The November Arena closes the eighth volume of this popular Review, which, by the conspicuous ability of its contributors, its unequalled, fearless, and healthy reformative impulses, has become a power in our land. Rabbi Solomon Schindler contributes a very thoughtful, though rather Socialistic paper, entitled "Thoughts in an Orphan Asylum." E. P. Powell's contribution is a strikingly interesting "Study of Thomas Pine." Louis Frechett, the poet-laurate of Canada, appears in an interesting historic story entitled "La Corriveau." Among other papers of special interest discussed by eminent thinkers are the following: "The Slave Power and the Money Power," "Is Liquor Selling a sin?" "Medical Slavery Through Legislation," "Knowledge the Preserver of Purity," "Gerald Massey: The Man and the poet," The announcements for 1894 are very interesting.

Mrs. Abigail Smith is ninety-four years old and lives at Patchogue, L. I. She has a remarkable memory, reads without spectacles, and considers herself quite young and frisky. ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Lovers of music and comic opera will be pleased to hear that the management have succeeded in booking for 13th inst., J. Hirschs' celebrated comic opera company, Ching-Chinz. This company carries fifty people. Look out for particulars next week.—12-1.

A WHOLE SOULED BELIEVER.—It's when a man's sick that he needs medicine, and it's the same with a business. The sicker it is the more medicine it needs. I believe advertising will sell "anything, anywhere, anytime," if it is the right sort of advertising and is properly followed up.—Austin Bates in Printers' Ink.

RETURNED.—Dougall Sinclair and hunting party returned on Saturday last from the north, having had good luck, killing as many deer as allowed by law. The boys report that Dougall devoted all the time he had to spare in studying the French language, in the study of which he made great proficiency.

MARKS BROS.—This company opened a week's engagement at the Academy of Music on Tuesday evening last, with "McGinty's Troubles," and played to a crowded house. The play throughout was one of laughter and applause. On Wednesday evening they presented "Casey's Luck," which was very humorous and witty, to a large audience. They will occupy the boards the remainder of the week. If you want a good night's fun don't fail to hear Marks Bros. and their talented company. Popular prices, 10, 15 and 25 cents.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.—During the past few weeks we have been sending notices to those of our subscribers whose subscriptions are long overdue. We have not yet got through the list, but this need not deter those in arrears who have not received a notice, from examining the label on their paper, which shows the time they are paid up to, and remitting the amount due. The amount to each person is small but in the aggregate is quite an item to us. The old Scotch proverb, "many littles makes a muckle" illustrates our case exactly. In one word those who are owing us please remit and save us the trouble of dunning you, which is neither pleasant to you or us. We do not like to give these accounts into other hands for collection, but if not paid—well something of that kind must be done.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Arthur Lloyd the celebrated English comedian, will appear next Wednesday evening, the 15th inst., in the musical comedy in four acts entitled "Our Party," which is interspersed with numerous songs and dances. Popular prices.—12 1.

Name the Man.

To the Editor of The Warder.

DEAR SIR:—As all are aware, a few weeks ago Mr. J. B. Weldon, one of our merchants, was forced to make an assignment, which is no dishonor. But, what I have to complain of in the matter is, statements Mr. Weldon makes in his poster announcing his settlement with his creditors. He says that it was owing to false statements circulated in Toronto, that he was driven to make an assignment. Now, the onus of this rests on the merchants here, and for myself I intend to hew to the line and if chips fly in any man's face he must stand back. I hereby request Mr. Weldon to name his man, if there is a man or rather a sneak, among us we want the tar on the right nose. Yours truly,

W. H. Pogue.

The Matabeles Defeated.

Cape Town, Nov. 8.—The Matabeles attack the British Tuli column under Major Goold Adams on Nov. 1. This column has a number of Maxim guns that were turned on the enemy. The natives could not withstand the showers of bullets poured into their ranks and they broke and fled in great disorder. Major Adams' column numbers 300 men. A number of the black allies under Chief Khama are attached to the column. F. C. Selous, the explorer, for whose head King Lobenguela has offered a reward, was wounded in the fight.

FAILED TO TAKE THEM BY SURPRISE

The enemy consisted of two large regiments, who attacked Major Adams' column, which was strung out in a long line. The Matabeles swooped down on the rear wagons, hoping to take the British by surprise and overcome them before they would have time to rally. The British, however, were prepared for just such a move, Khama's scouts having warned Major Adams of the approach of the enemy. The rear guard dashed to the defence of the wagons almost at the moment the attack was made, while at the same time the advance guard turned back to aid their comrades. Mr. Selous was in the thickest of the fight, and he fell wounded while aiding in the defence of the wagons. After his wound was dressed he re-mounted his horse and continued fighting.

