July 12th at Markdale

A huge crowd attended the annual County Celebration of the Loyal Orange Association held in Markdale on Tuesday. Twenty-six Lodges from the County of East Grey and adjoining counties were represented in the walk. Flesherton L.O.L. No. 2855 was well represented, and Carnation Lodge L.O.B.A. 545 had a large turnout of their members. Both lodges were led by Mr. Chas. Phillips, who gave excellent music on the bagpipes. County Master Alfred Down, of No. 2855 was in charge of the parade which formed at King Edward Park and paraded to Armstrong's grove, where excellent speaking took place.

The following are the names of the lodges which were in the procession: 508 Riverview, 632 Durham, 353 Corbetton, 737 Inistioge, 244 Proton, 1192 Glenelg, 797 Dundalk, 1118 Eugenia, 666 Maxwell, Maxwell L.O.B.A., 883 Ceylon, 176 Berkley, 1125 Hornings Mills, 887 Hatherton, 689 Varney, 509 Orange Valley, 1132 Portlaw, 1383 Vandeleur, 545 Flesherton L.O.B.A., 2855 Flesherton, 1136 Swinton Park, 1083 No Name, 631 Dundalk L.O.B.A., 1045 Markdale, 1202 Ventry.

The sky was practically cloudless during the entire day but a fine breeze was blowing which made the walk more bearable. For a change the absence of rain during the parade or afterwards was something to comment on, as it usually rains on the Glorious Twelfth.

During the morning of the Twelfth the Orange Lodge marched around town led by Piper Chas. Phillips, with Jos. Stinson, handling the drum. An incident occurred while the men were marching whihc they appreciated very much. Mrs. Hanley, whose physical disability in the form of rheumatism, prevented her showing her loyalty to the Orange Order, was much pleased when the men paused in front of her residence and played a rousing tune in her honor. At its close she treated the members to Eskimo pies which foud a warm reception at the pit of their stomachs.

THERMOMETER BURSTS

The weather the last part of last week became quite sweltering and Dominion Day just about reached a record for this part of the province. Proof of what is above stated is borne out by the fact that a large thermometer, which for 18 years was hung in the sun outside the door of the Ford garage in Grand Valley, was unable to register the peak of the heat and exploded about three p.m. in the afternoon. The previous day and on other occasions this thermometer reached it maximum of 120 degrees F. but the strain was too great for it on Dominion Day and it succumbed. A new thermometer will be put in place in a short time.—Grand Valley Star.

Neighborly Talks--
Which are helping Build our Business

MRS. JONES CALLED ON MRS. PETERS ONE EVENING RECENTLY AND FOLLOWING IS THE CONVERSATION THAT ENSUED:

Mrs. Jones: "Oh, Mrs. Peters, what lovely furniture you have got since I was here last. Where did you get it?"

Mrs. Peters: "Why, at Findlay's, of course. I always buy at home now. I used to think that we could do better at Eaton's, but I have found out since Mr. Findlay came that we can do just as well here as sending away.'

Mrs. Jones: "Yes, but don't you think that you get a little better service at Eaton's."

Mrs. Peters: "No, I don't. That is one thing that Mr. Findlay has demonstrated very clearly since starting here, that he is out to give real service. For instance, look at the service he is now giving in Flowers. Why, all you need to do is order a spray of flowers through him and he puts the card on it and delivers it and displays it in the proper surroundings. Then if you find anything wrong with any piece of furniture he is always willing to make it right."

Mrs. Jones: "Well, of course, I live quite a piece away and did not know this, but am glad to hear it for Flesherton needs men in business who are willing to render a little more service."

Mrs. Peters: "Talking about getting things cheaper at Eaton's. Now, take that pair of wicker chairs. They are $14.25 in Eaton's and I got them from Mr. Findlay for $14.00 Then when I bought my chesterfield suite from him there were one or two changes I wished made and he had them made without a word, and that is one things about his store. Both Mrs. Findlay and he are always obliging any time you go in now, to show you the difference. Some time ago I sent to Eaton's for a half dozen of those kitchen chairs and they cost me $5.90, and when I came to glue them together I broke one of the legs and I went to Findlay's store and asked him for a leg for a chair and he got me one. When I told him what I had done he did not get sore like some merchants do, but just showed me my mistake, as he had the same half dozen chairs for $6.00..... I can tell you I will never attempt to glue six chairs again for ten cents, and then I had to fall back on him anyway."

Mrs. Jones: "I have heard that Mr. Findlay is a great booster for Flesherton."

Mrs. Peters: "Not alone for Flesherton, but everything that is for the betterment of the community. He gets behind it and boosts, and I believe we ought to boost the man who is trying to give us goods at right prices, and render the service which his business demands."

Mrs. Jones: "Well, Mrs. Peters, I am glad to have had this talk with you, for we were thinking of getting some new furniture and we will just call on Mr. Findlay and see what he can do for us."
