THE OMEMEE MIRROR.

OMEMEE, THURSDAY, OCT. 8, 1896.

LOCAL LACONIC

Wm. Thexton, of Millbrook, was in town on business Monday.

Borrowers begin with small sums which are sure to increase.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hooper gave their Omemee friends a visit last week.

Robt. Ruddy, of Millbrook, paid Omemee a professional visit Monday.

A thermometer given with every Daisy Churn at W. D. Stinson's—21

Jas. Fowler, of Fowler's Corners, was in town a short time this week. He is hale and hearty.

Mrs. J. C. Wilson spoke at Lebanon last Sunday in behalf of the Women's Missionary Society.

Dr. Ivory and the Misses Eveline and Annie Ivory attended the Band concert at Bethany this week.

Sergt. Major and Mrs. Martin and daughter, Lottie, paid their Omemee friends a visit the past week.

A nice line of lead pencils, ink, writing pads, etc., etc., for sale at the Mirror office very cheap. Give us a call.

A large number from Omemee took in the Bethany Fair this week, of which a full report will be given in next weeks issue.

A fine life-size crayon portait in a nice frame for only $3.50, at Byers' Photo Gallery, George St., Peterboro, opposite Gough's.

An aged gentlemen, Mr. T. Kendry, father of the member for W. Peterboro met his death at Chatham by a fall from a chair recently.

Mrs. J. C. Wilson gave a very interesting address last Sunday evening in the Methodist Church, in connection with the Women's Missionary Society.

Mrs. George Wallace, and child, left for Chicago on Tuesday, where they will spend a few days visiting before returning to their home at Sherburn, Minn.

The Republicans think their candidate, McKinley is sure of election, they have such a thorough organization. 200,000,000 campaign sheets are distributed.

Gordon L. Rusk and wife returned to their home at Cleveland Ohio, on Friday, after spending a few weeks visiting at the home of Robert McElwain, Emily.

Among those who took part in the Band concert at Bethany this week were, Mrs T C Ivory, Miss Williamson, Messrs W J Lamb and G W McKim, of Omemee.

Great Britain is remarkably outdistanced by America in some respects. British railways carried over 900,000 000 passengers last year and only five of them were killed through train, smashes.

Mrs. (Rev.) Newton Hill is a delegate to the Woman's Missionary Society Convention, being held in the Cambridge St. Methodist Church, Lindsay, this week.

Dr. T. Popham McCullough, Eye, Ear, Throat and Nose Specialist, Dr. Yelland's old stand, lately occupied by Dr. Kempt, Peterboro. If you have any disease of the above parts give him a call.—34-3m

More than fifteen thousand people attended Markham and East York County Fair. His Excellency Lord Aberdeen was present, and delivered a most able address. A good programme of attractions was provided, which included a military spectacle by the Royal Canadian Dragoons.

Mr. Hill announced last Sunday evening that next Sunday morning he would preach a sermon to the children, taking as his subject, "How do we know there is any God outside of the bible."

Isaac Richardson, of Millbrook, and Robert Stuart, of Frazerville, shipped two carloads of hogs from Omemee this week, having purchased them from the farmers of Emily at a good price.

The Ladies' Bicycle Race which was postponed on account of the rain on the evening of the Emily Exhibition, will be held on Saturday evening, Oct. 17th, the weather being favorable.

The missionary discussion in connection with the E. L. of C. E. was very interesting last Friday evening in the Methodist Church. The young men and women showed a great deal of research in their preparation.

A largely attended caucus of Conservative members was held at Ottawa recently, to discuss the question of a thorough reorganization of the party. It was decided to elect an Executive Committee of twentyfive members to represent the whole Dominion.

If you really wish to help another in business, give or lend them the money, but do not on any account put your name to paper. Absolute adherence to this principle will save you thousands of dollars during the course of your business career.

The offertory in Christ Church, on Sunday evening next, will be devoted towards expenses of bale, soon to be sent by the Woman's Auxiliary to Onion Lake, where the labors of Rev. Mr. Matheson among the Indians have been greatly blest. Contributions of clothing, groceries, etc., may be sent to the President, Mrs. T. Stephenson.

