VERY CLOSE CONTEST IN TORONTO

Warring Kennedy Elected By 14, the Smallest Majority Ever Known in the Queen City—Results of the Polling From Other Towns and Cities Throughout the Province.

Toronto, Jan. 8.—Out of a total polled vote of 20,508, Warring Kennedy was yesterday re-elected Mayor of Toronto by a majority of 14.

If the contest were represented by a race between two horses on the Woodbine track it would have been rare sport to witness the event. From the time the figures began to come in until the final return gave Kennedy his small majority, the two mayoralty race horses kept almost abreast. Now one led a pace or two, now the other. When the extent of the total vote is considered the majority at any time during the receipt of the return would be barely perceptible in a horse race.

Neither candidate ever attained a lead of 300, and in no polling subdivision was there a majority of more than 50 for either contestant. When it is stated that there were 157 polling subdivisions, some idea of the closeness of the run can be had.

With all the polling places heard from excepting No. 9 in the Second Ward, the tally stood 39 for Kennedy. It is known by both sides that thise subdivision would give Fleming a majority, but to what extent was the question. During the 15 minutes delay in securing the missing returns both candidates claimed the election. When it finally arrived it showed that Fleming was only 25 ahead and that Kennedy was elected Mayor by 14 majority.

There was less excitement manifested in the election than in previous years and the total vote fell a couple of thousand below that of 1894.

DYING OF A BROKEN HEART.

Loss of Husband and Two Daughters More Than She Could Bear.

New York, Jan. 8.—William R. Robinson, 79, who lived in a cottage on West Clarkson-street, Flatbush, lay dead there this morning. In a coffin by his side was the corpse of his daughter Eugenie, aged 35. On Wednesday last another daughter, Mary, 25 years old, was buried from the same room. The only surviving member of the family is the widow. She is ill in bed and in a wild delirium, caused by the misfortunes that have come so suddenly upon her. The doctors say they do not believe she will live until morning.

Mary died from pneumonia. She was sick but a few days. Her father died on Saturday morning of heart disease, brought on, the doctors say, by the shock attendant on the death of Mary, who was his favorite child.

At the time of his death Eugenie was in bed suffering from pneumonia. When she heard of her father's death she lapsed into unconsciousness. She was dead five hours afterwards. Through all these hardships Mrs. Robinson had borne up bravely. Even after Eugenie died, she held up. Father and daughter had been prepared for burial, and lay side by side, in the parlor. The widow went in to look at them. The sight was more than she could stand. She fainted, and when the attack passed away she was delirious. She has been in that condition at the point of death ever since. Mr. Robinson and Eugenie were buried this afternoon.

ELECTION OR SESSION?

The Chances In Favor of An Early Appeal to the Country—The New Lists No Obstruction.

Ottawa, Jan. 8.—The new Premier, Sir Mackenzie Bowell, returned to the Capital yesterday. If his health permit a full Cabinet ACouncil will be held this week and the question of an election or a session settled.

An election is said, by those well-informed, to be the more likely to happen. The new Premier has certainly a reason—his acceptance of office—for appealing at once to the people for a verdict of confidence.

An election can be held within two months if the Cabinet so decide and held on the new lists. Many of these are printed now, others will soon be, and if the Printing Bureau proved unable to handle the lists as fast as they came in some of them could be printed in local offices.

"St. Patrick's Day will be near the date of the general election," said a prominent Irishman to-night.

Important Decision in a Theatrical Suit.

New York, Jan. 8.—A decision which interests every actor and actress and theatrical manager in the country has just been rendered by the General Term of the Court of Common Pleas in an action which Stephen H. Bassett, a tenor, brought against Manager T. Henry French. Bassett was engaged for the Lillian Russell opera troup for a season of 30 weeks at a salary of $200 a week, to commence in October, 1893. Several months before the contract was to begin, Manager French notified Bassett that his seervices would not be required, inasmuch as thee company had disbanded. Bassett then brought suit against the manager to recover his salary for the entire term of his contract. The court holds that in such an action damages can only be recovered up to the day of the trial. The court also holds that a deduction must be made for two weeks salary, during which Bassett was sick, after he had obtained other employment, and that the manager must receive credit for all moneys earned by Bassett otherwise.

China Will Not Cede Any Territory.

Paris, Jan. 8.—The Paris edition of The Herald will print to-morrow a despatch from Shanghai, saying that China's peace envoys to Japan have been instructed not to surrender any territory. China is merely willing to concede the independence of Corea and to pay an indemnity. The failure of the negotiations is regarded in Shanghai as a foregone conclusion. Generals Chiang and Chen of Port Arthur fame, whom Li-Hung-Chang reported to the Government as having died heroic deaths facing the foe, have turned up without a scratch. A rigorous enquiry doubtless will be made.

