FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1887.

Resignation.

I used to enjoy the winter so,
When I could run o'er ice and snow;
No one was o'er more glad than I,
When fall was past and winter nigh.
And now the merry sleigh bell's chimes
Remind me of the good times
I used to have long, long ago,
When I went sliding o'er the snow.
I do enjoy the balmy spring,
I love to hear the birdies sing;
But I would like to go each day
To pluck the flowers that bloom in May,
To wander by the still calm shore,
And watch the waves roll o'er and o'er;
To see the fishes swimming by
Or watch them catch the lazy fly.
But I can hear the merry rill
Dashing, splashing down the hill,
And I enjoy the sweet spring breeze,
The perfume of the blooming trees.
I love the sweet, sweet spring;
The birds and flowers 'tis sure to bring.
The summer, too, brings joys along,
The birds end up their sweet spring song.
Oh, how I wish I could again
Roam round those fields of waving grain,
And rest beneath the shady trees,
And catch the cool, soft, summer breeze;
Or get a book and take a boat,
And start me off to read and float;
Or get some friends, and fishing go,
Or teach some one the way to row.
But I have pleasures without these;
I hear the birds sing in the trees,
I see the lilies in June,
The cricket sings for me a tune.
I've flowers blooming at the door,
And in the garden there are more.
When autumn comes with all her pride,
I see her cast her green aside.
And when the days are dark and wet,
I have a little pleasure yet;
I love to hear the water splash,
The high winds make it foam and dash
Upon the shore and o'er the logs,
Round rocks and stumps and 'gainst the bogs;
The waves leap madly in their play,
Then proudly roll along their way.
When bleak November's tempests rave,
I see the leaves drop to their grave,
I see the flowers wilt and die,
Among the leaves and grass they lie.
But still I love the autumn days,
With all their rain and wind and haze.
Long, long ago, in times gone past,
I did not fear the biting blast,
I did not mind the snow or sleet,
The winter's cold or summer's heat.
Oh, how I long to be set free,
But I am in captivity.
I lie around the whole long day,
I am too weak to sing or play.
Sometimes I read a little news,
Sometimes I write, sometimes I muse;
I talk to friends who come to see
And cheer me up or comfort me.
But who can comfort? who can cheer?
Who is it drives away all fear?
'Tis Jesus Christ, God's only Son,
'Tis he, the resurrected One,
Who fills my heart with peace and joy,
Gives pleasure, too, without alloy.
I'm bound with bands I cannot break,
But I shall try for Jesus' sake
To bear with patience to the end,
The light afflictions he does send;
For in a moment they'll be past,
And glory will be mine at last.

CHEESE MEETING.—The closing meeting of the Star factory was held on Monday the 21st, when the business was wound up for the year.

DEPARTURES.—Mr. Peter Murdock and family took their departure for Muskoka on Wednesday the 16th. Mr. Murdock was an old resident of this place and an honest good neighbor. We wish him success in his new home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Morrison of this place are visiting at Mr. Morrison's father's at Sydney.

Mr. J. C. Murdock who took a second class at the late teachers examination Lindsay, has secured a position as teacher in the Fenelon school. We hope his step, into the teacher's profession may be a success.

BUILDING NOTES.—The McEachern Bros., of this neighborhood, sons of the late Donald R. McEachern, have been erecting a fine white brick dwelling house, on the old homestead this year, which is nearly completed and reflects great credit on the contractor, Mr. Thos. Trelaven, of Beaverton, for the skillful manner he did the work on this grand mansion. It is an ornament to the farm. They intend to have it ready to move into about Christmas or New Year's. Some rumor says that some of the pretty girls of this locality keep a close eye on some boys to pop the question to them when the house is finished.....Mr. Wm. McKee, one of our most prominent farmers has veneered his large dwelling house with red and white brick, facing around the windows. It presents a fine appearance now. Mr. McKee is a practical farmer.

RENTED.—Messrs. Peter and Finley McArthur have rented the estate of the late Jno. Morrison on the 6th con. comprising two hundred acres, for a term of years. We wish them success in their undertaking.....Mr. Simon, P. Dumond, of Sandringham, has rented the farm of Mr. E. R. Irish, near the village of Woodville, for a term of five years at a yearly rental of two hundred dollars.

THRESHING.—Mr. S. P. Dumond & Co. are humming in our midst just now with their noted Wideawake steam thresher. As they are pushing fellows they get the most threshing in this neighborhood.

HALIBURTON.

Special to The Warder.

ABOUT fifty deer were brought into the village on Friday, 18th.

