THE SPRING OF 1893

we commenced business in Lindsay. At that time some of the wise men of the town said, one or two years will do that fellow. We are still here, and pleased to say 1899 has been for us the most prosperous year since we started.

Thanks to the GENERAL PUBLIC for their LIBERAL SHARE OF PATRONAGE.

We look for 1900 to be even a better business year than the one about closing.

Wishing you, one and all, a very Happy and Prosperous New Year.

—Two foxes were recently shot in South Ops. Geo. Ford got one and Geo. McCabe the other. Dogs were used in the hunt.

DUNDAS & FLAVELLE BROS.

—After seeing his father unpack his stationary and document trunk the young son of a local legislator informed his mother that "Papa has a whole trunk full of politics."

—Rev. Thos. Dunlop of Midland has initiated the "hats off at church" movement. Last Sunday he requested that for the future, the ladies would remove their hats. His reason was that some of the congregation had complained of being unable to see him when he was preaching.

—Inspector Ward was in town last Friday winding up the season's cheese business. He had a few cases of infraction of the law that had not been settled. He lately secured a conviction near Bowmanville that cost the offender $46. The policy of extreme penalties will be adopted in the future.

—Moses Oat's declares the coming winter will be characteized by moderately sharp spells with large intervals of mild weather. He prognosticates this because of careful observation during the past two months. Sleighing will last not more than eighteen days all told. The longest continuous period of sleighing will not last more than a week.

—20 ladies' black Cloth Jackets, size 32, 34, 36, 38, 40. Prices were $10, $12, $15, $18; your choice of any of them for $7 50

DUNDAS & FLAVELLE BROS.

—The Fenelon Falls Gazette says.—A short time ago The Watchman-Warder mentioned a pine tree cut in Longford that made over 2,000 feet of lumber, but it was a mere sapling to one cut about a month ago by some of the men of Mr. Thomas Archer's camp in the township of McClintock, which was cut up into six logs of the usual length and contained no less than 5,161 feet of lumber, board measure. What does The Watchman-Warder think of that? We may mention that, to the best of our belief, the Longford camp is populated chiefly by tories, while all, or nearly all, the men in Mr. Archer's camp are good grits.

Little Local Lines

—If your furs need alteration or repairs consult Mullett, foot of Kent-st.—48.

—The Public Library will be open only at night, from 7 to 9, for the next couple of weeks, by order of the board

—A meeting of the Young Men's Conservative Association will be held in Blackwell's hall this (Thursday) evening. A full attendance is requested. All young conservatives are invited to attend.

—Wanted to borrow, for a few days, a copy of the first catalogue issued by the Lindsay Mechanics' Institute. Any one having same will confer favor by leaving at this office.

—Mr. Jas. Hopkins who lives north o the town fell from his strawstack on New Year's day and injured his leg. He did not think it serious till that night when it suddenly developed intense pain and is giving him a good deal of trouble.

—200 ladies' and children's winter Coats and Capes to be cleared at special prices: $15 Coats for $7.50; $10 Coats for $3.50.

DUNDAS & FLAVELLE BROS.

—Said a local merchant the other day: "Have you noticed the fine advertisement I have out on a board west of the town?" "No," replied the customer, "but if you will send the board around to my honse some day I will read it over and see what you are dealing in."

—The Huntsville Forester contains an extended account of a complimentary banquet at which Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reid of the Reid House were presented with a complimentary address and two handsome chairs. Mr. Reid is giving up the hotel but will still reside in Huntsville.

—On Tuesday evening the brick residence of Mr. Thos. Christian, Islay, was totally destroyed by fire. Considerable of the furniture was also consumed, together with a cellar full of provisions. The fire was caused by a defective chimney. There was an insurance on the building and contents but we have not learned the amount.

—As the Rev. R. E. Knowles had to cancel his appointment, the annual meeting at the Cambridge-st. Methodist church will be held on Wednesday, Jan. 24th, when Rev. Herbert Symonds, M.A., rector of St. Luke's, Ashburnham, will deliver an address; subject: "The Message of the Bible to the Twentieth Century."

—The Central Prison authorities have applied to the Minister of Justice for a pardon for young Hughes and his father. Young Hughes was seriously stabbed by another prisoner a few weeks ago. He and his father were sentenced from Lindsay to six months on a charge of vagrancy. They were not regular tramps, but were without money or any visible means of support. Hughes is recovering from his injuries.

—News of interest to Roman Catholics comes from Rome, the Pope having designated the year 1900 as the holy year. The decree permitted the celebration of midnight mass in all Catholic churches on the night of Dec. 31. This is the first time in the history of the church that any priest has been permitted to celebrate mass at the midnight beginning of the new year. The decree also grants the privilege of communication at the midnight mass. This is also without precedent.

—25 men's Cloth Overcoats at special prices: $6 Coats for $4 50; $10 Coats for $7.50; $12 Coats for $9.

DUNDAS & FLAVELLE BROS.

—The annual tea under the auspices of the Queen-st. church Sunday school was held on Friday night. A large number was present besides the children. After tea a mass meeting was held up stairs and Rev. G. W. Dewey, our former pastor, but now of Aurora, lectured on "To Business." Mr. Dewey was one of the pastors of the church who built it up in the weaker days, and a large audience heard him speak. Dr. White was chairman.

—A New Year's sleighing party had a merry time when the year was young. They made sundry calls about town and at last, toward 3 o'clock in the morning, knocked at the door of a veteran insurance man of the north ward. The hour and temperature were too much for our townsman, and clad in graveclothes and wrath he exhorted his visitors to betake themselves to that place whose climate has never, in the memory of the oldest resident, gone down to the chilly point.

