OMEMEE, THURSDAY, APRIL 16, 1896.

LOCAL LACONIC

Issac Richardson was in town this week on business.

Miss Janet Robinson is visiting her Port Hope friends.

Mr. Brown, of Reaboro, visited his Omemee friends this week.

Dr. F. W. Ivory, Dentist, visited Bethany yesterday, professionally.

Reeves & Sons' Artists Material—the finest quality—at R. J. Mulligan's.

Rev. Newton Hill and wife were visitors to Lindsay friends this week.

The water in Pigeon River has not been so high for years as it is at present.

Dr. Ivory, Dentist, is having big success in painless extraction of teeth by (Torpidus).

On account of the bad state of the roads last Sunday, Rev. N. Hill was unable to take his services at Lebanon.

When you are going to church, the theater or any place of the kind buy a few of Higinbothan's Menthol Cough Drops.

The Misses Mary and Theresa Best, of Reaboro, returned home on Monday, after spending a few days at Mrs. Alex. Jones.

When you arrive at the railway station in Lindsay make a bee line for Higinbothan's Drug Store, where the Menthol Cough Drops are sold.

An orange sixteen inches in circumference was taken from a tree at Pomona Cal. It is to be sent to Europe as a specimen of California fruit.

One short blow is all that is needed to cure Catarrh when you use Dr. King's Catarrh Cure. Sold by A. Higinbothan, Lindsay.

Rev. Newton Hill preaches educational sermons on the Bethel Circuit next Sunday. Rev. John M. Garbutt supplies for him on the Omemee Circuit.

R. Ruddy, of Millbrook, has a quantity of private and companys' money to lend on easy terms and low rates of interest. No commission charged. Omemee Office over Post Office; open every Monday afternoon.—16-tf

WE MUST HAVE HELP.—We pay men and women $10 to $18 per week for easy home work. No books or peddling. Steady employment guaranteed. Send stamp for work and particulars at once. HERMANN & SEYMOUR 213 South Sixth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

We received this week a notice of a marriage for publication, but the author's name is not given, we therefore cannot publish it until the name of the writer is sent in. The minister's name is also requested. Please bear in mind that the names of correspondents must be handed in with their communications.

The "Christian Guardian" says: "Rev. J. M. A. Spence has received and accepted an urgent invitation to remain for the fourth year at Manitou. During his first year he met with some opposition on account of his strong advocacy of the cause of temperance, and his enemies then said that his usefulness at Manitou was ended; it is gratifying to know that he has held the fort so well." "The Templar" congratulates the brave preacher who has dared to antagonize the liquor league of Manitoba.

The "very" funny man on the Warder staff, made a mistake in reference to the person who dropped the quarter in Fox's gum machine expecting to get a "chaw" of gum and 24c. in change. From what we can learn it was Hunter Lamb who waited for his change. Carry a few coppers with you next time, Hunter. One of the Omemee boys, who attended the Harvard Quartette Concert at Lindsay last week, stated that a young man, the image of a member of the Warder staff, was hanging around 115 Kent Street, but could not say whether it was "Hunter" or the typo who "dropped the quarter in the slot."

The Millinery Opening of T. Ivory & Sons', under the supervision of Miss Perdue, was one of the grandest ever shown by the firm, far superior to any previous year. From the number of ladies that visit this department show the appreciation of the styles and selections, which will compare with any of the city millinery. Their display of staple and fancy dry goods, hosiery, gloves, gents' furnishings, ready-made clothing, boots and shoes is really grand. The firm has also made extensive improvements in shop fixtures, having put in large case windows, finished in oak; ready-made clothing tables, and re-varnished all the fixtures, making it now one of the handsomest stores outside of the large cities. The facility and stock that this firm possess for doing business make it one of the leading firms out-side of the large departmental stores. Give them a call.

Richard Howden and Wm. Lowes were visitors in town yesterday.

Have those decayed teeth extracted and a beautiful set inserted by IVORY.

H. Morrey, of Ingersoll, was in town this week, canvassing for Morrey's Directory.

Reeves and Sons' Artists Material—the finest quality—at R. J. Mulligan's.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stubbs, of Peterboro, were last week the guests of Mr. Alex Jones.

A lump of sugar is not easier to take than Higinbotham's Little Liver Pills. A. Higinbotham, Lindsay.—19-tf

Mrs. A. Wilson, of Manilla, spent Saturday and Sunday in town visiting friends.

Ivory & Sons have now on sale a choice stock of Gent's Hats in Stiff, Fedoras and Fancy Straw.

