Mrs. Oliver has a very fine residence to rent on Glenelg street. It was until recently occupied by C. L. Baker. There is a side entrance and lane, and every modern convenience. Terms moderate. Apply to Mrs. D. G. Oliver, Lindsay street.

Messrs. Dames and Channon bought a car load of cattle, consisting of 28 head, from Nicholas Weldon, for fattening. The latter transaction don't look as if the farmers were going to the bad as the grit stumpers and annexationists would like to make us believe.

The Port Perry Standard says:—"The County Attorney went to Cannington yesterday morning to prosecute a man living in that vicinity for torturing his children by hanging them up by the heels and branding them." The Warder hopes anyone guilty of such an offence as is charged above will receive condign punishment.

The incident is said to have occurred at an election meeting out in Mariposa township. One of the speakers was discoursing on the pioneer settlers, dwelling largely on what our forefathers had done. The forefather business struck an inebriated listener in the wrong direction, for the muddled listener spoke out with, "See here, Maister Speaker, I want ye tae understand that we are a decent respectable folk around here, and that if ye had four faithers nane o' us had." The politician tried to crawl out of the laughter and applause, by remarking something about one mother, but the humorist again said, "there is na tellin' for if ye had four faithers ye may have had four mithers too." It is needless to remark that the lambent legal light of gritism flickered out.

Society Notes.

December is usually a lively time amongst the societies, mostly all, if not all, electing their officers during this month for the ensuing year. The following is a list of the officers elected by the following societies in town:—

KINMOUNT.

Special to The Warder.

A very successful meeting of the orangemen of Kinmount was held on Thursday evening last, the occasion being a visit from special agent Floody of the Orange Mutual Benefit Society. Mr Floody addressed the meeting on objects and aims of the Orange Mutual Benefit Society, and showed it to be within the reach of every orangeman desiring cheap life insurance. A large number of applications were made and the parties examined the same evening. A court of the I O F. was established during the same evening.

Concert.—S S. No. 4, purpose having a concert in the school-house on Monday evening, Dec. 22nd. Doors open at 7 o'clock sharp. All admitted for the small fee of ten cents each. A cordial invitation is extented to all. Don't miss it as it is going to be the best school concert that has ever been held this side of the Atlantic. A crowded house expected. Come one, come all. There will be a contest for a silver medal amongst the pupils at the opening of the concert.

DALRYMPLE.

Special to The Warder.

The Workings of Nature.—During the ten days past, the breaks of nature have been wonderful around here. The snow fell to make sleighing. The lake froze over for the winter. Mrs. Wellington Graham presented her husband with a nice boy. On the same day a soul took its departure to God who gave it; and a week later Miss Hettie Chrysler of this place, and Mr. John C Rae of Linden Valley, had that knot tied that ties us together till death do us part; and that awful job called clover threshing begun; and the young folks decided with the help of the older folks, to have a tea meeting on Xmas. eve, and so the world moves on.

WOODVILLE.

Special to The Warder.

Mr. Christopher Anderson of the 5th con. Eldon, had a very narrow escape from fire. Mr. Anderson and daughters were away from home. The house caught fire it is supposed from the kitchen stove. The smoke aroused the children, and they deserve great credit for the way they succeeded in extinguishing the flames. The damage will be about $100, fully insured in the Grange Co.

Mr. Wm Smith has let the contract to build a barn on his farm 4th con. Eldon, to Mr. Wm. McLean. A word or two as to the merits of Mr McLean as a builder and contractor. This summer he has built a barn for Mr. W. Cronsberry on the 6th con. Eldon, which is admitted to be the best finished building ever put up in this part of the county. It is a model that any man intending to build would do well to copy. He speaks in the highest terms of Mr. McLean.

Mr. Alex McLeod east of the village has purchased from Mr W. McCrimmon a thoroughbred bull. He is a solid red in colour, and is a fine animal. We hope to see him well patronized, as Alex is a great believer in supporting home industry.....Mr. D. Howkins has also purchased a fine Chester white boar, for the accommodation of his customers.

Mr. Davis, mason, of this village, met with a serious accident while working for Mr. McArthur in Eldon, falling down a flight of stairs dislocating the cap of the shoulder, also breaking a small bone in the arm, under the care of Drs. Grant and McKay, he is in a fair way to recover.

The anniversary services of the methodist church will be held on Sunday and Monday next. All are welcome, especially at the tea on Monday evening. We would like to see Sam Hughes and Mr Fairbairn there.

Municipal matters quiet. We have not heard any serious complaints against our present council.

We hope to see all ratepayers of this section present at the annual school meeting, as we think it is every man's duty to be there, and if they have anything to say, why say it, that is the place to air your grievances.

Remember the meeting in Mr. Fairbairn's interest on Saturday night, the meeting to be addressed by Dr. Montague and others.

As Xmas comes around once a year so does the excitement over municipal elections, and this year appears to be no exception, for it is rumored around town that there are a number of candidates for the reeveship. It is to be hoped, though there are monied men in the field that there will be no bribery committed.

Personals.—Mr. T. W. Dodds left last Monday with a second car load of potatoes for Cincinnati.....Mr Percy Gallon of Toronto paid us a short visit this week......It is reported that one of Toronto's foremost real estate agents is to be around this week in search of a partner.

School Meeting.—It is to be hoped that the school meeting last Saturday night was of a more peaceable nature than they have been of late. The trustees did well to secure the services of Mr. Gilchrist for the ensuing year, as he is without doubt one of the best teachers in the county.

Messrs Campbell & Sons of this place are doing a flourishing business this winter. Since the last fall of snow they have turned out a large number of handsome sleighs and cutters. Farmers wishing to purchase sleighs cannot do better than to give this firm a call and see their elegant stock.

Mr. Hugh Rey is now a resident of the hill. As a politician Hugh is quite a live man, and is so far advanced in that line that he now resides in the house owned by a late member of the commons.

Rev. Mr. McDonald of Toronto occupied the pulpit of the presbyterian church here last Sabbath and preached two very impressive sermons, but the church was so cold as to leave it very uncomfortable for the preacher and congregation. Brother Berner don't be so sparing of the wood in future.

Experientia Docet.

Mr. J. H. Hourigan after using Wilson's Wild Cherry in his family for eight years, writes that it has never failed to cure Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough or Bronchitis. Be wise, profit by the experience of others, and use Wilson's Wild Cherry when afflicted with any such troubles. Sold by all druggists.—60-6.

ROYAL CANADIAN INS. CO.

The Manager of the Grange Insurance Company has recently sent out a circular claiming that "in no conceivable case can any other contracts made exceed the blanket policies of the Grange Company." Instead of this being the fact I wish to say that the advantages to farmers given in the Royal Canadian policy exceed those of the Grange in about a dozen important particulars. An examination of the relative merits of the two policies leaves no doubt as to which company gives the best blanket.

The manager advertises that in the Grange Company no premium notes are taken, (see his advt. in co-operater) Don't believe a word of it. For an insurance of $3000 in that Co. the farmer gives a premium note for $90, a part of which he pays down and takes his chances as to future calls for the balance. In the Royal Canadian he would pay $30 for the same amount and have no further risk in the matter.

The Royal Canadian policy holders are secured by a surplus cash capital of over half a million dollars, while in the Grange Company the security consists of premium notes, which when given the policy holders never expected to be asked to pay.

Grange policy holders are invited to examine the advantages I have secured for farmers in the Royal Canadian before they again put their signature to a large note for a policy not nearly as good.
