LECTURE.—Rev. A. P. McDiarmid, M. A., of Toronto will give his lecture on India, illustrated by stereoptican views, in the Baptist church Thursday, 9 h inst., at 7 30 p m. No admission is charged, but a collection will be taken.

LORNEVILLE

Special to the Watchman and Warder

MEETING.—A public meeting will be held here on Friday evening, March 10th, for the purpose of organizing a joint stock cheese and butter association. A full turn out of all interested in the scheme is urgently requested.

COBOCONK

Special to the Watchman and Warder

CONCERT.—The committee in charge of the preparations for the Orange concert, have secured Mr. Mat. Swain and Miss Evelyn McPhaden, two of the most popular singers and entertainers of the day, and their entertainment on the 10th inst. will be the best entertainment of the season.

CROSS CREEKS

Special to the Watchman and Warder

MOVING.—Mr. John Donaldson and family are again leaving us and will be greatly missed.

PURCHASED —Mr. P. McFadden, one of our smartest young men, was in town last Tuesday, when he purchased one hundred and fifty acres of north-country land, paying the "ready come-down." Who can beat that?

SAWING.—Several of our farmers are busy cutting wood with the circular saw

WHAT THE BOYS ARE SAYING.—That Pete will have a longer drive.....That Albert will have to take a rig.....That Johnny is alright in his place.....That Terry is going to Ottawa.

RANDOLPH—TINY.

Special to The Watchman and Warder

PERSONAL —Miss Lily Todd has returned from Hanstville, where she has been visiting for some time. She reports an enjoyable time.....Miss Mabel Tremeer has returned home, having completed her course in the Whitby Ladies' College.

COUNCIL —The Tiny council meeting was held at Lefaive's Corners on March 1st.

ICE.—A large number of the farmers are putting away ice for dairy and other purposes during the coming hot weather.

HEAD LAKE

Special to the Watchman and Warder

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty and interesting event took place a few weeks ago at the residence of Mr. H McKee, being the marriage of his daughter Maggie to Mr. Albert Southern The happy couple started on the following day on their wedding trip. To Mr. and Mrs. Southern we wish all happiness.

VISITING.—Miss Georgie Halladay, High Bluff, Manitoba, spent a few days visiting friends at the Lake.....Mr. R. Peel has gone on a visit to Lindsay, Janetville and other points

EYES TESTED AND HAIR CUT.—The Lake seems very fortunate in being visited by a travelling barber, experienced in the very latest style of "hair dressing", and also by an oculist. Many requiring spectacles took advantage of the opportunity of having their eyes tested.

MANILLA

Special to the Watchman and Warder

PERSONALS.—Mr. Harry Welsh of Toronto is spending a few days in town, visiting old friends.....Miss Weldon of Oakwood spent Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. Whitesmith.....Our friend Mr. William King wears a pleasant smile these days. It's a boy.....Miss B. Coone, Mr. W. Coone and Mr. D. B. Macqueen went to Toronto on Thursday last to attend the male chorus concert .....Mr A. Grills has left the Edward's farm east of the village where he has lived for many years, and has rented the Gillespie farm at Ellis' corners, Brock He is succeeded on the Edwards place by Mr. Parliament, who comes there from Beaverton.

CHIT CHAT —The sights and sounds of "ye gentle spring" come on apace, notwithstanding an occasional snow-flurry. Now is the sound of the axe and saw neard in the the land. Gigantic wood-piles face the stalwart son of toil as he murmurs, "man was made to mourn".....A meeting of the Public Library board took place last week, at which Mr. Geo Douglas was elected chairman of the board in place of Mr. Purvis, the former chairman, who has left this vicinity.....Egg producers are congratulating themselves on the good price they are receiving for hen-fruit. Eighteen cents per dozen at this time of the year is unusually high.

CAMERON

Special to the Watchman and Warder

REVIVAL MEETINGS are now being held in the Methodist church here. They are conducted by the pastor Mr. Snowden, whose addresses are very practical, earnest and instructive.

ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Mark of this place met with a very painful accident some days ago. By chance she fell down Mr. P. Perrin's cellar, and broke her leg about the ankle. She also sustained other injuries, but we are pleased to know she is now under the skilful treatment of Dr. McAlpine, and nicely recovering.

FOR THE WEST.—Miss Ella Rutherford, who has been visiting friends here, returned to Dakota last Monday. Some others are talking of going in that direction and to the Canadian Northwest.

NOTES —The Cameron cheese factory will hold their meeting next Monday, 13th inst., for the purpose of letting milk routes and transacting other business.....Mr. Jas. Naylor, who has been ill for some time, is, we are glad to say, recovering; also our worthy postmaster.

