OPE.

Special to The Warder.

On Sunday the 7th inst., the old methodist church on the Lindsay and Omemee road was crowded to hear the last sermon that would be preached within its walls. The Rev. Wm. Johnston of Omemee, took for his text John 14; 12, "Arise let us go hence," from which words a very interesting and appropriate sermon was preached; during the delivery of which many in the audience were moved to tears. On Monday morning the old building was taken down and work commenced on fixing up sheds and yard around the new church, which is to be opened on Sunday 21st, when Rev. Dr. Williams will preach at 10, Rev. W. Briden at 2 and Rev. C. W. Watch at 7. A grand tea meeting will be held on Monday 22nd, when a good time is expected.

11TH CON. MARYPORS.

Special to The Warder.

FARMERS busy ploughing and threshing. Grain yielding better than expected for the dry season.

MR. WM. Ingram has sold both of his farms on 11th lot; one to Mr. J. Hickson for $4,000, and the homestead to Mr. Magee of East Emily at $42 per acre.

MR. Chas. Armstrong has rented his farm of 110 acres of clearance to Mr. Finney of Fenelon for $300 per year.

MR. Samuel Stinson Sr., has moved to the old homestead and is going to farm south.

A wedding took place here on the 10th Sept. Miss P. Connal and Mr. Wm. A. Stinson were the contracting parties. They visited the Toronto exhibition on their wedding tour. Your correspondent wishes them much happiness.

A revival meeting is going on here in the Stinson methodist meeting house in the charge of the Rev. Mr. Wilson, but there has not been much benefit done yet owing to a disagreement between two of the members in regard to private matters, and some very hot words were used. Now, Mr. Editor, I always thought that a meeting house was a place for worshipping God in, and not for collection of debts. If that is the sort of christians we have I think but little of their christianity. WANDERER.

MR. Wm. Sanders has been very ill for some months past, and is not expected to recover.

T. D. WILLIAMSON Esq., has built a very fine driving shed, which will make a great improvement in the appearance of his fine cultivated farm.

THE agent for THE WARDER, Lindsay, was with us for a few days last week, and appears to be progressing.

FARMERS are busy with their root crop which is in every respect a favorable one.

NORTH VERULAM.

Special to The Warder.

RAIN.—Rain has been falling nearly every day for about a week, and the weather has been very cold; but at present it seems to be more settled and is very delightful. The farmers would be glad to see the weather continue fine, as very few of them have commenced to dig their Irish apples.

BRIEFLETS.—A large number of our people took in the Lindsay and Peterborough fairs.....Paring bees are numerous now, but fiddlers are mighty scarce.....No bear hunts at present.....Ops carpenters make fine flower stands.

BURNT RIVER—SOMERVILLE.

Special to The Warder.

IMPROVING.—Mr. J. Eyres is finishing his fine new building...Mr. A. Townsend is erecting a new house.....The methodists are building a new church.....Mr. J. B. Jones is building a new house and stables.

COLD.—The oldest inhabitant has never seen such cold weather at this season of the year before. Let us hope it is borrowed from the winter and that it will be warmer in consequence.

POORLY.—Mrs. Wm. Nicholls, who has been very ill of late, is yet poorly.

GOSSIP.—Mrs. Brisbin has returned from visiting friends in the States...Miss Benson is visiting her sister here, Mrs. Atkins...Some of our young men are anxious for annexation, the state they look for is matrimony.

REPEAL.—About 150 ratepayers of Somerville signed the petition for the repeal of the Scott Act, believing a strict license law to be more in the interest of temperance than a prohibitory law.

INGOLDSBY.

Special to The Warder.

CHANGE.—We notice that the Ingoldsby post office has changed hands, and that Mr. A. Baker is now postmaster and is erecting a post office.

WEDDING BELLS.—One day this week our neighborhood was thrown into a state of excitement over the announcement of the marriage of Mr Blaine Robertson of Ailsaw and Miss Elizabeth Hicks of Ingoldsby. We wish the young couple much happiness in their journey through life. We expect more of the same business soon.

WHAT WE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW.—Who is going to shoot the bear that destroyed John's oats?.....When that young gentleman that wears the fur coat will again visit Ingoldsby.....Why the sewing machine agent goes home so regularly every week?

