COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE VICTORIA WARDER, LINDSAY, ONT., DEC. 5TH, 1889.

Market Notes.

Last Friday and Saturday Lindsay market came up two to three cents a bushel for barley.

Harry Woods of Emily, sold a load of wheat in Peterboro last Saturday for 81 cents per bushel. 81 cents was the general price. 79 cents was Lindsay's prevailing price.

Would not it pay one of the Peterboro wheat buyers to come to Lindsay to buy wheat?

Lindsay barley market this week for the first time this year has been up to Peterboro; and near enough Toronto prices to leave a margin for freight. Let the prices be kept so, that is all farmers want just now. By the very property object to receiving less than other close centres.

Why cannot Lindsay pay as high for wheat as Peterboro? The farmers would rather deal here, for they can buy store goods infinitely cheaper here than in any other town in the Midland district. Until the last few years Lindsay was ahead of Peterboro as a wheat market. It should be so again.

A [illegible] that flour is cheaper in Peterboro [illegible]. That being the case [illegible] here than there.

[illegible] taken from the "Canadian [illegible]" published in Toronto, Nov 29th, 1889.

BUTTER AND CHEESE.—For choice creamery [illegible] a demand of a special [illegible] and [illegible] supply on the markets is not [illegible] this demand, consequently [illegible] for good creamery [illegible] if all, no matter what [illegible] in the different grades [illegible] make. The speculators [illegible] the best product of the [illegible] asking prices that are [illegible] being now paid for [illegible] article. Dairy butter [illegible] best of it is worth from [illegible] being paid for only the [illegible] packed butter is still far [illegible]. Prices show that there [illegible] difference in the quality of the [illegible] 10 and 18c representing the [illegible] of low and high prices. [illegible] have sold as low as 15c, but the [illegible] figures paid are 16 and 16c with [illegible] being 17c. Pound rolls are worth 20 to 22c. All butter is in fair supply.

Cheese has undergone no change either in the price or the situation of the market. 10 to 11c is still the price offered by the buyers, and the owners are still firm for more. There is nothing likely to be made on cheese by the dealers any more than there was last year. Prices rule high when stocks are to be replenished.

BEANS.—Do not seem much needed. They are worth from $1.90 to $2, according to quality. The demand for home consumption is sluggish, and buyers are indifferent to stocks for shipping, as most of the camps have their orders filled.

DRIED APPLES.—There are plenty to be had, but they are slow to offer at prevailing prices, 5½ and 6c. On the other hand, buyers are not eager for supplies at these figures, or apparently at any other.

EVAPORATED APPLES.—The packers still hold for 9 and 10c., believing that the short crop favors them, and that the costliness of the raw material justifies them. But there are no buyers. Consumers have not signified any interest in evaporated apples yet, and buyers and sellers are not likely to be brought together for some time.

EGGS.—Limed eggs are plentiful at 16 to 18c. Fresh eggs grow scarcer at 18 to 21c., the latter price being given only for strictly fresh. New laid eggs are worth 22 to 24c. The market increases in firmness with approach of Christmas.

HAY.—No. 1 pressed hay is $10 to $10.50 on track. No. 2 hay, is not in any demand, $7 to $8. No. 1 hay, loose on street, is $12 to $14, and No. 2 loose, is $7 to $10. The supply is about in the proportion which makes trade good.

HIDES.—An old dealer says that in an experience of 20 years he never found prices so low. Cured hides are now sold in car lots at 5c, which a year ago brought 7c. Hides seem to be plentiful all over the world. The large scale on which ranching is carried on may have something to do with low prices. At present, of course, colder weather increases butchering. Green hides are $4.50 for No. 1, and $3.50 for No. 2.

OATS.—Are worth 29 to 30c. in car lots, and are worth 32 to 35c. in small offerings. There is no scarcity.

ONIONS.—Are marketed at $1.50 and $1.75. Trade in onions is dull, as the demand has run out for large supplies.

POTATOES.—Are not notably scarce, and the present supply keeps prices regular, at 50 to 55c. in car lots. Small quantities are worth 60 to 65c. per bag.

POULTRY.—Geese are 6 to 7c. per lb.; turkeys, 10 to 11c.; ducks are scarce at 50 to 80c. per pair, and chickens are 35 to 55c. per pair.

STRAW.—Wheat straw is not called for, and $6 is only a nominal quotation. Tight pressed oat is $6.50, bulk oat is $6 to $7, and sheaf oat is $10 to $11.

SKINS.—No. 1 calf is 6c., No. 2 calf is 5c. Sheepskins are 90c. to $1, and are wanted.

TALLOW.—Rough is 1½ to 2c. Rendered is 5 to 5½c.

BACON.—Long clear is worth 8 to 8½c., and is not very plentiful. Breakfast bacon is 11 to 12c. and roll bacon is 9 to 10c.

DRESSED HOGS.—Mixed lots in car-loads are offering at $5.70 here, and choice lots at $5.75. The weights range from 115 pounds to 215. The price of corn has risen in the West and pork raisers are offering a little lighter in weight.

HAMS.—Green hams are 10 to 11c. Cured 12 to 13½c. There are few to be had. The demand is becoming active.

LARD.—American tubs 8½ to 9c.; pails 9 to 9½c. Canadian tubs 9½ to 10c.; pails 10 to 10½c.

MESS PORK.—$14 to $14.50. Very choice brings $15. There is little stock on hand as packers have not yet begun to cut up.
