ANNUAL MEETING OF SOUTH VICTORIA AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

The Addition of Nearly Five Acres to the Grounds Inaugurates a Big Scheme for the Further Improvement of the Fair.

The annual business meeting of the South Victoria Agricultural Society was held in the Council chamber, Lindsay, on Wednesday last, 20th inst., with a good attendance, Mr. E. H. Hopkins in the chair. The minutes of last annual meeting were read by Secretary Keith, and on motion were confirmed.

Report of the Directors.

Mr Johnston Ellis, President, read the Directors' report, which was adopted after a trifling amendment. The report was as follows:

Gentlemen, — Another year has come and gone, and now we meet again at our annual meeting.

We, your President and Directors, beg leave to report that we had last last year one of the most successful Fairs ever held under the auspices of the Society. We had splendid weather for our Central Fair, and a big crowd in attendance. We took in about $300.00 more at our gate than ever was taken at an of our Fairs before. We had to pay a very heavy prize list owing to the large showing of stock. We paid nothing on principal this year—we only paid our interest, as we are intending to enlarge our grounds, not having accommodation for all the stock in our present building. We have succeeded in inducing Mr. R. M. Beal to sell us nearly five acres, so when our new Board of Directors carries out the agreement with him we will have fine large grounds.

But, gentlemen, the projected improvements will entail an expenditure of about $8,000, and we have only on hand about $900. We hope that the Town of Lindsay, and the County Council will give us very liberal grants to assist us in fitting up our buildings and grounds in a proper manner, befitting the importance and reputation of the Lindsay Central Fair. We tender our thanks to the business men of Lindsay for their liberal subscriptions in the past, and to the members of the County Council for their annual grants, and close by hoping that your new Board may be well assisted in the work of carrying out the new improvements, in buildings and grounds.

Wishing you all a prosperous New Year.—Yours respectfully,

J. ELLIS, President. JAS. KEITH, Sec.-Treas.

Lindsay, Jan. 19th, 1904.

The New Officers.

On motion the officers for 1904 were elected as follows; President, Johnston Ellis; 1st Vice-Pres., Robt. Bryans; 2nd Vice-Pres., Wm. Channon; Directors—Edwin Mark, W. P. King, John B. Graham, E. H. Hopkins, Joseph Hickson, Wm. LeHane, John A. Williamson, W. D. Hunter and Thos. Robertson.

The Fair's Finances

Moved by John B. Graham, seconded by John A. Williamson, that the President, E. H. Hopkins, W. D. Hunter and the mover and seconder, be a committee to wait on the County and Town Councils and ask for additional grants this year, and that Robert Bryans be added to the above committee when it waits on the Town Council.—Carried.

Moved by Edwin Mark, seconded by Joseph Hickson, that the following persons comprise a committee to solicit subscriptions from the business men and citizens of the town to assist in fitting up the grounds and buildings—the President, John A. Williamson and Geo. Lytle.—Carried.

The Directors then adjourned.

BABY'S DANGER.

The fact that so-called soothing medicines put children to sleep is no sign that they are helpful. On the contrary they are dangerous and distinctly harmful—the little one has been merely drugged into temporary insensibility, the seat of the trouble has not been reached. Never give a child an opiate except under the watchful eye of a competent physician, and remember that all "soothing" medicines contain opiates. When your little one is not well, when it has any little stomach or bowel trouble, or any of the minor ailments of little ones, give it Baby's Own Tablets, and it will be safe. This medicine is sold under a guarantee that it contains no opiate or harmful drug. Ask any mother who has used this medicine and she will tell you how her little one has thrived and grown well and strong after taking the Tablets. Mr. T. B. Mitchell, the well known druggist, Oshawa, Ont., says:—"I can safely recommend Baby's Own Tablets from the splendid results they have given my customers and from having used them in our home." You can get the Tablets from any druggist, or by mail from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., at 25 cents a box.

TELEPHONE CO. INVESTORS LOSE.

History of the Michigan Tel. Co. Conveys a Lesson.

