FRIDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1887.

BRUSHWOOD.

Special to the Warder.

Illness.—Mr. Geo. Crawford is very ill. He has been troubled with softening of the brain, and a few days ago took a dose of Paris green. The timely arrival of Dr. Brereton saved his life, but he is still in a precarious condition.

Municipal Honors.—We believe Mr. Samuel Thompson is in the field for councillor.

BREWER—CAVAN.

Special to The Warder.

Brewer can turn out the finest looking congregation in the county.

There has been barley sold to J. J. Preston, Bethany, that weighed 56 lbs to the bushel, to Mr. Wm. R—ney not long ago. Mr. Preston says he has not got better barley for many years.

The G.T.R. Co., have erected a new coal platform as was much required owing to the increasing trade.

The letters from Swipes and Temperance, are quite interesting.

No more tally polls as the tally run out.

LITTLE BRITAIN.

Special to The Warder.

Appointment.—Dr. Freeman, of this village, has been appointed to the commission of the peace, and is qualified. The appointment is a good. If the Government would make always as good appointments there would be no room for complaint on this head.

Municipal.—The several candidates for municipal honors in Mariposa, for the ensuing year, are feeling their way cautiously to the chances for election. The indications are, that there will be several new men in the field. From some cause, not indicate the coming contest, I would be surprised to find that the contest will be the hardest that has been fought here for a long time. In fact, circumstances point to a contest something like what used to be some fifteen or twenty years ago.

Hockey.—Your correspondent has been asked of, as to the irregularity of some of "the Warner's that come to this office. It is rather annoying to a new subscriber to wait for to get a paper one week and miss one next. There is surely very little, if any chance of papers going astray but from Lindsay and here.

Church.—On Monday evening, the 5th inst., the meeting of L.O.L. No. 180, for the election of officers was held, resulting in the election of all the old officers with one or two exceptions. Mr. Caleb Mark retains the chair, with the same deputy Mr. Geo. Irwin. Mr. Kelley retains the secretaryship, although wishing to be relieved. Mr. Isaac Irwin takes charge of the finances as treasurer, and John Cowle as, as senior committee-man, D. Tripp as chaplain, and J. A. Tripp lecturer, compose the principal officers.

Whispered.—That there will be one, if not two weddings about Christmas or New Year. Secrecy is the order of the day, but still dame rumour has got a slight inkling, which makes her rather suspicious. A few weeks will determine if the old lady is right.

VICTORIA CORNERS.

Special to the Warder.

Improvement.—Being well aware of the fact, that age especially when attached to worth, should be attended by comforts, it gives us great pleasure to notice that our old friend Mr. Wm. Fowler, is about to make a remove for the better. Having just completed a stately edifice, which is no mean adornment to this or any other place. He is about to take up his abode therein, and may it be the means, not only of adding to the ordinary comforts of his life, but also of sustaining his health and vigor during the same.

CORSON'S SIDING

Special to The Warder.

Matrimonially Inclined.—Mr. Benjamin Bartley is about to take unto himself a partner for life, and settle down on the farm known as the Curry Farm. We also wish him a long life of peace and happiness.

The McNeash Bros. threshed on Saturday, for Capt. Corson, about 100 bushels of peas and 90 bushels of barley, they had it up in good shape. Any one requiring threshing done, will do well to get the McNeash boys to try their hand.

OAKWOOD.

Special to The Warder.

Colt Breaking.—Prof. Pratt, No. 2, displayed fine horsemanship by training an ugly colt, owned by Nicholas Hill in our village. Half an hour after the colt was haltered, he was seen driving up and down the streets at full speed, as though the animal was accustomed to its future duty as a driver. Some say civility, but one man Pratt says, kindness will make the animal submit.

Removal.—Mr. Ted Soanes, our confectioner and baker, has gone to Port Perry, to carry on business there. Our loss is Port Perry's gain.

Much Needed.—Our friend Mr. A. B. Sherman, is about to start a butcher business in this place. The right man in the right place.

Church Notes.—The Rev. Mr. Bethune, of Knox College, Toronto, delivered an able, and eloquent sermon in the Presbyterian Church, last Sabbath, selecting his text from Solomon the 2 chapt. 9th verse. Though the weather was rough and rainy, still a large congregation were present, trusting we may have the privilege of hearing him again.....The Rev. Mr. Anderson, of this place, delivered an interesting and instructive sermon Sunday evening, in the Methodist Church, selecting his text from Luke 15th chapt. from the 15th to the 20th, that of the Prodigal Son, which was a grand lesson, especially to the younger of the congregation, just starting out in life. If we follow in the path directed by him, all will be well.

Miss Flora Stephenson has gone on a visit to her father's at Gaut's bay.

Our school is progressing favorably under the training of our present teacher.

Lots of snow and good skating here.

JANETVILLE.

Special to The Warder.

Revival.—The Rev. Mr. Marsh, revivalist, has again visited the Janetville circuit, and is holding revival meetings at the Yelverton appointment, which will continue for two weeks. A service will then be commenced in the Janetville church, commencing on the evening of the 12th, to last at least for one week. Mr. Marsh as a revivalist has been very successful so far at Yelverton, preaching every night to a crowded house. It is expected that a large number will be added to the church through his instrumentality. Mr. Marsh preached in the Janetville church on Sunday morning, the 4th, to a fair congregation. The morning being rainy, kept a number away that would have been there. He took as the foundation of his remarks those three clauses, the way, the knowledge and the joy of salvation. On these three points he dwelt for one hour, keeping his hearers spell-bound and delighted during its delivery.

Loss.—Mr. Wm. Magee lost a valuable cow one day last week, by another getting loose and hooking her, over the front of her stall, breaking her neck.

Mr. Thomas Magee met with an accident while going to Mr. Thomas Magill's to cut sheaf oats with his engine. Going through the barnyard he upset the engine, causing an injury and a delay to get it repaired.