It is well for the readers of this paper to know that the purest, freshest stock of seeds in is at Higinbotham's Drug Store, Lindsay.—19tf

You should keep before the people,
For they are apt, you know,
To forget you are in business,
If you cease to tell them so.

The Orillia Packet says there are 60 widows in Lindsay looking for husbands. They should write the 60 widowers and bachelors of Omemee, who are in need of wives.

A paper watch has been exhibited by a Dresden watchmaker. The paper is prepared in such a manner that the watch is said to be as serviceable as those in ordinary use.

Thos. Brady, grocer, and son, Bruce, of Peterboro', were visitors in town on Friday last. They gave the MIRROR a friendly call. We are pleased to learn that Mr. Brady's business is steadily increasing. He speaks in glowing terms of his head salesman, Mr. W. C. Tully, formerly of this place.

Orillia Packet: "The Rev. Newton Hill, of Omemee, must be a preacher of remarkable power. On Sunday before last he preached a sermon against the use of tobacco, and the Lindsay Watchman's correspondent affirms that some of the village storekeepers were so impressed by it that they have given up the sale of the weed.

We are pleased to notice at the annual closing exercises of Knox College that the Rev. W. M. McKay graduated and received his diploma; he also won first place in the Elecution class. We congratulate Will on his success.—Ailsa Craig Banner. Mr. McKay's numerous friends here will learn with pleasure of his success since his sojourn among us.

While boreing for gas on Pelee Island on the 9th inst. the Kingsville and Pelee Oil and Gas Co. struck oil at 800 feet. The oil spouts 35 feet into the air. The shareholders were bound to secrecy but the Standard Oil Company, who have leases on three thousand acres on the island, got wind of the event, and great rivalry is now going on for new leases. Fabulous prices are offered. Great excitement prevails. The oil is flowing steadily.

Seventy-nine years ago was the year without a summer. Frost occurred every month in the year of 1816. Ice formed an inch thick in May. Snow fell to the depth of three inches in New York and also in Massachusetts, in June. Ice formed of the thickness of a common window glass throughout New York on the 5th of July. Indian corn was so frozen that the great part was cut in August and dried for fodder and the farmers supplied themselves from the corn produced in 1815 for the seeding of the spring of 1817.

Many people are not aware that printers have a language of their own unintelligible to the uninitiated. The following "up to date" orders give an idea of the printing office lingo: "Billy, put Sir Charles Tupper on the galley and finish up that murder you commenced yesterday. Set up the ruins of Hereculem and distribute the smallpox. Lock up Laurier and slide McCarthy into the hell box and leave the pi alone until after dinner. Put the ladies' form to press and go to the devil and put him to work on Deacon Fogg's article on "Eternal Punishment." Now this is all simple enough when translated into English and not nearly so rough as the reader may imagine.

Hamilton Spectator: "Merely for hinting to his wife, in the secrecy of conjugal confidence, that one of his female patients was not in his opinion, all she should be, Dr. William Playfair, an eminent London physician, has been condemned by the courts to pay $60,000 to the aggrieved lady. The trouble was that Mrs. Playfair violated the doctor's confidence and couldn't resist the temptation to whisper the scandal abroad. After this warning, wives should not blame their husbands for neglecting to tell them all they know about folks." There is a number of people in Omemee and vicinity who seem delighted in trying to blight the lives of others, and in many cases the accused is pure while the accuser's life is one of dishonor. An example made of a few of the gossipers would doubtless have a telling effect.

Foot for foot it is Questionable if any section of the Grand Trunk cost as much as the small length of track crossing the sink hole near the Missing Link, and about four miles from Peterboro. When the new line was built hundreds of car-loads of rocks, old ties, stumps and earth were dumped into the hole, but all was swallowed not a vestige remaining to show that an attempt had been made to fill the gaping maw. Then a second train was put on and for a number of days an average of 100 loads of stuff per day went to make solid ground. Eventually the hole was filled, but railway men have not felt sure of the job, suspecting that they had to do with a bottomless quagmire. Yesterday morning it was found that the track there was covered with water to the depth of several feet, and an examination disclosed the fact that the roadbed had sunk. A construction train from Lindsay, in charge of Mr. Storer, was at work all day Yesterday at the spot, and passenger trains passed over the line via. Millbrook.

God Only Knows.

Whiter are going with hurrying feet
Forms that are passing to-night on the street?
Faces all sunny and faces all sad,
Hearts that are weary and hearts that are glad,
Eyes that are heavy with sorrow and strife,
Eyes that are gleaming with beauty and life;
Pictures of pleasure and crosses of care,
Going, all going, God only knows where.