Jay Gould's Personality Was $80,000,000

New York, Jan. 28.—Lawyer David McClure, who, in March ,1893, was appointed Appraiser by the Surrogate to fix the value of the estate of the late Jay Gould, at the time of his death, with a view to determining the amount of the tax that should be imposed upon the personal property, has made his report, by which he finds the value of the personal estate of the late millionaire to be upwards of $80,000,000.

MUST HAVE BREAD OR

Demonstration of Starving Men at St. John's.

RIOTS ARE ANTICIPATED TO-DAY.

The Captain of H.M.S. Tourmaline Asked Whether He Would Prevent the Obtaining Food by Force—The Men Will Wait Until To-Day, When If Their Demands Are Not Met There Will be Trouble.

St. John's, Nfld., Jan. 8. — A mob of several hundred of the lowest elements of the city paraded the streets carrying a flag on which was inscribed, "Work or Bread."

Thousands of the more respectable workingmen tacitly approve of the parade, though not participating in it. They advise waiting another week, so as to give the Government another chance to provide for their relief.

The mob proceeded to the British cruiser Tourmaline, now in port here, and a deputation representing them interviewed the captain and demanded bread or work and asking whether he would prevent their obtaining food by force. In reply the captain promised that he would write to Governor O'Brien and other executive authorities about their representations. He then advised them to return to-morrow, when he would be prepared to give them an answer. If work or food is not forthcoming to-morrow the consequences it is apprehended will be serious.

Gov. O'Brien last evening gave his assent to all the bills dealing with financial questions which the Colonial Legislature has just passed. The bill removing the disabilities of politicians convicted of bribery has been reserved for the British Imperial Government's assent.

On the arrival here of the steamer Sylvia from Halifax, the Bank of Montreal's officials now here received $250,000 in specie, besides paper sufficient to establish a circulation of $1,000,000. Their bank will open a branch house here on Wednesday.

ICE CAUSES FLOODS.

Various Points in the U.S. Inundated Owing to Rain and Ice.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 7.—The Ohio River is rising one foot per hour. The rain has ceased here, but reports from above show the downpour is still in progress.

At Hinton, W. Va., the New River has gone out of its banks, and the lower part of the town is submerged.

At Parkersburg the sudden rise of the Little Kanawaha upset the steamer Oneida, and completely wrecked it. No lives were lost.

Clarksburg, W. Va. Jan. 7.—At midnight the West Fork River was fifteen feet two inches above low water, and rising rapidly at the headwaters. There is much destruction of property along the line of the river above this place, and particularly at Weston, where the entire lower portion of the valley is flooded.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 8.—The Allegheny and Monongahela Rivers are rising rapidly. The indications are that much damage to property will be occasioned by the high water and heavy ice. Both rivers are full of huge cakes of ice and running like torrents. A great quantity of wreckage is noticed among the ice, indicating destruction of fences and small buildings. Rivermen expect 30 feet of water by to-morrow. On the B. and O. Railroad a huge landslide occurred this morning near Connellsville, and through traffic was temporarily suspended.

Clearfield, Pa., Jan. 8.—There is a big flood in the Susquehanna River here. The ice, which was one foot thick, broke up at noon to-day and went out without gorging. The river is rising rapidly and great damage is feared.

Cincinnati, Ohio. Jan. 8.—For the 20 hours ending at 7 a. m., the rainfall here was 347 inches. A rise of 13 feet in the Ohio River is recorded. Considerable damage has been done in Mill Creek Valley. The race track at Lockland is under water.

Bellaire, Ohio, Jan. 8.—The river is rising rapidly. The ice in the Ohio River and its tributaries broke up and ran out Sunday night. Several barges were lost. Two bridges on the Cleveland, Deloraine & Wheeling Railroad were washed away. [illegible] tinues to rise and at midnight stood 24 feet 5 inches. This is a rise of about 14 feet in the last 24 hours. The rain ceased early to-day. For the 24 hours ending at 11 o'clock the total fall was 5.37 inches. Reports are against the supposition that a flood will result, although in the lowlands considerable damage has been done. Forty feet of water is expected here, which will be a rise of about 32 feet over the stage of the river when the rains began Saturday. great damage has been done in the immediate vicinity of Cincinnati. Several bridges and levees have been carried away, but the total loss is less than $25,000. At Portsmouth a boom of 150 logs broke, and will be a total loss. At Pomeroy the Front-street merchants are moving out, and are evidently panic-stricken. The worst reports came from the Little Kanawha. The steamer Oneida, which capsized there Sunday was righted, but went to the bottom later, as did the Matamoras, lying at Newport, W.Va. The railroads are being inconvenienced in that section, but have lost no track or bridges.

Refused to Extradite Stambuloff.

Sofia, Jan. 8.—The Government newspaper, Myr, says that Roumania recently demanded the extradition of ex-Premier Stambuloff on a charge of abetting the murder of Dr. Berot years ago. Bulgaria is said to have refused the demand in view of the charge that Stambuloff planned the assassination of Beltchaff. This story is not credited. It looks like part of a conspiracy to blacken Stambuloff's reputation.