Some months ago the Michigan Telephone Company was sold under foreclosure proceedings taken by the bondholders, the sale price being $4,100,000—considerably less than the amount of the Company's bonds. The stockholders who thus saw their investment completely wiped out, though they had received no dividends for years, undertook to save something from the wreck and applied to the courts to have the sale set aside, but in a decision handed out on December 24th ult., the sale is confirmed. There are quite a number of Canadians interested financially in this matter. Detroit has had three unsuccessful opposition telephone companies. The first of these was boomed through Canada and even in Great Britain as a perfect gold mine, and a considerable amount of bonds and stock disposed of in this country on the glowing representations of professional promoters. The investors, after looking long for their interest, have lately seen their holdings wiped out. The Detroit Free Press of December 26th, ult., comments upon the situation as follows:

"There are seven ages of man, and five ages of the modern public service corporation. First, there is the corporation itself, performing its functions indifferently, and with no due regard for the public rights. Then there is the competitive stage, in which two corporations undertake to share with greater or less hostility a natural monopoly. Then comes the consolidation with the inevitable over-capitalization and the destruction of a great amount of property. After this the Company passes into the hands of a receiver and is sold for the benefit of the bondholders, the minority shareholders losing their investment. Then comes the stage of reorganization, in which the corporation undertakes to perform its functions normally, for the time being, the speculative elements having been eliminated. The Michigan Telephone Company has now passed through four stages and is in the fifth. The minority stockholders are left in the lurch.

"The people of Detroit and Michigan are tired of having their telephone service made a football for speculators. They are willing to pay a reasonable price for a reasonable service. They are desirous that the investors obtain fair returns on their money; but they have no further yearnings in the direction of being 'financed.' They have had enough of that. They would like to see the telephone business managed like any other legitimate business, and not on the ancient principle that the public is a new milch cow."

THE THREE TYPES OF MEN

INTERESTING ADDRESS IN THE ACADEMY BY MR. JOHN F. MOORE,

International Railroad Secretary of New York City.

Mr. John F. Moore, International Railroad Secretary, New York City, addressed about 100 men at the Academy of Music Sunday afternoon at 4.15 o'clock. The bitter weather no doubt kept many from venturing out. In the hall the atmosphere was decidedly chilly, and as a result the speaker was unable to arouse any enthusiasm in the overcoated audience, although his address was interesting and the style of delivery good.

After the singing of a couple of hymns, led by Mr. J. Parnell Morris, and a prayer by Rev. Mr. Wallace, of St. Andrew's, Mr. Moore opened by saying that he would address his remarks to three types of men. To the first his message would be brief; to the second, even briefer; but to those included in the third class it would be longer.

The first type is the man who is drawn to the various churches and gospel meetings occasionally by mere curiosity or the wish to obtain material for comment or criticism — the man who is an avowed enemy of Jesus Christ. Not the man who has honest doubts and is waiting patiently till the Lord reveals himself, but the man who professes skepticism as a mask to his interior rottenness — the man who hates the religion of Jesus Christ because it stands between him and the gratification of his unbridled lusts. He didn't come to Lindsay to argue with such men —casting pearls before swine is a judicious expenditure of wealth to casting arguments before men of that sort. What is there in their course to commend it even on the score of common decency? They sneer at the faith of Jesus Christ while surrounded by His memorials. There is not a hospital or institution for the alleviation of distress that did not have its birth in the gospel they deride. They sneer at the faith that enabled men and women of all ages to rise superior to pains and punishments, tribulations and trials, and even the dread of death. To the scoffer and unbeliever he would say that all his efforts against the church of Christ are in vain. Through all the ages men have sought to assail the divinity of Christ without success. Better try to efface the fortress of Gibraltar by blowing their breath against it than try to efface the immortal fortresses set up in God's gospel. Such men may contrive to pour on the church of Christ the shot and shell of unbelief, but it would be all in vain.

For the man of the second type he hadn't much respect. He is the man who is indifferent to the claims of Jesus Christ, while professing to be a christian. Go to him, speak of his soul's future, and the needs of the church, and he will tell you he hasn't time to talk about the matter—just then. The question of his eternal welfare is not important to him — he is too busy to bother with trifles. But tell him that gold has been discovered somewhere and he would find time to search for it. To this man he would say, "Riches have wings, but treasures laid up in Heaven endureth forever." No man will be indifferent to Christ on that last great day.

