CAR LICENSE SALE BEGINS NOVEMBER 1

The new 1936 black and white automobile license plates are going to be on sale at Queen's Park after Nov. 1, officials stated yesterday.

Purchasers of new cars, the officials expect, will be the first to take advantage of the early issue of the 1936 licenses. These purchasers will be able to procure the 1936 licenses after Nov. 1, and the plates will probably appear on the streets shortly afterward.

Electors of Grey-Bruce:

For fourteen years I have represented the constituency of South-East-Grey in the House of Commons. During that time I have sought earnestly to serve my constituency and the interests of the rank and file of Canadians. The party game with Power as the goal has never interested me. I want, rather, to aid in securing comfortable living conditions for the producers and workers who create the wealth of this country.

I am particularly interested in Agricultural and Labor problems and possibly at the moment especially in the money question, since I believe, that a privately controlled and scarce money policy is a root cause of our difficulty. So indeed is the striving after self contained units on the part of most countries of the world.

I have consistently worked for peace and against war and now stand against participation in the European or African wars, unless, and until a vote of all people twenty-one years of age and over should decide otherwise. In which case I urge that all Canadians should receive the same pay as the private in the trenches.

The mercantile class in a constituency such as this has also been having difficult times. They have been crushed between. the monopolistic corporation from which they buy and the giant distributive agencies, their competitors, which largely determine their selling price. As important as either of these is the lack of purchasing power on the part of the farm and labor population. Professional people have also felt the lack of buoyancy in Agricultural and Labor circles.

The business of government is changing and after having given special privileges to the Big Fellow for more than a generation the government finds it must now prevent the small man (farmer, labor, merchant, small manufacturer) from being gobbled up entirely by the financial, industrial and distributive monsters of to-day.

I do not claim never to have made errors but I do claim never to have made them intentionally. I have always put the interests of my constituents before my own and should I be elected on the fourteenth of October as member for Grey-Bruce I will continue to serve the new constituency as I did the old.

Your very sincerely

The Liberal Policy

To regard unemployment as Canada's most urgent problem, to deal with unemployment as a national, and through the agency of a representative national commission to co-operate with the provinces and municipalities in the administration of unemployment relief and in an endeavor to provide work for the unemployed, To the enactment of a constitutionally valid system of unemployment insurance and as rapidly as the financial position of the country warrants. its expansion into a general scheme of social insurance, including health insurance as well as old age pensions;

To policies which will liberate and expand our external trade, upon which depends industrial and commercial recovery;

To the liberation of internal trade, by ending artificial price control and price fixing, which restricts and hampers trade internally;

To the development of primary industries, by reduction in the costs of instruments of production;

To the restoration of control by the State over currency and credit, through the reconstruction of the Bank of Canada.

To the establishment of an investment control board;

To the maintenance of the integrity of the Canadian National Railways;

To the democratization of industry. through policies which will seek to give to the workers and consumers a large share in the government of industry;

To the restoration of responsible government;

To the re-assertion of personal liberty and the right of free speech and free association.

To measures of electoral reform, to ensure a true parliamentary representation of the people, and to reduce the cost of election campaigns;

To a balanced budget;

To retrenchment of public expenditures;

To reduction of the principal and interest on the public debt;

To an inquiry into federal, provincial and municipal costs of government;

To a furtherance of international peace and the work of the League of Nations;

And to a more equitable distribution of wealth, which will have regard to human needs, to the furtherance of social justice, and the promotion of the common good.
