FRIDAY DECEMBER 12, 1890.

PONTYPOOL.

Special to The Warder.

L.O.L. No. 988 met in their hall, Dec. 1st, regular meeting night, for the transaction of business and election of officers for the year 1891. After the business for the year just was reported by the secretary and treasurer, and found correct. The following officers were elected:—W. M., C. West, re-elected; D. M., Wm. Gordon, re-elected; Chap., James Cheyne, re-elected; Sec., James Gobeen; Fin. Sec., W. J. Coulter, re-elected; Fin. Com., A. Dougall, Leo., Wm. Gobeen; D. of C., Henry Pike; Committee men, J. West, W. Lines, Cowan, James Graham, Albert Holmes, Wm. Cameron, re-elected, W. J. Coulter, D. Dougall, Director Master, after which speeches, songs, etc., which every body seemed well pleased. We close with a cheer, Xmas and a happy New Year. Yours fraternally,

GEO. WINN, Master.

POLITICAL MEETING. We had the pleasure of attending a political meeting in the interests of Mr. Fairbairn on Wed. 3rd, at Dunsford, when the house was packed with an interested audience. W. J. Gilling was called to the chair. He in a few pleasing remarks introduced the speaker, Mr. McDonald from Fenelon Falls, who spoke for nearly two hours, when Mr. Fairbairn was called for, and spoke for about an hour, dealing with the many reasons why a supporter of Sir John Macdonald should be elected, rather than the opposite. Mr. Fairbairn did not go much into Dominion subjects as the local subjects, Mr. Cameron, Mr. McDonald, latter being here, Mr. Fairbairn said, looking after his interests, and for having in Ry. agreement for the C.P.R. from Peterboro' to Lindsay and Durham to Bobcaygeon. Next speaker called on was Mr. J. S. Larke, mayor of Oshawa, who made the speech of the evening, dealing largely with the two-rowed barley question, in which the grit contribution have been doing some very crooked talking, also the question of commercial union, all a conjunctivity and Sir John's policy, proving by straight documents and facts the disadvantages of free trade with the States also the impossibility of free trade with Britain. He proved some points here which the grit speaker, Mr. Bain, would not give him the chances to prove at the grit meeting at Dunsford about a week ago, at which Mr. Larke was the opposition speaker. It is to be remarked here that a great invitation was given by the chairman, as also Mr. Larke, to any of Mr. Fairbairn's supporters to defend their sides on the platform, not merely give an hour or any other stint of time, but giving them liberty to put in a few words wherever they thought fit, also to ask questions of the conservative speakers, when they might think it would do them any good. The more questions the better said Mr. Larke. However, amongst all the intelligent hitherto reformers present, only one thought it expedient to the cause to ask a question, and that question was politely and straightforwardly answered. The very successful meeting closed with three cheers for the Queen, Sir John and Mr. Fairbairn. To say that the meeting met with ordinary success would not half express it. All the independent reformers at the meeting expressed themselves, when questioned, as well satisfied with the fairness and truth of all statements made.

BOLSOVER.

Special to The Warder.

LAST FRIDAY Mr. Wm. Connolly died at his father's residence in this neighborhood. The funeral was to the R.C. burying ground, Victoria Road.

On Monday last at his residence in the township of Carlton, Mr. Donald McLean died. The funeral was on Wednesday to the presbyterian cemetery at Bolsover.

D. H. MUNRO is home from Manitoba and the N.W.T. He left five years ago. He took up a homestead and pre-emption in White Water township, near Boissevain station, South West railroad, Manitoba. Although the land is good, the crop was a failure almost every year. Four years ago the crop was good; the next year the frost came on before it was ripe. Two years ago the very hot weather and gophers spoiled all the crop. Last summer the hail killed it all. Alexander Munro had one hundred acres of wheat as in fine appearance as ever grew. It was battered to the ground in less than one hour before it was ripe, and not one blade was cut. D. H—is a carpenter and builder; he rented his farm; he built the station houses on the railroad the past year in the North West territories.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS of L.O.L., 120, for the year 1891 are as follows:—W.M., Bro. Edwin Mark; D.M., George Irwin; chaplain, H. G. Oliver; Rec.-Secy, Caleb Mark; Fin.-Secy, James Jackson; treasurer, Isaac Irwin; Lect. W. J. Glass; D of C., J. J Campbell; Committee, Sampson Irwin, Samuel Oliver, John Kelley, Wm Galbraith, W. H. Pogue.