IMPROVEMENTS.—Wm. Minaker is making great improvements on his farm this summer. We expect he means business.

NORLAND.

Special to The Warder

FIRE.—At about four o'clock on the morning of the 20th the villagers were aroused by the alarm of fire, and on arriving at the scene they observed that the general store of J. Perkins was in one mass of seething flames. All efforts to save anything were in vain, as the fire was past control. Great praise is due the residents of the upper part of Queen-st. for the rush they made for the fire and their noble efforts to save property. The building and contents were partly covered by insurance, but Perkins is a heavy loser. We sincerely hope Mr. Perkins will rebuild and soon be rushing business as before.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Martin, wife of Dr. Martin, has returned from Toronto after a couple of weeks visit among friends and taking in the exhibition at the same time.....Mrs. R. McCrary of Mount Pleasant is the guest of Mrs. Harshaw.....Mrs. H. McLauchlin and Miss Minnie Hastings are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hastings.....W. H. McLauchlin of Oakwood, is spending a few days here among his many friends.....Mr. A. Hastings Sr, has gone on a trip to Manitoba on important business. We wish him success and an enjoyable time.

IMPROVING.—The Hastings Bros. have made great improvements in their mills lately. Messrs. J. & C. Hastings are very energetic young men, and are carrying on a rushing business in the lumber trade.....G. W. Allely is putting up a fine driving and wood shed.

WE congratulate our blacksmith on his appointment to a government office. We understand he has a large job on the Cameron road which will be a great boon to the poor in need of employment.

QUERIES.—What attraction is there up Queen-st. for the new teacher? Who fell in love with the manager of the peep show?

UNTHOFF.

Special to The Warder.

OUR village is rather quiet at present Although our grain buyers will be a few days be prepared to open the market for grain as they have been unable to do so for some time.

A DEBATING society will shortly be organized here, which has been the desire expressed for some time.

OUR merchants already have a grand display of fall and winter goods. If business still increases in the future as in the past, people and farmers generally will no doubt in future do all their marketing here instead of Orillia, especially on Saturdays.

NEW block pavement sidewalks will be erected shortly, which has been the long felt want.

VALENTIA.

Special to The Warder.

FAIRS.—This part has done exceedingly well in prize winning this fall. The principal exhibitors were James Swain, William R. Swain, J. M. Emerson and W. E. Swain. All of these gentlemen did well, but Mr. James Swain took the bun, he having showed in more fairs than the others, and carried off a great number of first prizes on sheep and fruits.

DROWNED.—Mr. Wm. Moffatt was unfortunate enough last week to lose a valuable young horse by drowning in a well.

PERSONALS.—Mrs. Myers of Cleveland, O., is visiting Mrs. J. B. Emerson...Mr. Alex. Armstrong has left here and taken up his abode in Oakwood...Mrs. M. Grille, for some time dangerously ill, is recovering...Mrs. Robert Jordan has returned after a visit to her friends in Port Hope and vicinity.

ELDON STATION.

Special to the Warder.

NEW CHURCH.—The people of this place, as announced by the Rev. Mr. McKinnon the Sunday previous, had a meeting last Thursday, the object, "the best means of extending Christ's kingdom in this place. At the meeting it was decided to be, by building a house to His name. There were not many present, but they were of the right kind, and when the list was presented Mr. J. D. Campbell and son headed it with $40; thirteen other names were added at once, the total aggregate of which summed up $175.00. The people are to be congratulated on the movement and the success attending so far. It is hoped no one will endeavor to throw stumbling blocks in the way, but let us all be honest with ourselves and improve this golden opportunity. The committee of management will meet Saturday evening at the Station about 7 o'clock.

OAKWOOD.

Special to The Warder:

A SABBATH school has opened in east Oakwood, the superintendent is Mr. Geo. Lane. Teachers and scholers are all well pleased and are doing all they can to make it interesting. We hope it will be a success.

A PLEASANT time was spent at the residence of John Williams Esq., last Tuesday evening; a number of friends and neighbors met there to welcome their son Thomas home, who has been taking to himself a help mate. We who are left, Tom, wish you much joy.

DRESSMAKING.—Miss Annie M. Addison, who is noted as the neatest and most fashionable dressmaker in the neighborhood is speedily turning out her good work; all are well pleased with her artistic style and good work.

