from Lower Canada, the receipts from Ontario being very light. Prices continue to keep up, and the supply is so light that several buyers went away without filling their orders.

The average importation of horses from Canada into the United States for some years past has been about 22,000 head. A few years ago the average value per head of horses so imported was $95, whereas last year it was $110.

Newspapers and Magazines. The May number of Harper's Monthly has for its frontispiece an engraving from Armitage's picture of "Faith." It is one of numerous illustrations of W. H. Ingersoll's articles on "Portraits of our Saviour." A chatty description of "The London Season" is profusely illustrated by Du Maurier, so well known in the pages of Punch. W. H. Gibson, in "Sap Bewitched," discourses learnedly yet fancifully on the strange vegetable growths caused by the egg-laying of insects. F. F. Zogbaums takes the reader through a fresh style of military life, "With Bluecoats on the Border." C. D. Warner carries us along with his friends on "Their Pilgrimage" through summer pleasure resorts. In "The Home Acre" E. P. Roe gives useful practical hints on vine culture. There is another instalment of "She Stoops to Conquer," with Abbey's striking illustrations. Miss Woolson's novel, "East Angels," is concluded, and the other two serial tales, "Springhaven," by Blackmore, and "King Arthur," by Mrs. Craik, are proceeding with growing interest. Short tales, poetry and the editorial miscellanies complete an excellent number.

Stock Notes.

PHIL RYSDYK.—In another column will be found the route, pedigree and terms of this fine young stallion. Mr. McKey deserves liberal patronage from the people of Ops and Lindsay, who are lovers of good road horses, for placing at their command a fine animal of the famous Rysdyk Hambletonian family at a reasonable price, when horses of the same strain across the lines are commanding from one to three hundred dollars for service alone. A glance at the pedigree will show the merits of Mr. McKey's fine horse. The Hambletonians are so well-known that it is not necessary to enlarge upon their merits or points. Phil. Rysdyk stands at Daley's hotel, Lindsay, on Thursdays. See advt. elsewhere.

IVANHOE.—This superior Canadian draught stallion, the property of Mr. Geo. Curtis, lot 7, con. 1, Ops, is to the fore this season in fine fettle, and will make the season in the townships of Ops, Fenelon and Mariposa. As a prize-winner Ivanhoe (750) virtually stands at the head of the list in his class, having won the Toronto Industrial medal last fall, competing against a large field of the best horses in the Dominion and under the critical examination of professional horsemen. This achievement alone speaks for itself and will no doubt prove a strong recommendation to our farmers and breeders. A local horseman states "that Ivanhoe, while not as fat as last year, is in fine condition, looking and feeling well, and was never in better form than he is to-day." For pedigree and other particulars see advertisement on our 7th page.

ABBOTSFORD.—Mr. Geo. McHugh's fine stallion will travel in Ops, Emily and Verulam this season. Abbotsford's pedigree is one of the best in the country. His dam "Garscaddon Maggie" is a famous mare. A Glasgow correspondent of the Chicago Breeder's Gazette in a descriptive review of the Clydesdales at home places Garscaddon Maggie (41), dam of Abbotsford, first in the list of five first-prize winners at Aberdeen in 1876, and adds: "Garscaddon Maggie is one of the most beautiful specimens of the breed in Great Britain. She is of the same type as Mr. Gilmour's mare Rosie of Hallside, and stands on short legs with beautiful feet and pastern, of the best quality of bone. Her sire was Burn's famed breeding horse General Williamson (33), and her dam was Garscaddon Lovely (40), a capital mare and one of the dams of the world-famed Victor (802). Lovely was first prize in the following year at Kilmarnock, when with foal at foot, and competing against twenty performances, or even stronger, Among the mares bearing by her on that occasion was the same prize mare Queen, which afterwards became the property of the mare which had her eye in front and top the year before. I feel proud of your chance, sir, for now."

North British and Mercantile Ins. Co. This company was established in 1809, and ranks with the best English companies. Its reserve and accumulated funds are equal to any one company. It insures all classes of property at the current rates, and all losses are paid promptly on equitable terms.

The Northwest War Medals. Last week a consignment of medals for the men of "C" Company were received by Col. Denison, and samples have been on view at the barbershops. In all, forty medals were sent for the company including those for the men from Lindsay and the Cartwright contingent. As medals go the trophy is not intrinsically of great value. No clasp is furnished with the medal which hangs from a piece of blue and red ribbon. The medals are about the size of a silver half-dollar, having on the obverse side a cast of Her Majesty's head, surrounded by the inscription, "Victoria Regina et Imperatrix." The other side bears a wreath of maple leaves surrounding "North-West, 1885, Canada." The names of the recipients will be engraved on the edge of the medal, but whether at personal or public expense has not been decided.

PEDIGREE AND DESCRIPTION.

PHIL. RYSDYK is four years old; stands 15 hands 3 inches high, and weighs about 1,150 lbs., is a bright bay, with black points, except one white ankle behind. His legs are unexcelled in type and quality, being large, flat, flinty, well strung and strongly jointed. His knees are broad and strong, his pasterns stout and gently sloped, his feet are tough and well modelled. He has a full, silky tail, well carried. He has not yet been handled sufficient to even make him handy, but has often showed fast stepping, and he is the making of a good one sure. He is a sure foal getter, and the few that are from him are fine, promising ones.

PHIL RYSDYK (3580) was bred by J. P. Wiser, at the Rysdyk Stock Farm, Prescott, Ont. He was sired by Rysdyk, (653); he by Rysdyk's Hambletonian, (10); he by Abdallah, (1); he by Mambrino, he by Imported Messenger. The dam of Rysdyk's Hambletonian (10) was the Charles Kent mare, by Imported Bellfounder; 2nd dam, One Eye, by Bishop's Hambletonian; 3rd dam, Silvertail, by Imported Messenger. The dam of Rysdyk (653) was Lady Duke, by Lexington. The dam of Phil Rysdyk (3580) was Minnie Day, by Green's Hambletonian (158); 2nd dam, Old Kate, the Pacer, who was the dam of Orient, with a record of 2.24, and sold by Mr. Wiser for $10,000. Old Kate was also the dam of Mary Clark, with a record of 2.28, and the winner of the five-mile trot at Ottawa, which she won as she pleased in 11m. 9sec. Green's Hambletonian (158) was by Rysdyk's Hambletonian (10); the dam of Green's Hambletonian (158) was Lady Patriot, by Young Patriot; 2nd dam the Hulse mare, Young Patriot, by Patriot; dam, a Messenger Duroc mare. Green's Hambletonian (158) was a full brother to Volunteer, who was the sire of so many under 2.20, and the sire of St. Julien, 2.11¼. Green's Hambletonian sired but 15 foals, and one of these were Nelly, with a record of 2.30, and Minnie Day, Phil's dam, can show a fifty clip with a foal by her side. Phil. Rysdyk (3580) is a half-brother to Clingstone, 2.14; Victor, 2.18; George M. Rysdyk, 2.29¼; Beatrice, 2.27¼, and Little Vick, 2.30; and he is a full brother to Celine, who at 4 years old showed a private trial on Mr. Wiser's half-mile track, with a few weeks handling, in 2.32, and was sold for $2,000 to a gentleman in Nova Scotia, which he has used as a brood mare. For particulars of Phil. Rysdyk (3580) and all the sires that are mentioned in the above with numbers attached to their names, see J. H. Wallace's stud Book, No. 212 Broadway, New York.
