Sir John Thompson.

The Khan in The Globe.

It matters little now
What the cold world says.
Whether flattering or defaming,
Whether blame or praise.

I've stepped outside. I hear
A little feeble cry,
And, through the noise, I hear
That someone's dead—'tis I.

Lo, I am dead—and now
My little world will weep;
But all the world may call,
When I am sound asleep.

My foes were many—they
And my poor clay are quits;
I smile at foes to-day,
And laugh at hypocrites.

Throughout the noisy world,
My people all will say,
A cloud has crossed the zenith,
A man is dead to-day!

Doctors Wake up.

MEDICAL MEN INVESTIGATING THE DISCOVERY OF AN ABSOLUTE REMEDY FOR DIABETES.

TORONTO, Dec. 17—Medical men are on the alert just now when the subject of kidney disease comes up for discussion. Diabetes has always been looked upon as sure death by the profession, but lately the doctors have had their eyes opened to the possibility of a cure by Dr. E. A. Rose, of Portland, Ont. He has stated in writing that he was cured of this disease after being pronounced "in extremis" by six medical bretheren, and his cure was effected by means of Dodd's Kidney Pills. This remedy has attracted much attention from the medical profession because of its success in the cure of kidney disease, and many physicians are to-day prescribing it in affections of these organs.