Capt. Creamer who has labored faithfully in the Salvation Army here for the past four months, farwelled on Sunday evening last, and left for Barrie Tuesday, from which place she will receive her next appointment from there. Capt. Creamer, while here, made many warm friends, who will be sorry to learn of her departure from Omemee, and their best wishes go with her for her future success at the different stations to which she may be sent. Capt. Creamer wishes through the columns of the Mirror to thank the people of Omemee and Emily for their kindness to her while here. New officers will arrive for next Sunday.

The Canadian Plan.

The Sultan of Turkey may be a multimurderer, but if he were convicted by a Canadian jury the authorities here would discover his insanity in time to prevent his hanging.—Kincardine Review.

He Helped Her On.

I helped her on. You see' she stood
Expectant by her "bike," I would
Not be so impolite, and so
I steadied her and let her go
A-wheeling. Yet—ah! Who'd suppose!
There was a moment's flash of hose
And—off she went! and wheel and "mash"
Went down in one tremendous crash—
I helped her on!

The Seven Ages.

First age—Sees the earth.
Second age—Wants it.
Third age—Tries to get it.
Fourth age—Concludes to take only a large piece of it.
Fifth age—Is still more moderate in his demands.
Sixth age—Decides to be satisfied with a very small section.
Seventh age—Gets it.

Missionary Married at Picton.

Picton, Ont. Oct. 7,—A very pretty wedding, and one that will be of interest to Methodists in Canada, took place here in the First Methodist Church to-day, the contracting parties being Dr. Wm. G. Nichol of Montreal and Miss Nellie G. Hart of this place. The ceremony was performed by Rev W. F. Jolliffe, pastor of the First Methodist Church here. The parties left for New York for the honeymoon trip. Miss Hart spent five years in Japan as teacher and missionary for the Methodist Church of Canada, and was very successful in this field of labor. She only returned to Canada about eighteen months ago.

The Peterboro Road Race

The Details are Arranged for the Big Event.

Peterboro is arranging to hold a big handicap road race for wheelmen, and at a meeting it has been decided that it should be run over the Lakefield course, starting from the Market Square, town and finishing at the Nicholls Park track, where the racers will ride twice around. The outside limit men will have 15 minutes and the course will be measured off to a distance of exactly 20 miles. The limit men will leave the Market Square at three o'clock in the afternoon and riders are invited to participate from Lakefield, Omemee, Millbrook, Port Hope, Cobourg, Hastings, Campbellford, and other adjacent towns. Two hundred and fifty dollars will be hung up in prizes. There will be two time and thirty place prizes. Entry can be made with the secretary, Alf. Terrill, not later than Saturday, October 17th, and must be accompanied by the entrance fee of fifty cents.

The following officers of the course have been selected:

Judges—R Neill, J H Knapman, R. H Kells.

Clerk of the course—Geo J Horkins

Starters—A H Stratton, Alex Gibson, Herbert Walker and W Sailsbury,

Timers C LeBrun, Rufus Stevenson, W A Buchanan.

Scorers—At Lakefield. E A Tanner and Miles Henry; at Peterboro' H R H Kenner, J Jeffries and R J Fife.

Handicappers—W A Lytle, E Wasson and Alf Terrill.

Charles Laidley and Miss Ida Laidley visited friends in Bethany this week.

The Women's Missionary Society, Bay of Quinte Conference, is in convention at the Cambridge Street Methodist Church, Lindsay, this week. About two hundred delegates are present.

The best photos in Peterboro' are made at my studio, George St. (opposite Gough's) and I can prove it. I guarantee more artistic and better finished, work than can be got elsewhere Come in and see me anyway Byers, Leading Photographer, Peterboro—22

If you should want an easy shave,
As good as barber ever gave,
Just call, and at my parlor find
A razor's edge to suit your mind;
I'll cut and dress your hair with taste,
To suit the contour of your face.
My room is neat my towels clean,
Scissors sharp and razors keen,
And everything I think you'll find
To suit the taste and please the mind;
And all that art and skill can do,
If you will call I'll do for you.
I'll shave you all, the young the gay,
I'll shave you all for ready pay;
Shaving I do at any time,
And for shaving I get a dime;
But do not mean a dime in trust,
For that would make a barber "bust."