BIRTH.—We notice that the population is rapidly increasing, Mrs. Wm. J. Mackin has a young daughter.

LITTLE BRITAIN.

Special to The Warder.

ACCIDENT.—As Dr. Broad was returning from Oakwood fair his horse got frightened and ran away throwing him out, and on falling his foot caught in the wheel which dragged him some distance hurting his leg very badly. There was a young man with him, Luther Mark, which came of with just a good shaking up. It is almost a miracle they were not both killed.

GONE.—The evangelists have gone to Brockville and commenced a series of meetings in that place. The meeting are still going on by Revs. Briden and Anderson.

CHANGE.—Our school has undergone another change with regard to teachers. Miss Sharpe having obtained a more prominent position as teacher, in Lindsay has gone there, leaving as a substitute Miss McKay. Miss Sharpe has won a number of friends here by her amiable disposition, and we were very sorry to have her leave us. We wish both ladies success.

GLANDINE.

Special to The Warder.

PRIZE STOCK.—I think of all the stock getters in this district the Earl, owned by Messrs. A. H. Webster & S McRay, deserves special mention. His stock at Lindsay took 1st in two year old yearling fillies and 2nd in foal of 1888 in heavy draught class. At Oakwood 1st in two yearling fillies, also 1st and 3rd in foals of 1888 same class; also 1st in Agi class. Two colts which deserve special notice are Mr. Alex. Smith's two year old and Mr. Albert Davidson's yearling. They are two beauties. It would pay horse fanciers to see these two colts, and I feel convinced they would give his owners their patronage.

RUSHING.—Owing to greatly increased business Mr. E. Pogue has been compelled to hire an assistant. Such is the result of industry and business tact.

ITEMS.—What's the matter with the Glandine infant (rifle association)?...Mr. Thos. Graham is doing some big work with his Paragon.....Mr. Morrison Mark has left us and gone to Michigan. Good health, Morse.

SEBRIGHT.

Special to the Warder.

PULPIT.—Rev. Mr. Gilchrist preached his farewell sermon here on Sunday, 30th ult., taking for his text the words "Hear now ye rebels, must we fetch you water out of this rock," from which he preached a very instructive sermon. Rev. Mr. Gilchrist has done a great work among the people of this place. We will welcome him back when through with his college course.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. J. Nicholson and Mr. D. Nicholson, have been making great improvements on and around their buildings recently.....Mr. E. Herring has just completed a very fine hotel, which greatly improves the appearance of Sebright. The building consists of a general store and hotel, is handsomely finished off. He has also erected a verandah around part of it. His hotel is a first-class house and is now in first class order for the reception of guest. If there were a few more men like Mr. E. Herring in the village it would increase in size more rapidly. What we now want is sidewalks, to make Sebright a credit to the township.

MR. Alex. Montgomery returned last week from the shanty, to superintend the building of a bridge on Black river.

ILL.—The reeve, Mr. Joseph Thompson, has been very ill for the past two weeks. We wish him a speedy recovery, for hunting season will soon be in; he is one of our sharp shooters.

PERSONAL.—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nicholson of Uptergrove, paid a flying visit to friends here, and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Young.

WICKSTEED.

Special to The Warder.

BIG POTATOES.—Mr. Heber Robson while digging potatoes, dug up a large potatoe which weighed four pounds. Who says that Heber Robson does not grow good potatoes? He is an enterprising farmer no doubt.

WEATHER.—The weather has been quite cool here, with some snow and heavy frost at night.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Angus Watt, who for some time past has been suffering from the effects of a sore leg, has now gone to the hospital at Toronto. We wish him success.

THE Rev. Mr. Down preached a very able and interesting missionary sermon here on Sunday, 23rd Sept.; the people contributed very liberally towards both the collection and the subscription. We believe that the Rev. Mr. Down is a man who well understands his mission.

BEARS.—Quite a slaughter has been made among the bears here of late. Mr. T. Watt shot two bears; Mr. H. Curry shot two; Mr. G. Gregory also shot two, and Mr. J. Parmer shot one.

HARBURN has been well favored with a good crop this year. The farmers are busy engaged threshing and report the yield of grain to be good.

WE would like to know who found the parcel which Mr. Priest lost on the road while coming from Haliburton. It is to be hoped that the finder will be kind enough to give it to the owner.
