THE DECEPTION.

The Globe organ of the Grits has been lagging some nearly prostrate from the burden of forgetfulness in which to lock what the English press thought of Sir Hugh Macdonald at the time of the Pacific Scandal. But Mr. Brown and his Globe have not forgotten the Hon. George Brown took a trip to England at that time and left all his papers behind the English press, personally, and by his paper, against Sir Hugh and his conduct in purity in connection with the Pacific Scandal, and in connection with the probation [illegible] and strongly urged [illegible] Sir Hugh Macdonald, and Mr. George Brown. But when charges were made in the House of Commons that the members of the English press were bribed and [illegible] the Globe [illegible] to the English press of Canada and America, [illegible] Mr. George Brown's paper [illegible] Sir Hugh Macdonald [illegible]