NOTES.—A wedding expected soon, as a party was given five days to vacate the house, the proprietor said that he found it necessary to take up house keeping himself. The house is empty now, so lookout.....The skating rink is in a fair way now, as the timber is on the ground it must go.

MR. Edwin Mark has returned home from his hunting exhibition looking hale and hearty.

WE regret to learn that Mr. Coone is about to leave here. He and his charming sister will be missed. Perhaps she will not go after all.

MRS. Jackson has left here and has gone to reside with her daughter in Peterboro. Mr. Jackson is very old and cannot live alone.

WOODVILLE.

Special to The Warder.

THE WOODVILLE St. Andrew's Society with about one hundred guests sat down to their annual dinner at the Royal Hotel on Friday evening, 28th November, thereby celebrating that day instead of St. Andrews', which fell on Sunday this year, and is unmitted for a Scotchman to do justice to the "Haggis" and other refreshments which he considers palatable for such occasions.

At 8 o'clock the shrill notes of the historical Highland Pipes were heard playing the national air by the society's band, Mr. Fraser of Kirkfield, which had the effect of "gathering the clans" in large numbers so that when in a few minutes after the dinner was announced the spacious dining room of the hotel was speedily filled to its utmost capacity.

The dinner was all that could be desired and reflected much credit on our genial host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Brunker. The Haggis was "weel worthy of a grace as lang as my arm."

After the cloth was removed the usual patriotic toasts were given, drank, and responded to, the chairman, who was supported by Mr. Chas. Fairbairn and Mr. Wm. Cameron, congratulated the society on the great number of guests who sat down with them at this their 18th annual dinner, and also on having the national music to help entertain their guests, and concluded by asking them to fill their glasses and drink the health of the Queen and Royal Family, to which all present responded by not only doing as bidden, but by joining together in singing our national anthem.

The secretary then read letters and telegrams of regret from many friends of the society who were not able to be present.

The vice-president, from the foot of the table in a neat speech asked them to join him in a toast to the Governor-General and Parliament of Canada, "for they are a jolly good fellow."

Mr. Fairbairn and Mr. Cameron responded, also Mr. Bick, who sang in fine style, "The Red, White and Blue," all present joining in the chorus.

"The Lieutenant Governor and Legislature," was the next toast, it was replied to by Dr McKay and Mr. McKenzie, of Beaverton, also Mr. D. J. McKinnon in a song.

"The day and all who honour it," brought Messrs. D. Jackson, Alex. Adams and H. Rey to their feet, also Mr. Angus Ferguson in a Gaelic song, and Mr. W. Campbell, of Hartley, who sang an appropriate song which received great applause.

The names of Mr. Weeks of Cannington, Drs. McKay and Grant of Woodville, teachers McMillan and Gilchrist, were coupled with the toast of "The learned profession, and our educational system," to which of course they made suitable replies.

"The agricultural interests," were ably responded to by Messrs. John Campbell, jr., of Mariposa, Blackwell of Brock, C. Fairbairn of Verulam, and Donald Jackson of Eldon. At this stage by way of variation, the large cake was cut and passed around the table during which time Mr. Fraser entertained the guests with lively airs on the bag pipes, which was too tempting for Messrs. Fairbairn and McKinnon, who speedily cleared a corner of the room and danced in fine style the "Highland fling," which was loudly applauded.

Resuming the toast list, "the mercantile interests," were coupled with the names of Messrs. D. McNabb of Beaverton House, and Dodds of Woodville, who responded.

"The manufacturing interests," were replied to by Messrs. McMillan of Beaverton, A. Campbell, J. Barnes of Woodville, and others.

"Sister societies," brought a number of members of different societies to their feet, who in neat speeches reflected great credit to the different societies to which they belong.