Cowhided at Pistol Point

Harmony Among [illegible]

Necessary to [illegible] The G O M Hope[illegible] Arise to Unite [illegible] Party.

London, Jan. 8.—Th[illegible] O'Connor representing the Ame[illegible] of Friendly Sons of St. Patrick, presented to Mr. Gladstone this evening an album with an illuminated address, which was prepared in March, 1894, on the occasion of Mr. Gladstone's retirement. Mr. Gladstone received Mr. O'Connor and the gentlemen with him very heartily. He looked ruddy and animated, and talked with much spirit. After inquiring into the history of the society and its list of members, Mr. Gladstone expressed his gratitude for the compliments paid him in the address.

Mr. Gladstone declared his interest in Ireland and the Irish, whose cause, he said, he should keep at heart to the end of his life. He regretted the divisions in the ranks of Ireland's leaders. The country's chances of obtaining her rights would never be as bright as they ought till all nationalists would unite. Domestic discord would mean necessarily the postponement of any realization of their claims for their one cause. Everybody in anyway able to assist in the reunion of the factions was bound to do so. Anybody promoting discord undertook a terrible responsibility, which might mean untold injury to the cause of justice to Ireland. He hoped strongly that some agency would soon be found to unite the nationalist groups. He trusted that Ireland's many and influential friends in America should move vigorously for peace in the ranks of the nationalist leaders. They should appeal to Irish members of the House of Commons to forget, for Ireland's welfare, their present differences.

Gladstone Able to Chop.

London, Jan. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone arrived in London this morning on their way to Biarritz. Herbert Gladstone says his father's health has so much improved as to enable him to resume his favorite pastime of chopping down trees.

SIX SHIPS MISSING.

No Trace of the Lost Barques Can Be Found.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Captain Tozier of the revenue cutter Grant reports to the Treasury Department that he has made a thorough search, going as far south as the Columbia River, along the Pacific Coast, from Port Townsend, without seeing any signs of wreckage or hearing any tidings from passing ships or from shore of the six missing vessels which started south from Victoria, B.C., several weeks ago. A second voyage to seaward, completed yesterday, he reports was also fruitless.

THREE CHILDREN IN EIGHT DAYS.

Wonderful Performance of a Wonderful Michigan Woman

Holland Mich., Jan. 8.—Mrs. Hiram Van Zine, who resides in the village of Drenthe, Ottawa County, and is but 32 years old, is the mother of 17 children, of which the first 14 are twins. The other three are triplets, of which two were born a week ago, and the third a week later. All are doing well.

Identified After Fifteen Months.

Battle Creek, Mich., Jan. 8.—Mrs. John Greenwood and her brother, Mark Clayton of Essex, England, have fully identified the body known as "No. 6," one of the victims of the Grand Trunk wreck here, Oct. 20, 1893, as John Greenwood, and the body was to-day shipped to Essex. The railway company has paid Mrs. Greenwood $7500 for the loss of her husband.

Freight Collision at Massillon.

Massillon, Ohio, Jan. 8.—A freight wreck took place this morning between Massillon and Orrville, on the Wheeling and Lake Erie Railroad. Brakeman Wells and Fireman Ryan were badly injured. It was a head-end collision and dozens of cars are piled up.

Admiral Loring Dead.

London, Jan. 7.—Sir William Loring, K.C.B., Admiral of the fleet, died at Ryde, Isle of Wight, on Friday, aged 82 years.

British Trade Returns

London, Jan. 7.—The Board of Trade returns for the month of December, 1894, show that during the month the imports decreased £3,680,000, and the exports increased £230,000, as compared with those for the corresponding month of the preceding year.

Personally Denied.

London, Jan. 7.—Sir William Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer, has sent a telegram from his retreat in the New Forest, saying that there is no foundation whatever for the report that he has resigned or is about to resign.

A Duel to the Death.

Berlin, Jan. 8.—Captains Burke and Rittler of the German navy fought a duel this morning. The weapons used were pistols. Captain Rittler was killed at the first shot.

The Antwerp Poisoning Case.

Antwerp, Jan. 8.—The trial of Mlle. Heri Joniau on a charge of having murdered her brother, sister and uncle, in order to get their life insurance, began this morning.

The Lexow Prosecutor Elevated.

New York, Jan. 8.—Recorder Goff took his position on the bench this morning for the first time as recorder.

Where the Blizzard Blizzes.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 8.—From 8 to 14 inches of snow fell in Minnesota Saturday night. The storm was followed by a frigid wave of great intensity. At 8 o'clock last night the temperature was from 12 to 16 degrees below zero at Minnesota points north of Cookston. At Edmonton it was 2[illegible] degrees [illegible]
