A quiet wedding at the English church parsonage was performed last Wednesday, the 19th, by Rev. Mr. Lindsay, when he united Mr. Jas. Ibbott, of Harburn, to Miss Blanche Simms, of Haliburton, in the holy bonds of matrimony. After the ceremony, which was only attended by a few friends, the bride and groom drove to Harburn and were greeted by a large number of friends and acquaintances at the home of the groom's father, where a very pleasant social was participated in until the wee small hours of the morning.

Christmas being so near, we have had quite a number of Christmas trees and entertainments in connection. The one held at Eagle Lake last Thursday was a great success as usual, principally owing to the great interest Mr. E. B. Winter takes to make them so. On Friday the Methodist church had a tree and concert under the management of Mr. McQuade, their pastor, and he was ably helped by Mrs. Mills, Miss Leith and other friends. The program given by the Sunday school children was good, exceedingly so, the drills being perfect and gone through without a hitch of any description. There were also readings by Miss Leith and Mr. Mills, and recitations by the children, but what seemed to "take the cake" was a solo and chorus by seven young ladies, entitled, "poor old maids." The young lady who took the solo sung it up-to-date and evoked great mirth. After some light refreshments and the distribution of the presents by Panta Claus, all returned to their homes thoroubhly pleased with an evening well spent.

All the lumber camps have closed down for the Christmas holidays, and the train on Friday and Saturday was heavily laden by the boys going home to see their relatives and best girls, and all with a happy faces knowing they had earned a holiday by hard work.

On the day of closing the school the scholars read the following address and presented her with a gold bracelet: Dear Teacher—The pleasant duty has been assigned me by my schoolmates of presenting you this bracelet as a token in evidence of our lasting esteem, friendship and love. We could not consent to part with you without leaving in your hands some memorial, however trifling, of deep and abiding gratitude for your unceasing efforts to benefit us. When in future days you look upon this memento, let it be a pleasant token of the deepest love and reverence of our young hearts. Signed on behalf of the school,—Daity Pearson, Dorothy Brown.

An unusually large crowd attended the Christmas tree and entertainment given by the public school children on Friday, December 21. Many came who got no farther than the doors. Despite the crowded condition of the building and the excessive heat the audience one and all were delighted with the programme. Although every part of the performance deserved commendation, the best numbers were the drills, which were done most cleverly. Both teachers were pleasantly surprised with handsome gifts from the children. Santa Claus was in the best of humor, and parents as well as children were put into excellent spirits by the jolly old man. The proceeds go to the Sick Children's Hospital and the Muskoka Home for Consumptives.

KIRKFIELD.

H. D. MacKenzie, Charlie Mitchell, and Miss Irene Mitchell, are among the students spending the holidays in town.

Mrs. Mosgrove gave a tea to several friends last Saturday, and all were enthusiastic in the praise of the hostess and her new home.

Miss Mitchell gave a birthday tea to the younger set on Saturday.

The Sunday school cantata on the twentieth was a great success. From the snowball scene to the distribution of gifts, everything went off like a charm. The "little brown elves" were most amusing, but the star of the evening was Santa Claus. Although his voice suggested that he came from the land of the heather, his costume assured us that he had arrived straight from the pole. No children were forgotten, and the Sunday school is to be congratulated on such an excellent entertainment.

Mr. Mosgrove spent last Saturday in Lindsay.

Miss Sadie MacCaughey, of Uphill, spent Sunday with Miss Jean Campbell.