"The ladies" were not forgotten, Messrs McKenzie and McNabb of Beaverton, Donald Jackson and W. Campbell of Eldon, and Master J. Stuart of Mariposa, all testified to the sweetness and goodness of the fair sex, and thanked the people present for the hearty manner in which they remembered their health.

"The health of the host and hostess," was next drunk, after which all joined hands and voices in singing the time honored song "Auld Lang Syne," which brought the entertainment to a close, and all regretted that St. Andrews' day only came once a year, and hoped to have the pleasure of partaking of St. Andrew's society hospitality at some future occasion.

BIRTH.—On the morning of the 30th of November, Mrs. James Halliday presented her husband with a young son, over which there is great rejoicing.

OBIT.—We regret to have to say that Mr. Thomas Healy has met with another sad bereavement by the death of his youngest daughter at the early age of 13 years and six months, after a short illness of eleven days, it being only eight months since he lost his beloved wife. She died on the 2nd inst., and buried on the 4th by the scholars of the school to the number 60, the Rev. R. J. Fallis officiating. Mr. Healy has the deep felt sympathy of the surrounding neighborhood in his bereavement.

OUR SCHOOL.—Our teacher, Miss Jennie Yeo, is leaving us, and going to Pickering, where if she is as successful as she has been with us, she will no doubt give general satisfaction. She is to be succeeded by a Miss Eames, who comes well recommended.

RATHER NOISY.—A short time ago a person in anticipation of entering the army of benedicts gave a party to the boys who were a little noisy on the occasion, however, all enjoyed themselves and no harm was done.

CLOVER SEED.—Some of our farmers have threshed their clover, which is turning out well, and sells at a good price, which makes our farmers smile.

REMOVED.—Our estimable friend Mr. M. Thorndyke, has removed to your town. We congratulate your town on receiving such a fine person as a citizen.

ORILLIA.

LAST Friday morning Lake Simcoe beyond the Narrows presented a remarkable sight. As far as the eye could reach, from the Red Cross hospital, the bay was literally covered with ducks. Mr. Secord thinks there can not have been less than ten thousand, and the number may have been even double that. Most of them stayed for hours, undisturbed by sportsman.—Orillia Packet.

IT IS WELL TO BE CAUTIOUS.—Citizens in purchasing meat from farmers on the market should be cautious, and at least know the character of the man from whom they buy. A few days ago a carcass of beef was offered for sale which the butchers declared had died from disease, and yesterday a hog was offered which was unfit for food. The beef was bought by a citizen who loves a bargain, at 4 cts.; and the hog, we believe, was not sold. The trade in meat is not sufficiently large to warrant the appointment of an inspector so that householders must exercise their own judgment.—Orillia Times.

HE SURPRISED HIS WIFE.—The Exeter Advocate tells this yarn:—"A farmer who resides not fifty miles from here, drove in the other day to make the purchase of a suit of clothes, after which he became somewhat inebriated and shortly after dark started for home, and while driving along the idea came into his maudlin brain to surprise his wife by appearing in fine clothes. Stopping on the road he undressed and threw his old suit into a creek, not knowing he had lost his new one out of the wagon. Unable to find either suit, he was obliged to wander home arrayed like a Zulu, and of course succeeded in surprising his wife."

A Poor Cure for La Grippe.

The New York Voice has taken some pains to obtain the opinion of representative medical men upon the influence of alcohol on mortality. Nineteen physicians responded, and the information given shows that 72,193 deaths out of 378,800 were due to alcohol, giving an average of rather over 53 per 1000.

It is a well-known fact that epidemics go hard with constitutions weakened by alcohol. Dr. Albert Day writes in connection with his answer: "During the la grippe epidemic last winter the liquor men caused an item to be published that whiskey was a certain cure for that disease. It went the rounds of the papers, of course. What was the result? I know of four who died directly from the use of whiskey, and I have no doubt that as many as four hundred died in this city (Boston) from the same cause. From the simple disease pneumonia followed the use of whiskey, and death was almost certain to occur. I have not the least doubt that had not whiskey been so commonly used the death rate would only have exceeded the usual rate slightly, if any." The same outrage is duplicated in nearly every epidemic that occurs.