The third man is of the type met with frequently at church and gospel meetings—the man who says he will some day make an open and definite acceptance of Christ. These men are everywhere—the kind that accept theoretically the religion of Christ, but who postpone definite action. The speaker said he would mention four reasons why men of that type should not leave the hall without first making that declaration and accepting Jesus Christ as their personal Saviour and friend. If Andrew Carnegie had been announced to speak that afternoon on "Success in Life," the hall would probably have been filled by those anxious to hear him, yet the gist of what he would tell them was comprised in two brief sentences — "Do first things first," and "Do not put off till to-morrow what can be done to-day." Men of ambition, who wished to succeed in life, should do first things first—they should remember the divine command, "Seek ye first the kingdom of heaven, and all things shall be added unto you." The man who professes to believe, but delays from day to day and year to year the act of submission, does an unwise and an unfair thing. The great cry in these days of athletic pursuits, is "Clean sport—fair play" He (the speaker), had witnessed a hockey game in Montreal in the course of which a player had done an unfair thing, and it seemed as if the entire audience hissed the offender—they resented "dirty play," yet some men, perhaps loud champions of fair play in sports, are themselves guilty of continual unfairness towards God. The young man with the flush of youth upon his face, when asked to give his heart to God will reply, "Not yet—after a while I will do it." He may do it—when exhausted by the vices and dissipations of the world he may give the fag end of his life to his Saviour. Such a man should never call "unfair play" until he himself does the right thing.

great things. These men were doing an unsafe thing—no man can trifle with the call of God without risking his soul's future. There are men who can remember the day when they stood upon the threshold of acceptance of God's grace, but just then the enemy of souls came and whispered, they remained outside, and ever after, they found it increasingly difficult to get into the proper frame of mind. He didn't believe men should become christians merely because they have to die, but because they will live better as the result of a change of heart.

The fourth reason was that it was unkind to trifle with God. Many, if not all, of those before him no doubt laid claim to being gentlemen. What is a gentleman? A man may be a Beau Brummell in dress, or a Chesterfield in manners; he may be wealthy, and may have the bluest blood of the kingdom in his veins—and still not be a gentleman. The thing that makes the gentleman is the kind heart. Though clad in homespun the man with a kind heart is a true gentleman. This being true, the man who does an unkindly thing forfeits the title of gentleman, and the man who knows that Christ knocks at his heart, and refuses to listen to the summons, surely does an unkind thing.

In conclusion, Mr. Moore pleaded with those present for an expression of their willingness to receive the message, and a large number stood up. The meeting came to a close about 5.30.

EVERYDAY AILMENTS.

Almost Invariably the Result of Poor Blood or Weak Nerves.

If your health is impaired in any way, however slight, this article should interest you. Ask any doctor and he will tell you that most of the ailments from which men and women of the present day suffer are due to weak, watery blood, or disorders of the nerve forces. In your case the trouble may only be making a start—showing itself in a tired feeling, a derangement of the digestion, perhaps an occasional headache or a feeling of nervousness. These symptoms are too often followed by a complete breakdown of the health. In such cases there is no medicine which will bring back health and strength as quickly as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Thousand of weak and weary men and women owe their present good health and increased vitality to this medicine. These pills make new, rich red blood, and restore shattered nerves. This is the whole secret of the wonderful success of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Here is a bit of strong proof. Mrs. W. J. Clark, sr., Boston, Ont., says:—"I suffered a great deal from a complication of troubles: rheumatism, liver trouble and pains about the heart all adding to my misery. A thorough use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured me and now at the age of fifty-two all aches and pains have left me and I am enjoying the best of health." This is the verdict of all who give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. But you must get the genuine with the full name Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" on the wrapper around the box. If in doubt send direct to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and the pills will be mailed post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50.

A Case from Haliburton.

A case which has aroused much interest in the vicinity of Haliburton was decided yesterday by his Honor Judge Dean, acting as sole arbitrator upon the order of Mr. Justice Britton. George Perrin and Henry Brohm were partners in the cattle business at Haliburton during the year 1993. At the conclusion of the year Perrin claimed that a number of mistakes had been made in settling up partnership transactions, and claimed before Judge Dean that Brohm was indebted to him in about the sum of $500. His Honor found against Perrin, however, and decided that there was nothing coming to him from Brohm. Although the arbitration occupied six days and the arbitrator was entitled to charge $20 a day for his time, yet Judge Dean said that as Perrin was honestly mistaken in his contention he would not charge any arbitrator fees. L. V. O'Connor for Perrin; I. E. Weldon for Brohm.

CAPTURE OF CASHEL

Surrendered When the M. P. Threatened to Burn Him Out.