PERSONALS —Mr. James Ingram and family, who have resided here for many years, are moving away to Dunsford. We are losing estimable citizens, and we wish them abundant success in their new home.....Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Flack of Penetang, former residents here, are on a visit to friends. All were pleased to see Mr. and Mrs. Flack looking so well..... We extend congratulations to Mr. Arthur Switzer and wife. We wish them abundant happiness through life with the greatest success therewith.

OAKWOOD

Special to the Watchman and Warder

CONCERT.—The Lamb Specialty Co. concert in the town hall on Saturday night, under the auspices of the Oakwood Library, was notwithstanding bad weather, and other adverse circumstances, a decided success. The living pictures shown by the Cinegraph were very much admired. The comic songs by Messrs. Cawthra and Mullin were much appreciated. The Library management has no reason to regret having brought the company here.

LECTURE.—The lecture on Africa by Major Schoof was well patronized, but many were disappointed. The lecture was misnamed. It was supposed to be a lecture on Africa, but it was really a sketch of Major Schoof. There was very little of an elevating nature to be found in it. If he has a lecture on Africa, he did not give it here.

OUR BUTTER FACTORY.—The creamery continues to turn out a good quantity of choice butter. Over 2000 pounds were manufactured during the month of February, which met with a ready sale in Toronto at 20 cents per pound There is to be a meeting of all the patrons and shareholders at the factory on Wednesday, 15th of March, at one o'clock p. m., to discuss the question "whether butter or cheese shall be made during the summer", and to arrange the milk routes on the same plan as last year.

CARNIVAL.—The best carnival of the season will be held in the rink here on Friday evening next, March 10 h. Valuable prizes are offered. There will also be a matched race between Thorndike of Oakwood, Bennett of Sunderland and Dusty of Cannington for $5 a side. See posters for particulars.

LAXTON

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.—The council met in the town hall, Head Lake, on Wednesday, the 1st March, pursuant to adjournment, Members all present; reeve in the chair; minutes of former meeting read and adopted. Moved by Kenneth McDonald, seconded by Robt Kerr, that by-law No. 210, appointing a clerk in place of Mr. Wm. Maxwell resigned, be read a first, second and third time and passed. — Carried. Moved by James Campbell, seconded by Thomas Davey, that the reeve give his order on the treasurer in favor of the following parties:—Wm. Maxwell, balance of salary, $3; Wm. WOODVILLE

Special to the Watchman and Warder

NEW SPRING GOODS.—Messrs. Murchison & Gilchrist are showing exceptional values in black and colored dress goods, ginghams, prints, silks, etc.; beautiful goods, elegant patterns, All new, and prices away down.

OPEN MEETING.—The Christian Endeavor society of the Woodville Presbyterian church held an open meeting last Friday evening. Music was furnished by the choir, Mr. and Mrs Switzer and Miss Gunn, Mr. M. Stoddart and Mrs. Robinson, Misses Grant and Bingham and Mr. C. E. Weeks Mrs. W. A. Ross read an interesting paper on "How to be Happy." Mr. Weeks contributed a paper on "Our Duty to our Country," and the Rev Mr. Duncan delivered a most interesting address on "The Selection of Hymns." On account of the very unpleasant weather the audience was not large but those who were there enjoyed themselves immensely.

CARNIVAL.—An immense crowd was present at the carnival held here last Thursday, many coming from all the surrounding towns. For costumes prizes were awarded to the following: Ladies' costume—1 Miss Helen Campbell, "Miss Canada"; 2 Miss Barnes. "Night." Girls' costume—Miss Mabel McKee. "Angel." Gents' costume—John Campbell, "Union Jack." In the boys race S. Thorndike, Hector Ferguson and Palmer Ayers started. Shirley Thorndike won and Hector Ferguson came second.

PLEASANT EVENING.—A number of the young people braved Friday night's storm and drove over to Mr. Peter Brown's residence on the 12th line of Mariposa, where a pleasant evening was spent.

SOLD.—At the last meeting of the village council it was decided to dispose of the old gravel pit to Mr. Simon Dimond for the sum of fifteen dollars.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Woodville Presbyterian church has decided to give an entertainment in the church on Tuesday evening, March 14th. The Rev. John Neil of Toronto will deliver a lecture on "The Lakes of Killarney." Music will be provided by local talent.

DUNSFORD.

Special to the Watchman and Warder

CHURCH.—The evangelistic meetings conducted in the Methodist church by Rev. Mr. Mitchell are increasing in interest and attendance. Meetings continue this week.

LIKE OLD TIMES.—Mr. John Everson recently chopped two cords of hardwood in two hours and 45 minutes. Who'll beat it?

ELDON STATION

Special to the Watchman and Warder

PERSONAL. — Mr. D. McEachern, who is an employee of the Massey-Harris Co, Toronto, is at present visiting under the parental roof. All his friends and acquaintances are pleased to have him among them again .....Mr. R Williamson, who for the past year was a resident of Kirkfield, has again returned to the old homestead. We are glad to have him in our midst once more.

