It is particularly requested that all who take an interest in tobogganing will be present, for unless there is a good muster, it is more than probable that the club will be suffered to collapse.

PROTRACTED MEETINGS are being nightly held in the methodist church, conducted by Crossley and Dowey, evangelists. These men are not like some by whom this town has been visited. THE FOLLOWING letter was received from an old subscriber in Oregon, United States:—Sam Hughes, Esq., Lindsay, Ont. DEAR SIR.—I enclose two dollars for THE WARDER. I would feel lost without it. LAW AT FENELON FALLS is a novelty. This week however, Mr. Glanpell, of Cameron, had James O'Brien and his son, both up for assault. It seems a party near Cameron, chased a coon on the ice, young O'Brien having previously killed his mate, and were shooting at it. Young O'Brien seeing it, broke through the ice with his boat and killed his coonship with a pole. On bringing it ashore Glanpell claimed the coon and jerked it from him. O'Brien said it did not matter, but the crowd would decide who owned it. Thereupon Glanpell and O'Brien clenched, and on rising Glanpell's eye was blackened, it having propably struck the ground. Jim O'Brien, the father, meanwhile approached and caused the quarrel to stop. Glanpell seized the coon again, when O'Brien Sr. jerked it from him saying, the crowd would settle the trouble. Then Glanpell got law. Mr. Austin J.P., with Mr. McFarlane, of Fenelon Falls, heard both charges, duly cleared and brought out by Mr. J. Campbell, of Lindsay, for Glanpell, and Mr. Geo. Jordan, of Fenelon Falls, for O'Brien. Cases were dismissed against both O'Brien and son. Considerable amusement was created by the clever retorts of young O'Brien.

REV. E. F. TORRANCE of Peterboro, will preach at the services preparatory to the Communion, in the St. Andrew's Church, this evening at a quarter to 8 o'clock. The quarterly Communion services will be held on Sunday morning.

IT COST'S YOU NOTHING to look through GILLESPIE'S stock of manufactured clothing, hats and caps, underwear, or gent's furnishings. If he cannot sell you a better value than you can get elsewhere, don't buy from him. His patrons and the public will always find there, the latest and most captivating styles, and the prices are just as captivating as the styles. Two doors east of the Daly House, Kent St. Lindsay.—99 4.

THE WOMAN WINS.—Last Wednesday, the pound keeper in strolling through the East Ward, saw a cow on the street, and at once begged her. A moment later, Mrs. Schwardfeger emerging with a pail of water found her thirsty cow missing. The pound keeper was obliged to surrender. A similar fate befel him in the French village where several women, it is said, drove him and his assistant out. He deserves credit at all events for being a good, energetic officer.

MR. R. S. PORTER, stationery, periodicals, Xmas cards and fancy goods, has shown us samples of his holiday stock. They are simply grand. In Xmas cards, he has all the public buildings of Lindsay beautifully mounted on natural flower cards. In holiday numbers of periodicals each, the Illustrated London News, the Graphic, Ye's Tide, Father Xmas, Sport-News, etc., has magnificent illustrated pictures. The Graphic's "a mischievous puppy," "a very, very great secret," where a child tells her grandma something, and "seising an opportunity," which concerns two lovers, as "First Love" and "Parted," are really fine works of art. "Courtship on horseback," "St. Bernard to the rescue," "Robinson Crusoe," and others are highly amusing. Everyone should buy a Holiday Graphic, and R. S. Porter will take your order.

KINDERGARTEN CONCERT.—It will be remembered that some few weeks ago a young class of 70 pupils gave a kindergarten entertainment in aid of St. Paul's church Sunday school, and the programme then presented was perhaps the most interesting and attractive ever rendered before a Lindsay audience. We are pleased to announce that another entertainment of a similar kind will be given under the same management in old St. Paul's, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings next, 7th and 8th, with an entirely new programme. Kindergarten songs, choruses, games and drills; also the Japanese fan drill, and the tambourine drill; with dialogues, readings, recitations, etc., complete the list of attractions. As the class is composed of young people from all denominations, they have a claim upon the support of the public generally, and we ask a large and hearty response on the part of the town to the efforts of the kindergarten class. Remember old St. Paul's on the evenings of the 7th and 8th.

