OMEMEE, THURSDAY, JULY 16, 1896.

LOCAL LACONIC

Rev. W. McKay was a visitor to town this week.

Rev. J. U. Tanner has gone on a visit to his Quebec friends.

Redmond Carey visited his Lindsay friends on Saturday last.

A thermometer given with every Daisy Churn at W. D. Stinson's.—21

Reeve Switzer and wife spent Tuesday with friends at Lindsay.

FARMERS, ATTENTION! Copp's Queen Scufflers at Stinson's, CHEAP.-21

Miss Nellie Wilson was visiting with friends in Peterboro this week.

Miss Bella Williamis is visiting her sister, Mrs. Nicholson, at Cavan.

Jas. A. Norris, of Toronto, is spending his holidays with his mother in town.

Miss Bertha Wilson, of Manilla, is in town visiting her grandmother, Mrs. A. Wilson.

Buy your lamp goods, coal oil, machine oil, brooms, mops, brushes, etc., at W. D. Stinson's.—21

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. (Rev.) Garbutt is able to be about again after a few days' illness.

"Jack" Wilson, one of the most successful farmers in the vicinity of Lindsay, was in town last Sunday visiting friends.

TEETH! TEETH!

Remember the Methodist Rainbow Garden Party on the Church and Parsonage grounds next Tuesday evening, 21st inst.

John English, son of George English of the Dominion Carriage Works, spent a few days in town this week before returning to the Queen City.

A fine life-size crayon portait in a nice frame for only $2.50, at Byers' Photo Gallery, George St., Peterboro, opposite Gough's.

"Mother, may I go out to bike?"
"Oh, yes, my pretty progeny,
But keep out of the sun and steer clear of the wind,
Or your complexion will be a mahogany."

How true is the expression that "Hell is payed with good intentions," and it might be added with "good resolutions," which required only action to have brought them to a successful fruition. It is easier to catch "time by the forelock," than to grasp his flowing robes after he has passed by.

On Sunday evening last, Rev. John M. Garbutt preacded to the Orangemen of Bethel, Magee's and Fowlers' Corners Lodges. The church was literally packed, and about one half as many people were outside. Mr. Garbutt took for his text, John 8:32; Knowledge, Truth and Freedom. This sermon could not fail to be helpful to all Orangemen, who are anxious to be a credit to the order.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS.—First impressions it is said are usually correct ones. If that be so Rev. R. J. Fallis' lines have fallen in pleasant places for the next three years. The Methodist Church in Dundalk is usually fortunate in securing first class men. Rev. Mr. Fallis comes highly recommended from his appointment, Unionville. The Markham Methodist Church (only four miles from Unionville) extended a very pressing invitation to him. The Markham brethren have one of the finest churches and one of the largest congregations in the Conference. We feel satisfied however that Mr. Fallis does not and will not regret his appointment to Dundalk. He is very much pleased with the heartiness of his reception. His [illegible] on Sabbath last were very [illegible]. We confidently anticipate a th[illegible] successful pastorate.—Dundalk [illegible]

Miss Etta Jewett was in Lindsay on Saturday visiting friends.

Stewart Chambers paid his Peterboro friends a visit this week.

Miss Mitchell, of the Queen City, is visiting her mother in town.

If you have a watch or clock out of order, bring it to Mr. Hughan next Monday at the Mirror office.

Miss Jennie Down and sister, of Bobcaygeon, were the guests at the home of Mrs. Spence in town this week.

A lump of sugar is not easier to take than Higinbotham's Little Liver Pills A. Higinbotham, Lindsay.—19-tf

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ford, of Emily, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Bryans, of Millbrook, last week.

Alfred Parkin, of the Electric Works, Millbrook, passed through Omemee last week on his way to Lindsay, where he was renewing old acquaintances.

It is well for the readers of this paper to know that the purest, freshest stock of seeds in is at Higinbotham's Drug Store, Lindsay.—19tf

Mary had a little wheel,
And she went out to ride it;
The bike it gave a balky twist,
And Mary sat beside it.

26 GEORGE GRIFFIN.

Chas. Chambers, of Toronto, is, we are sorry to learn, quite ill, and is at present stopping at the home of his parents in Emily Township.

Miss Stephenson, of the public school staff, will leave for home in Omemee this evening to spend the vacation.—Lindsay Evening Post of Friday.

Teeth, Teeth, Teeth.

Dr. Ivory will make you a beautiful set of teeth for $7.00.—26

THE MIRROR will not be published next week, as the staff intends taking a holiday. The office, will be kept open however, for the benefit of those who are desirous of paying their subscriptions to this journal.

Rev. Mr. Hill preached to the Orangemen last Sunday at Lebanon; Rev. Mr. Garbutt preached to them at Bethel; Rev. Mr. Tanner at Lakeview, and Rev. Mr. McCann in Omemee. There were large congregations on all occasions.

A RARE CHANCE.