MANY reporters and hunters from Buffalo, are here hunting, and stay at the "Black Bear." The host generally accompanies them in their travels.

ANOTHER dog case is spoken of to appear in court next week. Dogs seem celebrities in this part of the country.

A WEDDING in high life here is talked of.

A LARGE surprise party took place at Mr. Stewart's last Wednesday, and a dance followed, which continued till two in the morning. A presentation was made to Mrs. Stewart by her friends.

A DRAMATIC entertainment is spoken of for the Xmas holidays.

THOS. SIMPSON, the brakeman, is still in Lindsay jail, where it is thought he was unjustly thrown, for there was no proof of the robbery. The jams are still in Mr. Nevins office, and cannot be sworn as his. They were taken out of Simpson's house on suspicion.

THERE is about ten inches of snow on the ground, and good sleighing is expected.

MR. Belcher, has left the Snowdon depot and engaged with Mr. Irwin, as clerk of the Harburn depot.

GLANDINE.

Special to The Warder.

A NEW COMER.—Our estimable townsman Henry Jewell is the happy father of a bouncing baby girl. Both mother and child are doing well, and the father as gay as a lark, congratulations are the order of the day so we humbly tender ours.

ILL AGAIN.—Mr. John Aekin of whom we referred to in a former communication has been worse again, at present writing he is some better, but not so hearty as his many friends would wish.

DIPHTHERIA.—We have heard that some of Wm. Graham's family are ill with diphtheria; we are not in a position to say it is actually so or not. If so, we all wish for a speedy recovery of the afflicted ones.

STOCK DYEING.—Mr. H. Webster who resides west of our village, lost two valuable colts and Mr. Samuel Oliver a cow that were pasturing at Mr. Webster's last week. We have not heard the cause of the death, but suppose it was over feed of green food. Mr. Webster's colts took first prize at the Oakwood fall show.

RETURNED.—Mr. H. H. Copland has returned from Michigan where he was called to see his brother, Richard Copland, who is on his deathbed. At present writing we are not in a position to say how ill he is. Your correspondent learned that his recovery is extremely doubtful. Mr. Copland formerly lived a few miles north of here before he went to reside in the states. His many friends in that neighborhood will learn with regret of his serious illness.

OAKWOOD.

BUSINESS CHANGED HANDS.—Hogg Bros. have purchased the large and well assorted stock from R. P. Butler. Having rented the store as well, they purpose carrying on business in both stores. Having secured the services of E. H. Cliff, who has been in the employ of R. P. Butler for the last nine years, and having obtained a thorough knowledge of the business; the post office and telegraph office will still be found in the same place. We congratulate Hogg Bros. on their success thus far. We also take this opportunity of thanking them for handling flour, feed and meats of all kinds, whereas before their coming, our villagers were forced to send to Lindsay or elsewhere. Now all we have to do is give our order and our goods are home before us. Isn't that worth something? I think so. Wishing them success in their large undertaking let us take the advantage of their two months' boom.

WELCOME HOME.—Miss Celia Cunnings, who has been visiting friends for the past ten months in Georgetown, Tottingham, Wyoming and other parts, returned home on Saturday. Her many friends say the circle is complete.

MRS. J. Williamson, of Lindsay, is visiting at Mrs. P. Anderson; also Miss Brown, of Toronto, is visiting friends here.

THE bad roads have no effect on our grain market; large quantities of grain are coming in daily.

THE old question still asked, why, poor Tim sits on the corner since Nancy has gone, though Tim is no spider we believe he is going to try again and if his grit hangs out he will, no doubt, reach the top of his thread and catch the fly. "If at first you don't succeed try again."

WE are justly proud of the fine exhibitions held in Sunderland, under the auspices of the Brock Agricultural Association. Of late years and know full well, that none other than Brock enterprise could institute and maintain such, but we are righteously wroth and indignant, at the manner in which some of the ladies living in the vicinity of Sunderland, have attempted to introduce mean and ignorantly, conceipted practices, into the proceedings pertaining to the removal of exhibits from the agricultural hall. On the last day of the late exhibition, when the ladies were removing the articles they had severally exhibited. I noticed that one lady, whom I know to be the wife of a respectable farmer, wished (I presume in a fit of kleptomania), to carry off all the exhibits bearing the red ticket, and though frustrated in some cases, I have since learned that she succeeded, nevertheless, in removing several articles she had no claim to whatever, and that she afterwards brought to the secretary, prize tickets off some exhibits of canned peaches demanding the amount awarded as a prize for such, but was refused, because the secretary's books said the prize had been won by another person, consequently it could not be paid to her. This announcement so aroused the ire of the fair kleptomaniac, that she proceeded to interview the real prize winner, and when this personage would not agree to allow her to have the prize unless the managers of the exhibition awarded it to her, she promptly declared that she would not return the peaches to the owner and prize winner, until she was paid for two whole pounds of sugar she had added to the fruit in order to make it "really palatable."

