The Victoria Warder

FRIDAY, JUNE 1, 1888.

FENCEROAD.

Special to The Warder.

Farmers are busy seeding, and are now busy putting in the rest of it.

Mr. Jas Broad, has purchased a fine Durham bull which he will keep for service during the coming season, on north half of lot four, second concession.

LORETTO.

Special to The Warder.

Our Sabbath school, which was organized about four years ago with an attendance of 10 scholars, last Sunday reached the very high number of 50. Every stress is laid on it and it has been steadily advancing both in numbers and talent. With its able staff of teachers and chief it could not but prosper.

On account of the trustees being so busily engaged in farming operations on the regular appointed Arbor Day, it was duly observed in appointed last Friday.

Mr. McKinnon, of the Old Kirk, gave an able discourse in our school house last Sabbath evening, to a very large and attentive audience.

On the 4 number of our best singers took part in the temperance concert in Woodville a week or so ago, and acquitted themselves very creditably.

Hugh McLean, of the Canadian Post staff, is home sick now for nearly two weeks, but under Dr. McKay, of Woodville, is mending nicely.

PETERBOROUGH.

Fire Rifle Association.—The report of the secretary-treasurer, Major Hall, presented at the annual meeting of the County of Peterborough Rifle Association, showed that the receipts amounted to $684 05, and that $355 had been paid out in cash. The following officers were elected:

President—Lieut. Col. H. C. Rogers (re-elected.)

1st Vice President—Rev. V. Clementi (re-elected.)

2nd Vice President—Jno. McKee

Sec.-Treas.—J. R. Portland.

Council—D. Cameron, P. Hall and W. A. Magee.

The Association decided to affiliate with the Ontario Association, and the question of affiliation with the Dominion Association was left with the officers. It was decided to hold monthly meets every Thursday in June, July, August and September. The president was requested to apply to the Government for Ross Martin and Harry Ellis for the use of the association. The Council was instructed to endeavor to arrange for the use of the present range on the Cobourg railway, or, failing in that, to secure a new site for ranges. Dr. Hall was tendered a unanimous vote of thanks for his eleven years efficient and faithful services as secretary-treasurer.—Peterborough Times.

BETHANY.

Special to The Warder.

On Wednesday, 16th inst., a meeting of those interested in football was called, the turnout was large and fairly representative one. The following officers were elected:—Hon. P.—Mr. J. F. Preston; Pres., John Gordon McLaughlin; Pres., H. H. Ryley; Captain, Richard Cathey; Sec., John H. Cathey; Committee, Messrs. F. Stirke, Wm. Dawkins and David Cairns. Quator, Mr. James Kennedy; Captain of the juniors, Master Joseph Morclaig; Jno. Curryn, Sec.

We are glad to say that Mr. F. Hamilton's little boy is recovering rapidly from a severe attack of sickness.

Mr. Gregory Niland, has removed from the Hamilton house to his former shop, where he will continue work as usual. No doubt this will be a profitable change, for many were afraid to ascend the rotten and unsafe steps that led to the shop door, for if you happened to miss your step the chances are, you would be dashed into eternity.

Mr. Sidney Preston, who disposed of his farm will this spring, left the other day for the States, where he will continue his profession. Sid is greatly missed by the fair sex.

I see your correspondents are all referring to the cold and backward spring. Well now there is a farmer here, who says he seeded oats on Friday evening, and the following Saturday they were hidden an inch long. Well Sam don't you believe it.

RUGBY.

Special to The Warder.

New House.—Mr. Murray on the town line, is making preparations to build a new dwelling house. Mr. Black has the contract.

Mr. Samuel Tremeer on the fifth concession, has been confined to his bed for some time with rheumatic fever. Mr. Tremeer is subject to these attacks and should exercise more care. He is now convalescent and we hope he will be out again soon.

Mr. Rodd, who has been doing a booming business in the lumber trade this spring, has begun the erection of a new mill in Lindsay, where he intends to move in a short time.

ROBINSON'S CORNERS.

Special to the Warder.

Spring is here again with its blossoms and mosquitoes.....Glad the choir have not to drive through the long swamp to practise, or I think they would be wishing for the snow drifts again.

The attendance at the weekly prayer-meeting is rather smaller than usual, on account of spring work.

What! Measles around the Corners? I hope my girl has not got them.

They have erected a wire fence around the church here, which greatly improves the looks of the place, and is a credit to the people.