From the foregoing it must be clear that alcohol plays a prominent part, more or less directly, in every principal disease that human flesh is heir to, and that the case is not overstated when the victims killed annually by alcohol in America are placed at 80,000 to 100,000.

MATRIMONIAL DONT'S FOR GIRLS.—Don't marry the young man who leaves his mother to find her way home as best she can on a dark night, while, without a thought or word of apology to the old lady, he looks after you. One of these days, when the novelty has worn off, he will leave you to go alone as best you can, while he seeks his selfish enjoyment down town.

Don't marry a man who cuts a sour-visaged figure when religion and the Bible are spoken of, and who has all the mistakes of Moses and the misdeeds of Solomon at his tongue's end. A copy of Infidel lectures on the parlor table, instead of the family Bible, is a very poor guarantee of happy family life.

Don't marry a man whose friends smile at each other when his name is mentioned, and say, "Well, we hope he'll turn out all right, but he's sowing a few wild oats just now." Remember that what is sown before marriage is reaped after marriage. It will be very awkward for you to be obliged to reap that crop one of these days; and, if you marry him, you will have the most of it to gather in.

Don't marry a man whose linen is more spotless than his character, whose shirt collar is more inflexible than his integrity, and whose necktie is the only immaculate thing about him. Collars, cuffs and neckties are all very well, but they do not make up a good husband, though they do very well for a tailor's dummy. Integrity of character is as much more important than these things as a man is of more importance in the world than a dude.

REV. SAM JONES SAYS:—"I think liquor is a good thing in its place, but I believe its right place is in hell. That is my sentiment straight out. Even take Bob Ingersoll in Chicago. Will you let me quote him a little? Bob Ingersoll says that whiskey is God's worst enemy and the devil's best friend. Now that is good authority on that side. And if an infidel will say that of whiskey, and say it publically, then in the name of common sense, what ought a Christian to say? What ought all preachers say?"

A Horrible Murder.

A horrible murder involving the loss of one life attracts greater attention than the thousands of deaths occuring annually from scrofula and bad blood. We want to attract attention to Burdock Blood Bitters, the proved and popular remedy for these forms of disease. It cures even old chronic obstinate cases which have defied all other treatment.—59 2.

J. NEELANDS

M.R.C.D.S., ONT., DENTIST, LINDSAY.
By the aid of the new hydro-carbon gas furnace he can make indestructible porcelain fillings and restore broken and decayed teeth to their natural contour and color by this process. He also uses the gas for extracting teeth, which is administered to over 100,000 persons and not a fatal case. Mr. Neelands is the only person now using a new article of foreign which he had expressly manufactured while on his last visit to New York, which removes the teeth without injury to the gums or jaw, the gums healing immediately in a few days and he shows specimens of artificial teeth inserted on all the popular bases and by the most approved appliances for their retention and comfort. Numbers of persons are wearing teeth made by Mr. Neelands over 20 years, and never required repairs. Prices from $10 up. $36 for a set of upper or under. Persons from a distance will please send postal card before coming. OFFICE—Kent street, Lindsay, nearly opposite the Simpson House.

W. H. GROSS,
L. D. S., M. R. C. D. S. Ont.
Dentist, Lindsay. The popular GOLD and PORCELAIN CROWNING System (without plate) practised by Mr. Gross with great satisfaction to a large number of persons.
Artificial Teeth inserted by the most approved methods and principles for securing perfection of fit, comfort, usefulness, durability and beauty: on Gold, Silver and Celluloid, also on all the harmless dental Rubbers, and at the lowest living prices. All sets of teeth finished and fitted to the mouth by Mr. Gross himself, or under his personal supervision, which will account for the satisfaction given by his work.
The introduction from time to time of the latest appliances for the administration of Vitalized Air and Gas, enables Mr. Gross to announce confidently increasing success in the use of these anaesthetics. No pain, no accidents, no torn gums, consequently, no dissatisfaction.
The best methods of preserving the natural teeth by filling with gold and other reliable materials, has been made a study for nearly Thirty years by Mr. Gross, and special attention and care is given by him to this branch of his business. No unnecessary [illegible] will call on Gross at his office over Kennedy's store, Kent-St., and see specimens of his work.—152