WHAT WE WOULD LIKE TO SEE.—The sidewalks extended and repaired. The young fellows stop at home this time of the year, especially those young men who make nocturnal visits to Wick and Pinedale, to the great detriment of their health and comfort. And lastly, but not heartly, more people of a good sound loyal principle, subscribe to and read THE WARDER.

CAMBRAY.

PEDLARS.—Two German Pedlars are using rather rough language, coming to the houses. If it be after dark and they are refused lodgings, they use rather threatening talk and dare you to turn them out of your house, for fear your buildings might be burned before morning, and cursing and swearing frightfully. What's to be done? Can you lawfully lay hands on them to put them out, or what can you do? For its coming to a pretty pass if you are not boss in your own house.

DRUNKS.—Where is Inspector Short? He is needed here.

MOUNT HOREB.

Special to The Warder.

MR. Thomas Skuce, of this place, left one day last week for Michigan. We wish the young man success.

CHARLEY E. Skuce, the boy who had his leg broken some time ago, is progressing favorably.

MR. James Skuce, sr., has been north visiting friends.

MR. and Mrs. Richard Southam have been to Bowmanville visiting their friends.

OUR old friend, Mr. David Dovie, of Omemee, paid us a flying visit on Friday. We were glad to see his familiar face.

MR. John Hickson, jr., of the 14th line of Manvers, is the Nimrod of this locality.

MR. John Lees, carpenter, is doing quite a stroke of work in this place.

A NUMBER of book agents are on the road. We hope they will meet with success.

CAVANVILLE.

Special to The Warder.

MR. LOWE, the new grain buyer, purchased a great quantity of grain this fall. He is a very popular man in the evening school.

THE Sunday school anniversary is to be held on Sunday and Monday, 11th and 12th of Dec., when an excellent programme will be furnished.

MR. Richard Staples is still absent on his visit to Manitoba, and Miss Fannie Co- is visiting friends at Newry.

ON Friday evening, Dec. 2nd, the annual Bible Society meeting will be held at the Methodist Church, Cavanville. All church-goers should patronize so worthy a cause.

GREAT sport in this vicinity lately. Mr. Jno. Pritchard has succeeded in capturing three foxes, and a little blind fox was killed one day recently with a stick north of the village.

MIDLAND.

Special to The Warder.

THE concert given by the Midland Broom Brigade, on the evening of Friday, Nov. 11th, was very successful. The movements showed careful drill, and the whole performance was worthy of praise.

THE first oyster social of the season was given by the ladies of the Methodist Church, on Thanksgiving Day. It was well attended.

THE RESCUE DUETT.—Messrs. Dunnett and Stafford, of Hamilton, have been holding a series of meetings in the music hall, in connection with the Council of Royal Templars of Midland.

SLEIGH bells have been heard for over a week, but the sleighing is not very good as yet.

THE Esplanade is finished, and quite a lot of lumber has already been piled on it.

EDEN—MARIPOSA.

SPORTS.—The Wells Bros. have been north hunting, and have again been fortunate in securing 12 deer, not so many as last year though, for then they shot 19. I think they far surpass your Lindsay shots, at least, they do in their deer hunts. Others have also been on the chase, noticeable among them are J. S. Cruess, our worthy M.P. He also gave his friends a treat of venison.

PEDLARS. — The order of the day or night, seems to be people demanding nights lodging, and using very threatening language on being refused, such doings ought to be stopped by some one.

SNOW.—Would be glad to see a little more of the beautiful, at least enough for good sleighing. This is what we hear, but exercise patience friends.

VICTORIA CORNERS.

A MIND TO BE SET AT EASE.—We trust that this will give a rest to our nearly exhausted correspondent, who in his last statement, issued on the 11th, could think of no other heading than "That School." "That School" means the new addition, which no doubt would have been in use a month or two ago but for a misplacement of the order for seats. But thank fortune, the seats are now in and the room in use, so it gives us pleasure to think that we are removing a load of care from the mind of a laborious correspondent by notifying him or her that the room now waits to welcome within its walls his or her children. But if he hath none, may he soon be blest with them. Then it will be time for him to talk about that school.