REMAINED AROUND CALGARY

Took the Chances, He Said, to Help His Brother John—Was Well Informed of the Movements of the Police and All That Went on —His Execution on Tuesday.

Calgary, Alberta, Jan. 25.—Ernest Cashel, the condemned murderer, who made such a daring escape from police barracks guard room here, was captured yesterday afternoon by the Mounted Police about six miles northeast of Calgary. He is now in the guardroom and will be hanged on Tuesday. Cashel gave the police a chase for forty-five days, and during that time has not been more than six miles away from the city at any one time and during a portion of the time he was in the city. The police learned of his supposed whereabouts two weeks ago, and have been quietly keeping watch until yesterday when his capture was effected without great trouble.

Cashel was game to the last, and did not give up without a struggle. Constable Biggs found his man concealed in one corner of the cellar of Pitman's house. He held a light to the corner, whereupon Cashel fired a revolver, the bullet grazing the constable's head. Another shot also failed, and Biggs retired from the cellar, as he was unarmed. Procuring a revolver, Biggs returned to the cellar, but was met on the dark stairs by Cashel, and further shots exchanged, only one taking effect, as it lodged in Cashel's heel.

Decide to Burn Him Out.

The murderer retreated to the cellar corner and the police retired outside, when it was decided to burn the building. Cashel called out he would kill himself and merely wanted to leave a letter for his mother. He fired several shots, but the police would stand no bluffing and warned him out of the building. Cashel finally emerged with his hands in the air, and was soon placed under arrest, and is now lodged in his old cell at the police barracks. He said he had complete knowledge of everything that was happening, and did not want to leave the country until his brother was released.

Cashel murdered Rufus Holt. His escape from the jail at Calgary, Dec. 10, the day before he was to have been executed, was a most daring escapade. With two revolvers smuggled in to him by his brother, or by the girl with whom he was in love, he held up the three officers while still handcuffed. The men were driven into the cell in which the prisoner had been confined, and forced to throw to him the key to the manacles. He had been permitted to leave his cell for exercise.

A reprieve had just been refused, but before the date of the execution the hanging had been postponed until Jan. 26. Without this postponement, Cashel would have been dead in law, after the date of his proposed execution, and could not have been further molested if captured.

Mrs. Bechtel Found Not Guilty.

Allentown, Pa., Jan. 25.—Mrs. Catherine Bechtel, the aged mother of Mabel Bechtel, who was found murdered last October, was Saturday acquitted of the charge of being an accessory to the murder after the fact.

Charged With Fraud.

Victoria, B.C., Jan. 25.—J. G. Hutchinson and George Howell of the British Columbia Supply Company, a grocery concern, which recently assigned, were arrested last night by the creditors on charges of fraud.

John Cashel Guilty.

Calgary, Man., Jan. 23.—John Cashel was convicted yesterday on a charge of assisting his brother to escape from the police barracks, and will be sentenced on Monday morning.

Against Peter's Power.

Vienna, Jan. 25.—Belgrade advices report that Servians and Montenegrians living abroad are engaged in a vigorous agitation against the Karageorgevitch dynasty, and have even planned a conspiracy against King Peter.

Women Forced Into Boats.

Victoria, B.C., Jan. 25.—John Davis, a passenger of the Clallam, gave evidence at the coroner's inquest on Saturday that many women wished to remain by the Clallam and protested against being put in the boats, but were forced to go. The captain had told passengers who went to him when the tug Holyoke came and requested to be put on board, that he would put them on the tug as soon as there was danger. He told them the steamer would live for three hours, but she only lived twenty minutes.

North Bruce Is Stormbound.

Tara, Jan. 25.—On account of the storm, no trains passed since Thursday to Sunday, and no mails or daily papers received since Wednesday. A few daily papers were brought in by stage Sunday night from Owen Sound and brought Klondike prices. The Conservative convention advertised to be held on Tuesday, the 26th inst., has been cancelled. It has been the worst blockade experienced for years in North Bruce, and teaming lumber business in general is at a standstill.

C.P.R. Liable to Chinese Government.

Victoria, B.C., Jan. 25.—A decision has been given in favor of the Chinese Government against the C. P.R. steamer Empress of India on account of the collision with the Chinese man-of-war Huang Tai in August last, when the Chinese commander and a number of his crew were drowned. The Empress being the overtaking steamer, was held blameable, and the assessors will assess the damage due the Chinese Government.