IMPROVEMENTS.—For the past few years this community has made a decided advance in appearance, but the halting place has not yet been reached. We believe and feel confident that if such rapid strides will be taken in the future as has been done in the past that our fair part of the township will rear its head above the surrounding community. We hear that at least four massive barns will be constructed the coming summer, and this itself will raise the appearance many a notch.

HYMENEAL —On March 1st Miss Catherine McEachern was united in the bonds of matrimony to Mr. Thomas Roberts, both of this place. The bride was ably assisted by Miss Mary McEachern, while Mr. Geo Roberts acted as groomsman. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. D. McDonald. We all wish them a happy and prosperous life together, with God's richest blessings.

FINGERBOARD

Special to the Watchman and Warder

COUNTRY CHAT.—A blizzard on Sunday and poor sleighing.....Mrs. Thos. Lamb of Wick is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tripp....Mrs Frise of Brighton has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Henry Moase, for the past week..... Mr. Joseph McClintock has returned to this part again after spending a few weeks with his sick sister at Kingston.....Miss Edith Frise is absent visiting friends at Oakwood and Eden.....Mr. A. Tripp returned home last Tuesday after an absence of three months with relatives in Toronto. ...Myrtle Viola Frise of Blackwater has again returned home after spending a week with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frise.....Mr. David Yerex passed through our village last week putting up bills for his sale. which is to take place on the 16th of March.....Mrs. J. Pogue started for his home in the prairie province on Monday last..... Mr. Hannah of Blackwater called here one day last week.....Mr. Alfred King is about to remove to Port Perry.....Every person around Fingerboard should take The Watchman-Warder No other paper takes the interest in your welfare it does

SICKNESS.—Mrs. Ferguson, widow of the late Malcom Ferguson, who has been seriously ill for the past few weeks, is now said to be recovering under the skilful care of Dr. McPhail of Manilla..... Mrs Thomas Tripp is also said to be improving after a severe attack of inflammation.....Mr. John Byam, who got a blow from a stick some time ago while sawing wood at his own home, is now said to be suffering from the effects. It is to be hoped that nothing serious will be the result....At the time of writing Mr. Stuart, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. McNeiven, is lying dangerously ill.....Mr. Wm. Rodgers, butcher for the west ward beef ring, is said to be laid up with a large ulcer on his neck,

PIE SOCIAL —The pie social which was held at Pleasant Point proved to be a fair success.

TEMPERANCE. — Don't forget the Temperance meeting which is to be held in Zion church on Sabbath next. A good program is being arranged for by the committee, Miss Teresa Dennis and Miss Bertie Stokes. The president, Miss Ada Snelgrove, will also give her accompanying speech.

FOOT BALL MATCH.—The most exciting contest of the season took place on Wednesday last, when the Fingerboard foot ball team drove to Braule's to play against that team, and after working hard all the afternoon, the game came to a close deciding, both sides to be equal This is the second contest, and we hope if the third comes off the little lads of Fingerboard will come out best men.

CADMUS—CARTWRIGHT

Special to the Watchman and Warder

PERSONALS —Miss Minnie Burns of Cobourg is visiting at Mr. T. W. Robertson's..... Mr. John Pollon, who for some time past has been an apprentice in the blacksmith trade in Cavanville, is home at present. John is a full-fledged smith now.. ...Mr. Walter Hooey started last Friday for Manitoba, where he intends to spend the summer.....Next Friday takes from our village Mr. W. Harris and starts him for the far West.....Mr. Will Dickie also leaves for the same place.

SICKNESS.—We regret to learn of the severe and dangerous illness of Mrs. James Lawson, sr. Cancer of stomach is the cause.....Mrs. Harris is recovering rapidly.....Mrs. Chas. Jackson was attacked by a slight illness but is now able to be out.

ACCIDENT — On Wednesday last while loading logs to team to Mr. David Fallis' mill, Mr. John Lane had the misfortune to have his leg broken just above the ankle, Dr. Archer of Port Perry was at once telephoned for, and soon the fractured limb was set. We wish him speedy recovery.

PRESENTATION.—A number of the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Pollon gathered at their home on Wednesday evening, March 1st, and presented them with a costly family bible and a handsome hymn book. The presentation was followed by short but appropriate speeches from many present. Then all were served with a grand supper, after which the young people indulged in merry games. 'Twas about cock-crow when they prepared to go and leave their best wishes with Mr. and Mrs. Pollon.

NOTES —Mr. Sam. A. Devitt sold a valuable horse last week for nearly $200. Sam is noted for his fine horses —both fast and heavy.....Many farmers are having their wood cut up by sawing machines.....Many are complaining about the roads when they have some teaming to do.....Owing to the vast amount of ice harvested this year, sawdust is at a premium. Why not import some?.....Cadmus requires a tailor shop.....A large number enjoyed themselves at a social gathering at Mr. William Brown's on Friday evening.....Another yet.....