SIXTY MATABELES KILLED.

The fire of the Matabeles was wild, but the British fire told severely on the Matabeles. Khama's men suffered most, but reinforced by the troopers they drove the Matabels off. The latter lost more than 60 killed. The number of their wounded is very large. Four of Khama's men were killed. Gamba, a son-in-law of King Lobengula, commanded the Matabeles.

LOBENGULA BETWEEN TWO COLUMS.

Major Adams says that Lubengula is now between the Fort Charter column, commanded by Major Forbes, and the Fort Tuli column. The Fort Charter column consists of 250 mounted men with two Maxim guns, which are supplied with galloping carriages, and one seven-pounder Armstrong mountain gun. Commander Reafe shares in the command of the Fort Tuli column. The Matabeles retreated in the direction of Buluwayo.

IS MAJOR ADAMS SURROUNDED?

A special despatch to The Pall Mall Gazette from Johannesburg says: Captain Kirby, telegraphing the news of the fight between the Tuli column and the Matabeles, says that Major Adams and Commander Reafe are surrounded and that reinforcements are required quickly.

Captain Kerby also reports that disagreements have sprung up among the commanders. The dispatch adds that this latter report is not confirmed.

"How to Cure all Skin Diseases."

Simply apply "SWAYNES OINTMENT." No internal medicine required. Cures tetter, eczema, itch, all eruptions on the face, hands, nose, etc., leaving the skin clear, white and healthy. Its great healing and curative powers are possessed by no other remedy. Ask your druggist for Swayne's Ointment. Lyman Sons & Co. Montreal, Wholesale Agts.—24-1y.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night: worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists or by mail, for 50 cts. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman Sons, etc., Montreal, Wholesale Agents.—20-1y.

The Thumb-Screws of Hard Times Squeeze The Manufacturers!

Their Necessities Are Our Opportunities.

We Give Them The Cash They Want for Goods on Our Own Terms!

These are hard days for those who make clothing—that is Ready-Made Clothing—with stock accumulating, with wages running up and limited sales. Many a maker of clothing finds himself in a hole. The only way out is to sell. To bring sales means a reduction in prices. The fact is the clothing can be bought ~~for cash~~ now, lower than at any time in the history of the trade.

Here is our advantage, we go into the market with ready money. We dangle it before the eyes of the needy maker. Our offer was irresistible. We secured at figures that seem ridiculous. Here is a portion for our customers. WE SELL AS WE BUY. The people who lose are those who make the goods. We are in a position to save you money on your buying without loss to ourselves. This is straight business talk Our selling to you is just as straight. Look at a few straight prices! They tell the tale of our good buying! $3 50 buys a heavy Canadian, all-wool Overcoat, TEN DIFFERENT PATTERNS. $5.00 gives you your choice of Overcoats that were sold for $6.00, $7 00 and $8.00 wholesale. $6.90 is our price for fancy worsted overcoats, bound velvet collar and heavily quilted. $10.00 puts you inside of any one of fifty styles in double-breasted, capute long caped, or made in double-breasted with large collars. $12.50 is the price we quote for our all-wool Beavers, Elysians, Cheviots, and fine all-wool worsteds. For 25c. GOUGH BROS. will sell you a fine suit of underwear. For 25c. we will sell you and do sell a heavy wool shirt and drawers, men's size. For 37½c. we sell an all-wool shirt and drawers, worth by the case $4.75. 10c.—500 dozen more of our noted all-wool ribbed top sox, 10c. per pair.

$25,000 Worth of Superior Cut and Ready-Made Clothing

Pay no attention to anything you hear about goods not worth value. We have been known too long as BARGAIN-GIVERS to jeopordize our position as FIRST in the line of clothing-houses. GOUGH BROS. will stand by their promises. Every garment guaranteed. Come and see them.

GOUGH BROS.

The Wonderful Cheap Men. LINDSAY AND PETERBORO.

N.B.—We have just had a telegram from our buyers in Montreal, stating that they had just closed a deal with JAMES O'BRIEN for $28,000 worth of clothing.

Improvements.

Having made necessary and substantial improvements in my store in Little Britain, making it more convenient for doing business, I will be prepared to wait on my numerous friends and give good bargains in the future, as in the past.

But this is not all. I am well aware that improvements on the store no matter how pleasing to the eye, is no benefit to the purchaser. To meet this want I have purchased at a low rate a general assortment of which will be sold as cheap as any other house in the trade. Thanking my numerous friends and customers for past favors and soliciting a continuance of their patronage at the old reliable store, Post Office Little Britain.
