IN THE FIELD.—The two gentlemen nominated to con East Victoria at the coming elec have taken time by the forelock ar e already in the field. Mr. Carnegi ade his first public appearance, s he became a candidate, at the M list tea at Baddow last the nominee ing, and Mr. Thurston, the elect of the Patrons, is to address s in Powles's school-house on evening next.

T.—Mr. Thomas Donaldson Falls, who has been working enson's shanty in the town- nerville, met with a serious accident last Friday after- ile riding sideways on a load h his legs hanging down, his as caught between one of the a stump at the roadside, which dislocated the ankle but broke the lower bones of the leg. He was brought to his mother's residence at the Falls, and, under the care of Dr. Graham, is progressing favorably, but will inevitably be laid up for a considerable time.

FIRE PROTECTION.—Don't forget the lic meeting in Jordan's hall next nday evening to discuss the question fire protection. We have now an portunity of procuring a first-class am fire engine at so much less than ordinary price that the difference pay for a large quantity of hose eral tanks in which to store up of water, and, in our opinion, d be unwise to let so good a n slip. The object of the meeting nday is not to decide whether the e shall or shall not be purchased, to obtain an expression of public on on the subject, and, if it appears rable, the council will at once take s to submit the question to the vote of the ratepayers.

CAPT. SWEENEY, U.S.A., San Diego, Cal., : "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first ne I have ever found that would do ood." Price 50 cents. Sold by unkin.

PTIST ANNIVERSARY.—Last Monevening was by long odds the stormwe have had this winter, and yet e Baptist anniversary was so well atnded that the church was far better ed than could reasonably have been ected. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Fraser, pied the chair, and addresses were ered by Rev. D. Wright of Lindav, Rev. Mr. Trotter of Peterborough, . Mr. Binch of Bobcaygeon, and s. Farncomb and McCall of Fenelon lls. Between the speeches, music furnished by the choir, Mr. Henry ham of Kinmount and Mrs. Dr. ham sang a duet, Miss Binch gave a recitation called "Our First Quarrel" in excellent style and Mr. Farncomb read a poem suitable to to the occasion. The tea, it is needless to say, was A 1, and the receipts, (incuding the proceeds of a social held next evening to dispose of the surplus eatables,) amounted to the highly satisfactory sum of $47.

Daniel Ritz, proprietor and publisher of the Hamburg, Ont., Independent, says: "I was suffering from dyspepsia and liver trouble. I took a few bottles of Shiloh's Vitalizer and it cured me. I can heartily commend it."

A PARIS ANARCHIST THROWS A BOMB, WOUNDING TWENTY PERSONS.

PARIS, Feb. 12.—Edon Breton, 24 years old, threw a bomb in the cafe of the Hotel Terminus at the St. Lazare railway station this evening. The bomb exploded in the middle of the room and wounded twenty persons. An instrumental concert began in the cafe, which is on the ground floor of the hotel, at 8 o'clock. Shortly before 9 a pale, thin young man, with a light, pointed beard, paid for a drink which he had taken at a table in the middle of the room and started to leave. When near the door he turned suddenly, drew a bomb from his coat and threw it toward a group of persons who sat next to him. The bomb struck an electric light fixture, then fell on a marble table and exploded. The great hotel and station were rocked by the shock. The mirrors, windows and doors were blown to atoms. The ceiling and floors were rent and the walls were cracked. A dense offensive smoke filled the cafe for four minutes, and in the obscurity the bomb-thrower escaped. When the smoke cleared away persons were found severely wounded, and fifteen had slight injuries. The bomb had been filled with bullets and rough bits of iron, which had riddled the furniture and inflicted most of the wounds.

After leaving the cafe the bomb-thrower started down the street on a run. Three policemen had just passed in an omnibus when the explosion occurred. They were going on duty and jumped out when they saw the fugitive. The young man turned on them as they called him to stop and fired five shots. Policeman Poisson and a woman fell badly wounded. Policemen Lenoire and Bigot, however, continued the pursuit, and with the help of Policeman Barbes and a waiter named Tissler overpowered and arrested the bomb-thrower. They took him to the police station in the Rue de Moscou, where, after some hesitation, he gave his name and age. Fragments of the bomb indicate that it was a tin box, perhaps a sardine box. The explosive contained a choloritic powder.