—At the regular meeting of Westminster Lodge S.O.E. held on Tuesday evening last the following officers were installed for the ensuing year: Bro. R. G. Harris, D.D. G.M.; Past Pres., Bro. James Boxall; W. Pres., Fred Frampton; W. V. Pres., A. W. Stollard; Chaplain, W. J. H. Rogers; Secretary, John E. Way; Treasurer, Samuel Parsons; Surgeon, Dr. W. H. Clarke; Inner Guard, Wm. Parsons; Outer Guard, John Jackman; managing committee, Bros. James Sharpe, J. H. Geach, Rhys Williams, J. H. Rathmell, H. Chambers, Thos. Walton; auditors, Bros Harris, Geach and Williams; trustees, Bros. Boxall and Bryans.

—The skating rink has been gaily decorated with bunting, and with the fine sheet of ice is certainly an attractive spot with skaters at the present time. The Citizens' band will discourse the latest music, while the spectators can take in the show, comfortably seated on the raised seats at the west end. The first attraction of the season will be a rattling good hockey match between juniors of Cobourg and Lindsay on Friday evening of this week. At the conclusion of the game a match race will take place between Wesley Henders and Percy McDonrld for $10. A grand masquerade carnival for valuable prizes will be held in about ten days. Watch for the date.

—On Dec. 27th a farewell party was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stinson, Janetville, who are leaving the township and taking up their residence in Lindsay. A very pleasant time was spent. Before dispersing the popular couple were presented with an address expressing regret at their departure and wishing them long life and happiness in their new home. The address was signed by Robt. Fowler, Fergus Porter and Rev. A. L. Adam on behalf of the congregation of the Methodist church, with which they have been so long connected. Miss Maud Stinson, who has been organist and an active worker in connection with the church at Bethel, was also presented with a well-filled purse and an address as a slight token of the esteem in which she is held.

—Don't miss the Remnant Sale beginning on January 5th. Remnants of Carpets, Oilcloths, Dress Goods, Silks, Embroideries, Prints, Flannels, etc.

—The tenth annual ball of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen will be held in the opera house, Lindsay, on Thursday, January 25th.

—Squire McDonald's spacious residence was the scene of a pleasant society event last night. A very large number of the town's fashionable people were present at a party given by the squire in honor of the first appearance of his beautiful and accomplished granddaughter, Miss Coulter, in society.

THOMAS BEALL.

Church Notes.

—The annual covenant service will be held in the Cambridge-st. Methodist church next Sunday morning. In the evening the pastor will preach on the war in South Africa.

—Midnight mass was celebrated at St. Mary's as the new year came in. The ceremony took place in all the churches by special order of the Pope. It never occurred before and was instituted to mark this as a holy year.

—Rev. H. P. Neville of Minden, preached in the Cambridge-st. Methodist church on Sunday. His discourse in the morning was upon Moses and the burning bush. It was a clear and impressive statement of certain lessons taught by the incident. Mr. Neville is one of the most capable students and speakers among young Methodist ministers. His delivery has the simplicity and poise of the teacher.

—Rev. Mr. Macmillan had an audience on Sunday night that ought to have been and evidently was an inspiration. Nearly every other congregation in town had numerous representatives at St. Andrew's. The pastor spoke on the words "I make all things new" and developed them with regard to God's reconstructing work in nature and the spirit of man. This discourse was most appropriate to the last hours of the old year. The music was excellent.

GEORGE HUNT

Mr. Geo. Hunt of the Daly house died yesterday. Mr. Hunt came to town from Elmvale, Simcoe county, last May. Shortly after coming here he was stricken with the illness which carried him off. It was a rheumatic affection with which he made a resolute fight, but the bursting of a blood vessel had fatal results. Mr. Hunt was a member of the A.O.U.W. and received every attention from the local members of that order. The body was taken to Elmvale last night and will be buried to-day.

ELIZABETH GERTLEY.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gertley, wife of Mr. G. Gertley of Emily, died on Saturday the 30th ult. Deceased, whose maiden name was Lipsett, was born in county Donegal, Ireland, 67 years ago and came to Canada in 1840. In 1854 she was married to Mr. Gertley, and they began farming on the present homestead, lot 6, concession 14 of Emily. Mrs. Gertley was a sincere member of the Methodist church and witnessed to her faith in her last moments. Her husband and a family of two sons and three daughters survive her. Rev. Mr. Kenny conducted the funeral at Salem on Monday.

S. W. DAVIDSON

That part of Mariposa known for 50 years as the Davidson settlement, lost one of its oldest and most respected residents when Mr. S. W. Davidson died of pneumonia on Tuesday. Mr. Davidson was a son of Squire Davidson who, with his family, came from Downpatrick, Ireland, to Canada about half a century ago. The squire first located in Cavan but soon after settled in that part of Mariposa which is now taken up with the splendid homestead of his sons. The township was then covered with hardwood bush that has since nearly all disappeared before the hardy, industrious settlers of those days. Deceased leaves two brothers, Thomas and James, and one sister, Mrs. O. Bigelow of this town. These, with his widow and two sons and two daughters, mourn his loss. Mr. Davidson was a member of the Methodist church and the Reform party. The funeral takes place to-day (Thursday) at the Christian cemetery, Little Britain.

The Twentieth Century

When will the twentieth century begin? Why there should be different answers to this question is a little puzzling to know. A few fundamental facts disposed of ought easily to settle the controversy. Of course, the first century began with the year 1, and closed with the year 100. The second century, then, began with the year 101, and closed with the year 200. Now, following this method to the present time, there can be but one answer to the above question. The nineteenth century closes with the year 1900, and the year 1900 closes December 31. Immediately after midnight, therefore, of December 31, 1900, is when the twentieth century begins. In other words, it begins with the first second of the first hour of the first day of January, 1901.