Best sets of teeth, upper or under, regular price $12, warranted for $8 at Gross Dental Rooms, Lindsay.—21-tf

The Salvation Army intend holding a series of special meetings in Mr. Laidley's grove every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. First meeting commences on Sunday next, July 19th, 1896, March leaves barracks at 2.30.

CAPT. V. CREAMER, LIEUT. M. WESTOVER, } In charge.

The best photos in Peterboro' are made at my studio, George St. (opposite Gough's) and I can prove it. I guarantee more artistic and better finished, work than can be got elsewhere. Come in and see me anyway. Byers, Leading Photographer, Peterboro.—22

To preserve the lives of others from starvation, hunger, want or privation, is not perhaps the first law of nature, but it is, or ought to be, the second law of nature, and its fulfilment is absolutely required of every one of the age and capacity of discretion, so far as relates to others dependent upon them.

Rev. J. Ewing, of Mount Pleasant, will preach in the Presbyterian Church, Omemee, at 3 o'clock on Sunday, July 19th. This will be the first time the first time the Reverend gentleman has preached here since he resigned this charge. Many of his old friends and acquaintances will no doubt be glad to hear him again.

According to the Globe Sir Oliver Mowat ought to be in the House of Commons, but Sir Oliver will probably not agree with that opinion. A risk would be involved, first in the election, and afterwards in holding the seat, and Sir Oliver cannot afford to take any risks whatever. The Globe should be sternly reproved for its thoughtlessness.

The Colborne Express says: Burglars entered the office of the Belltville Intelligencer on Thursday night, and forcing open the cash drawer stole $1 The Intelligencer man must be very reckless to have so much money laying around. At the same time, it is a very mean thief that will rob a Printing office, as it ranks in sancity next to churches.

Emily District Orange Lodges and the Omemee Citizens' Band were acknowledged to make the best showing at the grand Orange Demonstration held at Peterboro on Monday. They had the honor to head the procession. Everyone were delighted with the music by our band under the direction of Mr. McKim. The Reaboro Band, under the direction of Prof. Sherwood, also rendered some excellent selections.

By request, a member of the firm of Hughan & Co., expert Watchmakers and Jewelers, of Lindsay, will visit Omemee next Monday and Thursday, July 20th and 24th, and each Monday thereafter. He will be prepared to do repairing and cleanidg of all kinds in his line He will also have a nice line of Watches, Jewelry, &c., which he will sell at the most reasonable prices. He will be found at the Mirror Office on the above dates.

Don't deal with the strange pedlar. He is no earthly use to a community. He gives nothing to churches or public expenses. He has nothing in common with our people. He can swindle you, and often he does. He can cheat with impunity. The home merchant has a reputation to sustain. He bears his share of the expenses of the town. When a subscription is passed he is the first to be approached.

Lebanon.

Special to the Mirror.

R. Bannon has completed his driving house.

Mr. J. J. Morgan is spending his holidays around here.

Mrs. Watson and sister spent Wednesday of last week in Peterboro.

Miss Clark is spending her holidays with her parents near Little Britain.

The farmers of this locality are busy getting in their hay, which is a very heavy crop, and the other crops are also looking remarkably well.

The Orange Lodge No. 646, marched from the hall to Lebanon Church on Sunday last. The Rev. Newton Hill preached an excellent sermon.

Struck Dead While Cursing.

Paris, Texas.—An Arkansas man named Charles Ward, who had been working near Pecan Gap, in this Ttate, was killed Saturday night in a way which leads church people here to call it an interposition by Providence.

There was a protracted meeting at Ladena, the previous night, and Ward, who is said to have been a bad man of the worst type, was in attendance. Several of his friends urged him to the mourners' bench to be prayed for, but to no purpose. He treated the invitation lightly, and after service made a wagea that it would rain in less than 24 hours.

Next evening Ward and three other farm hands were engaged in the field when the rain began to fall, and he began to rejoice, and with a volley of oaths announced that he had won his wager. Scarcely had Ward got the last oath out of his mouth before he was struck by a bolt of lightning and instantly killed.

R. Ruddy, of Millbrook, has a quantity of private and companys' money to lend on easy terms and low rates of interest. No commission charged Omemee Office over Post Office; open every Monday afternoon.—16-tf

A keen razor and a clean towel for every customer and;—

If you should want an easy shave,
As good as barber ever gave,
Just call, and at my parlor find
A razor's edge to suit your mind;
I'll cut and dress your hair with taste,
To suit the contour of your face.
My room is neat my towels clean,
Scissors sharp and razors keen,
And everything I think you'll find
To suit the taste and please the mind;
And all that art and skill can do,
If you will call I'll do for you.
I'll shave you all, the young the gay,
I'll shave you all for ready pay;
Shaving I do at any time,
And for shaving I get a dime;
But do not mean a dime in trust,
For that would make a barber "bust."

Call on me and I will guarantee satisfaction.