Hands that have earnestly striven for bread,
Hands that are soiled with dishonor, instead;
Hearts that are turned to a purpose sublime.
Hearts all discordant and jangled with crime;
Souls that are pure and white as the snow,
Souls that are black as the midnight of woe;
Souls in their gladness, or drunk in despair,
Going, all going, God only knows where.

Some to the feast, where the richest red wine
And the rarest of jewels will sparkle and shine,
Some in their hunger will wander, and some
Will sleep nor awaken when morning shall come.
The robed and the ragged, the foe and the friend
All of them hurrying on to an end;
Nearing the grave with a curse or a Prayer,
Going, all going, God only knows where.

She Nearly Fainted.

A lady teacher in one of the public schools, in trying to explain the meaning of the word "slowly," illustrated it by walking across the floor. When she asked the class to tell how she walked she nearly fainted when a boy at the foot of the class shouted: Bow-legged, ma'am!

Presence of Mind.

A certain Miss X was in the habit of calling on a minister's family often, in-and sometimes the calls lengthened to visits, which were very wearisome. One day the dominie, in his study, heard Miss X,s voice, and kept long and vigorously at work. Some hours afterward, when his wife summoned him to lunch, he called down stairs, all right—and is that bore gone. Yes dear, replied the wife; but Miss X is here, and will take lunch with us! Thus she saved his life.

No Right to be Negligent.

From a recently published speech delivered by the Rev. Leander Jutten, we extract the following: "I have felt indignant when I stood at funerals of men who lived up to the full extent of their income, and wanted everything for self, must have their cigars, their clubs and other entertainments, but could not carry a dollar for insurance for the fear of sacrificing personal luxury. The family stood around the casket and wet the dead man's face with their tears of love and despair, and I have tried to speak in the kindest, tenderest manner, and magnified his virtues and nobility of character, while within my heart I was keeping down the intense feeling, which, if let loose, would have said: 'You cruel, selfish, heartless, careless, thoughtless image of man! you have lived for yourself alone, and have rounded out a life with luxuries, and now you are dead and mourned by your loving family so pitifully, whom you have left without the means to live a comfortable life, much less a luxurious one such as you enjoyed. You are a miserable, worthless fellow!"

LIVED ONE-HUNDRED YEARS.

An Uncle of Mr. D. Nugent, Millbrook, Passes Away in the 100th Year of His Age.

James Leach, aged nearly 100 years, died in Chicago on Saturday, March 31st. He was an uncle to Mr. D. Nugent of this place and was hale and hearty when Mr. Nugent last saw him during his visit to the World's Fair. He suffered no pain and death was caused by extreme old age. A peculiar fact that Mr. Leach often mentioned was that he had a double set of teeth and he boasted of never being bothered with a headache. He was born in Scotland in 1796. When but a young man he made a tour of the British Isles and later settled in Port Hope, where he married Elizabeth Nugent Dec. 24, 1835. He enlisted as a soldier in the McKinzie insurrection in 1836 and was active in Canadian politics. In 1861 Mr. Leach moved to Illinois and settled in Ogle county, where he was active in church circles. About eight years ago he moved to Chicago, where his wife died soon after their arrival. They had nine children, eight sons and one daughter.—Millbrook Reporter.

Mr. Leach is also an uncle to Mr. H. Nugent of Emily.

A bill to revise and consolidate the Act respecting the registration of births, marriages and deaths, just passed by the Ontario Legislature, is very important to parents, ministers, and undertakers and others interested. According to the new bill births, marriages and deaths must be now registered within thirty days and those neglecting to comply with the regulations of the law are liable to a fine of not less than one dollar and not more than twenty dollars. In the case of any one giving wrong information or making a false statement there is a liability to a fine of fifty dollars. In addition to this a physician found guilty of making a false statement as to the cause of death is subject to discipline by the Ontario Medical Council.

A keen razor and a clean towel for every customer and;—

If you should want an easy shave,
As good as barber ever gave,
Just call, and at my parlor find
A razor's edge to suit your mind;
I'll cut and dress your hair with taste,
To suit the contour of your face.

My room is neat my towels clean,
Scissors sharp and razors keen,
And everything I think you'll find
To suit the taste and please the mind;
And all that art and skill can do,
If you will call I'll do for you.

I'll shave you all, the young the gay,
I'll shave you all for ready pay;
Shaving I do at any time,
And for shaving I get a dime;
But do not mean a dime in trust,
For that would make a barber "bust."