We hear the annual tea is to be held in June.

We hope our Nimrod who visits Coboconk occasionally will visit it once more.

INGOLDSBY

Special to The Warder.

Personal.—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hunt have returned from Hamilton and Toronto, where they spent the winter with their sons. Mrs. Hunt is improving in her health, and their many friends welcome them back to Ingoldsby.

Improvement.—Mr. John Hicks has erected a new dwelling on his farm, recently purchased east of here. We think he means business.

Business.—The Allaw mills are doing a rushing business, under the superintendency of Mr. Wm. Gainer. Mr. Bowerman makes regular trips from the mill with his steam boat.

Crops.—Crops all in, and if the cold weather continues likely to stay in.....Success to The Warder and John A.

CANNINGTON.

Special to the Warder.

If a thing is worth doing at all it is worth doing well. In according the utmost praise to the managing committee and all those who took part in the celebration of the 24th in our town is no empty compliment, but well deserved in its best and fullest sense. We remember of no time in past celebrations of Her Majesty's birthday when taken altogether, everything passed off so successfully and so much genuine pleasure was experienced, by our visitors and townspeople, as on Thursday last. As was to be expected, and is seldom otherwise, Queen's weather, such as the delightful month of May only affords, contributed largely in inviting out the large concourse of people who were present, and to the general success and enjoyment of the day's sports and amusements. Just as the sun rose above the horizon people for many miles around were awakened from their slumbers by the cannon's operatic roar, and in the intervals between the grand strains of "God Save the Queen" from the fine band of the 34th battalion, announced the 69th birthday of our beloved sovereign. By noon between two and three thousand people from all parts had congregated, and places of accommodation were taxed to the utmost. Sharp at one o'clock the trades procession was formed, and proceeded on a tour of the principal streets of the place. It was a fine sight, and too much praise cannot be given to those who took part in it. As it filed past the main corners we noted the order in which it was arranged. With the 34th battalion band leading with a lively quickstep, came 1st, the Bicycle Club, their machines gaily decorated with small Union Jacks; followed in carriages by the reeve and town council. Then with a long line of splendid covered carriages came Mr. F. Williams, carriage manufacturer. Next in order Mr. Lipp with a fine display of the celebrated Singer sewing machines. Then followed Mr. W. H. Hoyle, with a rich display of upholstered furniture, horses and carriages gaily decorated with flags. Messrs. Brandon Bros., with their great delivery waggon piled up with boxes of cakes and confectionery, came next. Then came Mr. J. P. V. May, builder and contractor, displaying a carpenter's shop, with the men at work. Next in order Messrs. Dobson & Sons, with a brilliant display of colored woolen goods, their own manufacture. Mr. Wm. McPherson made a fine display of stoves and tinware. Mr. D. E. Lindsay displayed a fine lot of harness. On the waggon was stretched a long banner, bearing the motto, "We lead; others follow." Mr. J. Reed's exhibition of the new Hamilton fanning mill attracted considerable attention. Following these were several others, all worthy of mention did space permit.

Last, but not least, came the fire brigade with the new engine prettily decorated. They made a fine appearance. After the procession was over every one made their way to the driving park, where the great race between Maud S., and Mayflower was to take place. Sharp on time they stood at the starting point both looking well, and ready for the word go. It came as they passed under the wire abreast of each other, and after a splendid struggle for the front around the course, the little home favorite Maud S., came under the wire, the winner of the first heat. The second heat was won after a sharp struggle by Mayflower; the two last by Maud S., thus making her the winner of the race. The next race was for green horses; and certainly both horses and riders were not misnamed by the application. One of the horses from Beaverton, won for himself the name of "Fence corner Tom," from his successful and persistent efforts in breaking for the fence and depositing there his rider a length in advance. We do not know who won, some say the Mouse, others, that it was the Bundler but we say give us "Fence corner Tom" every time. On returning again to the town, the people were met by "A Stage Coach," on the sides of which were the words, "Through overland route." The coach was filled with men and women, and the driver was urging the horses on at a mad gallop. In the rear, pistol in hand and urging their horses to their utmost speed, came a band of mounted Indians and cow boys, some thirty strong. Nearing the coach, they opened fire on the travellers, which was cordially returned, and the rattle of pistol and musket for a few minutes was most exciting; and the great "stage coach robbery" was not accomplished without a hard struggle. It was well done, and no mistake about it. Many are of the opinion, that it in every way excelled anything of the kind attempted by the circus. Mr. Charles Bick represented to perfection the cow boy desperado. (Charles, this is a compliment, although it reads slightly peculiar). The day's proceedings was brought to a close by the performance in the town hall, of "Ten Nights in the Bar-room." The highest compliment we can pay the performers, is in saying after having previously three times presented it, a $127 house was presented them by an appreciative public. In every way was the celebration a success, nearly $150 was taken at the gates of the driving park, which when added to the above leaves a fund of $50, which has been deposited in the bank, after all expenses are paid. This will be used for the celebration next year. Well done Cannington.

