FASHIONABLE MILLINERY

OUR stock of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats is so varied that it cannot help pleasing every taste. There are no prettier Hats than you will find here; costlier Hats perhaps, but none prettier or more stylish. Don't take our word for it. Come and find out for yourself.

OUR MANTLE DEPARTMENT is still a busy spot. No wonder when such stylish Coats and Capes are marked at such quick selling prices.

Our $5, $6, $7 50, $10 and $12 Coats are fast sellers.

Our Children's Coats and Ulsters are decidedly different from the general stocks of Children's Coats. They have style and newness and are moderately priced.

DRESS GOODS—Interest is manifested in our Dress Goods Department. All the newness that is to be found anywhere is here. Plain Goods in all the different cloths, New Fancies, New Black Dress Goods. When you want Dress Goods look our stock over.

MANTLE CLOTHS—Selling Mantles too cheap to sell Mantle Cloths at a profit. Prices are about half the regular prices. $1.00 Mantle Cloth for 50c. $2 00 Mantle Cloth $1 25. This is a fair idea of how prices are reduced.

In The Deer Haunts.

Very few deer came down last week.

The hunting season closes next Tuesday.

Moose are reported very numerous in the north country.

Mr. C. N. Daly, American consul at Guelph, passed through town on Saturday on his way to join the Simpson party at Concession lake, Harvey township.

On Tuesday the G.T.R. and C.P.R. trains brought into Toronto over two hundred deer which indicates that the hunters are using all the time alloted to them.

A hunting party from Stouffville, who are camped in Monmouth township, are having grand sport. On Saturday evening they shipped out eight deer and three bears.

It is estimated that there are six thousand hunters in northern Ontario on the track of the deer. The official who makes the estimate also says that the deer are increasing in number.

Ten deer were shipped to the Gunn, Fiavelle Co., Toronto, by north country hunters Monday. The weather being fine and warm, the hunters were afraid the meat would spoil if kept longer in camp.

The George M. Finley party, of Port Hope, passed through town on Saturday morning in on their way home from the north. They were only out a week but managed to shoot several fine looking animals.

Messrs. George Foster, J. A. Williamson and John Fleury are hunting near Ingoldsby. It is said that the deer up there heard of their skill as marksmen and have sought safety in flight.

The Rev. S. J. Shorey of Peterborough, who managed to stay in civilization during one week of the deer season, could stand the strain no longer and has gone north to join a hunting party. He stopped in town on Monday for a short time on his way, and called on old friends. He joined the Fitzgerald--Kingan party at Baptiste lake.

Mr. H. LeBrun came in from camp last evening and reports two fine bucks being secured by the LeBrun Strickland party. The hunters are enjoying the exceptionally fine weather, and this particular party is having a thoroughly good time. Mr. Harry Strickland keeps the larder well equipped with ducks, and but for the inopportune beating of a 5th of November drum, Mr. George Hatton would have brought in a fine buck yesterday. He had just drawn a bead on him when a settler struck up "The Protestant Boys" and the buck took to the woods. Mr. Hatton, however, says he won't come home till he bags his deer, and as the party remain out all next week, his chances are good.—Peterborough Examiner, Nov. 5th.

Successful Lindsayites

The Belleville Intelligencer has the following to say of two old Lindsay boys who have been in business in Belleville for the past year or so. Mr Quick, it will be remembered, was with Mr. M. J. Carter, and Mr. Robinson in Mr. B. Gough's store. The wrinkles they learned from these gentlemen evidently stood them in good stead in Belleville, judging by the following item:—

"It may fairly be stated that the ready-made clothing business in Belleville is in the hands of Messrs. Quick & Robertson, who, although they have been only a short time in the city, have made a large number of friends, both in business and in a social way. Since establishing their business in this city they have shown such a desire and ability to please the public that they have a very large number of patrons and have succeeded in securing the best of the business in their line that is done in the city. It is worth one's while to pay a visit to this store, say on Saturday, when it is astonishing the crowd of people who tax the utmost capacity of a large staff of efficient clerks. On account of such a large patronage the firm found it necessary recently to add an addition to their store of 45x27 feet. Messrs Quick & Robertson are both most courteous gentlemen to meet, and the careful attention which they give to all customers makes a visit to their store a pleasure."

Military Notes.

A conference will take place at Ottawa, between Major General Hutton and district officers commanding from Nov. 15 to 19, to consider measures for the improvement of the militia force.

Major General Hutton has introduced a system which will enable an officer who has removed beyond the limits to still retain his connection with the militia. Provision has been made for the establishment of an "unattached list" to which will be relegated officers who previously would have been obliged to sever their connection or who if qualified by the necessary service would have been placed upon the reserve of officers. An order-in-council has been issued in the following terms:—"An unattached list is authorized in connection with the active militia of Canada, in order to facilitate the transfer of officers of one corps to another without sacrifice of militia rank. Transfers to the unattached list will rest with the Major-General commanding."

Lieut. Col. Streubenzee died in Kingston on Tuesday night from liver affection contracted while on military duties in India and China. In 1876 he was appointed Deputy Adjutant General of the Canadian Militia, commanding at different times military districts No. 3, 4 and 5. He served through the Northwestern campaign in 1885 and commanded the infantry brigade at Batoche (medal and clasp) recommended for promotion to the rank of Colonel and appointed C.B.,C. He retired from service on a gratuity in 1893.

Every year there are attempts, more or less extensive, to familiarize the Canadian militia with the requirements of active service in the field by means of local camps, and every year on the recurrence of our national holidays the taste of the people for military display is evinced by the gathering together of as many troops as possible for review at the more important cities of the Dominion. The Quebec Daily Telegraph now brings forward a schemetor a grand sham battle at Quebec to last two or three days and to be participated in by almost the entire strength of the Canadian permanent and volunteer forces and the British North Atlantic squadron. We believe the event would be a crowning achievement to the good feeling now existing between England and Canada, a grand spectacle for the youth of our country, and an exceptional opportunity for our militia. We see no reason why the project should not be carried out, say toward the end of the annual camp when all the troops could be mobilized at Quebec. In some countries the troops are mobilized annually. If Canada is to have an efficient militia her troops should be brought together at least every few years.
