LOCAL LACONIC

See adv. re Seed Oats for sale in this issue.

Saturday evening a grand carnival will be held in the Bethany skating rink.

Most men like to see themselves in print, but women don't. They always prefer silk or satin.

March has entered in a chilly but hardly in a leonine fashion. Something lamb-like may soon be expected.

When you arrive at the railway station in Lindsay make a bee line for Higinbothan's Drug Store, where the Menthol Cough Drops are sold.

Capt. Mountany, of Toronto, will give a Magic Lantern exhibition, on Monday evening next in the S. A. Barracks, when his illustrated lecture on the "Life of Billy McLoud," will be delivered. Watch for bills.

WE MUST HAVE HELP.—We pay men and women $10 to $18 per week for easy home work. No books or peddling. Steady employment guaranteed. Send stamp for work and particulars at once. HERMANN & SEYMOUR 213 South Sixth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

On last Friday there was a spelling contest between the schools taught by Henry Fair, Alex. Evans and Mr. Hooper. It was held in the Bethel school house. We have not heard the full details, but it is said that the Orange Corners school, presided over by Mr. Hooper was far in advance of the other competitors.

The twelfth anniversary of the Omemee branch of the Salvation Army was held on Saturday, Sunday and Monday last. Major Collier, of Toronto, conducted a serious of meetings on Saturday evening and Sunday, and addressed the large gathering at the barracks on Monday evening. Ensign Maltby of Lindsay, with a number of others from Peterboro', were present making the anniversary a grand success. Capt. O'Neil and other members of the S. A. here, deserve credit for their untiring efforts to have the visitors and others enjoy themselves.

The Hockey Clubs of Millbrook intend to make their Carnival on Friday evening, the most successful of the season. See the large bills which are out announcing this grand event. Everyone is looking forward to it with the expectation of having a big treat, and we feel sure they will not be disappointed if they attend. There will be a hockey match and tug-of-war, between Keene and Millbrook; prizes will also be awarded for the best costumes, both fancy and comic and also for several races. Band in attendance. The ice will be open to all from 9 to 11. The admission to all is only 10c. At such a small admission fee for such a grand treat, the rink should be filled to doors. Be sure and attend and bring your friends.

We are pleased to see Chas. Corneil able to be out again after his recent illness.

He—I think you have such a pretty name.

She—I like yours better.

It just took Fitzimons one minute and a half to knock Maher out at Langtry, Tex., last Friday.

There has been a change of management in the Omemee House, of which further notice will be made later.

The annual sale of magazines and papers will take place on Tuesday evening next, at 8 o'clock in the Mechanics Institute.

One short blow is all that is needed to cure Catarrh when you use Dr. King's Catarrh Cure. Sold by A. Higinbothan, Lindsay.

The township council will meet on Monday, March 9th, for the purpose of appointing fence viewers, pound keepers and overseers of highways.

The offertory in Christ Church next Sunday evening will be devoted to Diocesan Missions, a cause deserving hearty sympathy and support.

A philosopher asserts that the reason why ladies' teeth decay sooner than gentlemen's is because of the friction of the tongue and the sweetness of the lips.

Notice the new legal card in our columns this week. Messrs. Kerr, Gladman, & Kerr, of Peterboro', have opened up a branch office in town. We wish them success.

An exchange tells of a tramp who got a pocketful of money by going from house to house throughout the town begging for a postage stamp "to send a letter to his sick mother." The same game has been played in Lindsay, though hardly on so extensive a scale.

Anniversary Services in connection with the E. L. of C. E were held on Sunday and Monday last. The Rev. C. W. Watch, former paster preached to two large congregations on Sunday, and on Monday evening he delivered a very interesting and profitable lecture on "Mistakes".

Monday evening last some of our girls hired a rig and drove their best fellows down to the leap year carnival at Wyebridge. For once in their lives they made the boys do just as they wanted them to. Every one enjoyed themselves immensely.—Penetanguishene Herald.

A number of the young people of the town spent a very pleasant time last evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Corneil. When the proper time arrived to part for their different homes a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the host and hostess for the very kind hospitality shown the visitors.

When the dust is on the counter and the cobwebs on the shelf, and there's seldom anybody in the store besides yourself, and your stock is getting stale, and bills enough a coming due to make a banker pale, oh, then's the time a merchant is feeling kinder blue, and is troubled with the question of the proper thing to do. But in such a situation one sure remedy applies, if you want to get the customers you have got to advertise.

The Woman's Auxilliary meeting held at Mrs. Stephenson's on Thursday last was largely attended and most encouraging. A letter was read asking that annual membership fee be sent to Diocesan Treasurer, Toronto, before March 10th. Members not present would confer a favor on Miss Johnsen, Treasurer, by handing in fees before the above date. Work meeting second Wednesday in March, at Mrs. Wm. Adams, at 2 o'clock p. m.

A week of Evangelistic Services are to be held in connection with the Methodist Church of this place, to commence next Sunday morning. The Rev. Mr. Hill is to be assisted by Rev. C. H. Coon next Sunday who is to give a song sermon. And during the week he is to be assisted by the Rev. J. J. Rea of Peterboro, and also by the Rev. W. R. Young of the same town, and others. All are most kindly invited to attend. And it is to be hoped that much good will be accomplished.

The prospects for horse breeding are exceedingly brighter than they have been for some time past. The markets have not yet had any decided advance but there is a steadily growing demand in the large horse markets of the continent. Prices are low down to what they were in the good old days, but the tendency is now decidedly upwards. But the buyers now want only good, sound animals. There is not yet any demand for inferior animals; scrubs are not saleable.

Leap year parties are all the go now apparently. A sleigh load of our young people drove out to the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Roddy on Wednesday evening of last week, where they were met by another load of Janetville young folks to spend a very enjoyable evening by playing games, singing and feasting, until the wee sma' hours had overtaken them. The evening was brought to a close by singing that old familiar chorus Should Old Acquaintance be Forgot.

If you steal a dollar or a paper of tacks you are a thief, but if you steal an estate of a million dollars you are a gentleman and a millionare. The other day two boys at Owen Sound, took a horse and cutter from a church shed and went for a drive. As a punishment for this heinous crime they were sent to the reformatory for five years each. A man and woman, who worked in a Hamilton wholesale store were the other day convicted for stealing silks and goods amounting to a large sum of money, several thousands at least. For this the man got three months, while the woman was let go on suspended sentence. Along the same line of reasoning, had they taken the entire stock, and building and all, they would have been congratulated by the magistrate for having so simply fallen heirs to a fortune.—Pickering News.

OBITUARY.

Mary Jane Fyke, beloved wife of Mr. John Rutherford, one of the most respected residents of our neighborhood, died at her late residence, 14th Con., Cavan, on Friday morning last. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. John U. Tanner on Monday afternoon and a very large number of friends followed the remains to the Presbyterian burying ground. Mrs. Rutherford will be very much missed by her large circle of friends. And the bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of the whole community.