SOME TIME AGO THE WARDER said the Council might as well pay the expenses of Dr. Burrows to the moon as to Memphis. Last week that great "mellican man" in the columns of Archbishop Lynch's organ in Lindsay, gave us, oh, such a terrible dressing for our rash statement. Some are still unkind enough to say the Council might as well send "Major Mack" as him. The town has reaped great benefit from the trip of the wonderful man. Why Memphis has a system of waterworks!!! It is simply the old Holly system—in use in scores of places in America. Aside from the puppy's cowardly allusion to our brother-in-law who has as much to do with the case and no more than has the aforesaid puppy, the letter does not call for answer. Besides a lot of disgusting, low twaddle about Chicago nigger-wenches and other similar stuff, apparently congenial to the fellow's instincts, his experience as gauged by the yarns spun to the county councillors, was limited. Such waterworks are not wanted here. But, of course, his expenses should be paid. And so should those of every doctor who was away. What are people for if not to be taxed? Dr. Coulter went on a trip to the Southern States and did not ask his expenses. Dr. Poole was at Washington and begged nothing from the Council. Dr. Herriman was at Manitoulin and paid his own way. Dr. DeGrassi was out north and does not intend billing the town. Dr. Lynch was at Belleville and did not endeavor to burden this town for the trip. Dr. Clarke was in Montreal and paid his own fare. Dr. Kempt was at Toronto and no vote was taken by the Council to pay him. Dr. Hood went to Woodstock and his account has not yet been received by the town. And our big brother-in-law, Dr. McAlpine, was in London and footed his own bills. But all these should be paid—if Dr. Burrows is. Dr. Burrows happens to be Medical Health Officer of the town. No other doctor in town would demean himself to beg it for nothing, as he did. His impertinent puppyism towards Dr. Herriman for which he was publicly censured seems to have no effect on him. But this space is worth ten cents a line and is, therefore, too valuable to waste on such a thing. Everyone knows what it is. "Don't you want anything from me Johnny"! How the wencher knew him.

School Notes.

Mr. R. Grandy the worthy teacher of Lifford has been re-engaged for the year 1888.

Mr. Richardson has been re-engaged for Blackstock, Cartwright schools. It was rumored he was leaving, but he has re-considered.

Miss Drum is to teach in Egypt, Cartwright.

Miss C. Somes is to teach at Cadmus, next year.

Miss E. Prout teaches at Cedar Dale, Cartwright, for 1888.

The very absurd practice of sending children from school for not knowing a question has been maintained in our schools of late. More forethought is certainly required to be exercised.

Mr. John Cook, of Cameron, who is now teaching in S.S. No. 11, Ops, has been engaged as teacher in S.S. No. 5, Fenelon, for 1888. This is a much better situation, as it is only four miles from his home.

Mr. Birchard, now of Lorneville removes, it is reported, to Toronto. He is a pusher, and is sure to advance.

Eden Mariposa, retains Mr. Feir's services another year.

Miss Elizabeth Tompkins, one of the brightest teachers in-training at the Ottawa Normal School, was engaged for Reaboro school, but as the trustees were somewhat late in notifying her of appointment, she received a higher salary near her own home in Carleton Co. Reaboro had missed a splendid teacher. The ratepayers should sharpen up the trustees next time, and not miss such a chance again.

Mr. Murdock teaches in Fenelon, east of Sturgeon lake for 1888.

Jackson's school No. 11, Ops, will have Miss Patterson, of Reaboro, for teacher next year. She has proven herself a success.

Mr. Morgan leaves Hartley at Xmas, to add to his store of learning. He is well liked.

Geo. Devitt remains for 1888 at Black's Mariposa. The children are much attached to him.

Mr. J. Bryson has been fortunate in securing Islay school for next year.

A. C. Graham remains at Victoria Road. His reputation has long been established.

J. G. Morris, of Coboconk school, visited town on Saturday, and is cheery as ever.

Dan. MacMillan, now at Ottawa Normal school, rules Lorneville school next year. It is his old home, and Dan. is second to none as teacher.

Mr. J. Caudal, of course remains at Cameron.

B. W. Maybee is again at Powles'.

L. Macdonald spent Saturday in town. He has had an increase of salary.

Mr. Weir, the efficient principal of Fenelon Falls school, remains next year.

J. White has again received Cambray school.

Cambray seems to have had teachers who become prominent men. R. A. Dickson, J. Campbell, J. C. Rogers, Dan. MacMillan, D. McDougall, F. Newman, M.D., and H. J. Hallet, taught there.

Henry Roberts remains at No. 18, Mariposa. His salary has been raised, he being an undergraduate of Toronto University.

Mr. Brown has been engaged for Fingerboard, Mariposa school. He formerly taught there, but has now university honors. All welcome him back.

Mr. Weldon for some years teacher at Ramsay's, Creswell, gives up the profession and will keep store in Little Britain.

Mr. Geo. D. Ramsay, one of Ontario's best teachers, succeeds Mr. Weldon at Creswell. That district is to be congratulated on getting such a good man.

Mr. Vallentyne remains at No. 1, Brawlins', Mariposa.

Miss Laura Levy leaves No. 3 Bexley, at Xmas, much regretted by all. Her successor is not yet appointed.

Fell's school, Fenelon, wants a teacher. See adv.
