At the meeting of L. O. L. No. 667, on Tuesday evening there was one initiation, and seven propositions for membership received.

HEAD LAKE.

Special to The Warder

SEATON has opened once more. Farmers are busy making sugar, and of course as is the rule, several taffy pulls are expected.

A few nights ago a large crowd assembled at the house of Mr. Murray, for the purpose of giving a farewell party to the young men, from Sedow, who have been working at Mr. Putnam's mill during the winter. A good time was realised and it was not until daylight the following morning that the party dispersed.

Miss Jessie Southern, who has been visiting friends in Manvers during the last month has returned, looking none the worse for her visit. Her return is welcomed by all.

A number of young men from this vicinity have gone to the river for a three months spell, leaving behind them friends who, in advance, await their return. There are several young men, who, not long hence, intend to take their departure to parts unknown.

Our school is gradually increasing in number as well as in intellect. The average has been raised considerably, and since the 1st of April the school has been full.

Much agitation is being caused among the people of this vicinity about the delay of the mail. THE WARDER as well as other important mail matter, is very often a week late in coming to Head Lake and Oak Hill offices, more especially the latter. The matter has been discussed for quite a spell now, and we would like to know if the trouble cannot be remedied at once.