From an Occasional Correspondent.

A Lively Town.—The village of Cannington is at present enjoying a very steady growth. A large number of private residences are now in the course of erection, and many more are contemplated; while the number of people who trade here daily is fast increasing. It is really surprising the number of people who gather here, especially on Saturday evenings.

A Correction.—Your correspondent was slightly in error last week in his report of the alleged appropriation of pies from the Bennett House cellar, consequent upon his being misinformed about the circumstances. If we were wrong, we extend quite willingly to the young man in question a most humble apology, and express a regret of having written the same.

OMEMEE.

On Tuesday as the 11.20 train was near Sturgeon-street, a boy named Arthur Donald fell off the rear platform of the last car. Mr. George English who saw him fall, says he thought it was a parcel thrown off by some person on the train, but on closer examination found it to be a boy. He brought him down to the village and soon willing hands were at work under Mr. Tisdall's awning, washing off blood and examining the wounds which were chiefly on the head and face, and the boy complained of a pain in his legs. He is now at the residence of Mr. S. Cromwell, where he is made as comfortable as possible. The boy states that he had been working at Fenelon Falls with a man named Johnson. How he escaped instant death is a wonder as the train was running very fast at the time he fell.—Herald.

FORT HOPE.

The Lacrosse Match.—Three to three was the result of the lacrosse match yesterday in the town park between the T. M. C. A. teams of Lindsay and Port Hope. It was a hotly contested game from start to finish, and considering everything could not have ended more satisfactorily. The ball was faced shortly after ten, and in a few minutes, to the surprise of all, Port Hope secured a goal. In about the same time, Lindsay by excellent team play shot a ball through the poles. Alternately goals were taken by each club, the ball never once, however, being put through at the lower end of the field. For Port Hope: J. F. Nattrass played a magnificent game at goal; shot after shot was showed upon the goal, but Frank seemed to fill up every inch between the poles. Jack Wright and Cole Hamly on defence worked like Trojans, again and again frustrating the well-planned onslaughts of their opponents. Art Hamly played an excellent home game, but was not supported well enough. Geo. Edmunds and Jack Kelly also did well. Walter Ross, a little fellow, on defence field, was the admired of all, playing a wonderfully plucky game and doing effective checking. Chris Cornell and Finley played a splendid home game for Lindsay, while Marshall Anderson was felt all over the defence. The Lindsay boys play an excellent team game, and are all around gentlemanly and fine fellows. Such matches as yesterday's will do much to popularize our national game in Port Hope, where it has somewhat dropped out. A lunch was tendered the players and their friends by the ladies, and was a most delightful and substantial evidence of the cookery of Port Hope ladies and their regard for the Association. After dinner addresses were delivered by Mr. Wm. Craig, the chairman and Messrs. Anderson, McPherson and Murdock of Lindsay, Stevens and Clegg of Peterboro; Rev. H. J. Hamilton and F. C. Philip, Port Hope, while Mr. H. Hamly and W. J. Ring responded to "The Ladies." "God Save the Queen" brought to a close a grand day's entertainment. The Lindsay boys left by the 3.45 train.—Times.

The Best Hear.

Dangerous Counterfeits.

Counterfeits are always dangerous, more so that they always closely imitate the original in appearance and name. The remarkable success achieved by Nasal Balm as a positive cure for Catarrh and Cold in the Head has induced unprincipled parties to imitate it. The public are cautioned not to be deceived by nostrums imitating Nasal Balm in name and appearance, bearing such names as Nasal Cream, Nasal Balsam, etc. Ask for Nasal Balm and do not take imitation dealers may urge upon you. For sale by all druggists or sent post-paid on receipt of price (50c and $1) by addressing Fulford & Co., Brockville, Ont.—1610 1f.
