A Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all!

Do you see the boy and pig? Yes, but why does the boy and pig run so fast? The pig runs--not the boy. Yes, but why do they go so fast? Oh, the boy is in a hurry to have his picture taken at BULMER'S Photograph Gallery, Flesherton.

On Monday our popular banker, Mr. A. MacPherson, received a telegram from Forest announcing the death of one of his uncles. He accordingly took the first train for that place in order to attend the funeral, but will probably return home to-day or to-morrow. In the meantime Mr. E. G. Lucas of Dundalk will fill his position in this branch of Mr. Wm. Lucas & Co's banking office.

Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer imparts a fine gloss and freshness to the hair, and is highly recommended by physicians, clergymen, and scientists, as a preparation accomplishing wonderful results. It is a certain remedy for removing dandruff, making the scalp white and clean, and restoring gray hair to its youthful color.

INISTIOGE.—The Sabbath School tea-meeting held in the C. M. Church, Inistiog, on Friday evening last was a success. The eatables were excellent, and the musical and literary part of the programme was first-class. The music by Mr. George Higinbotham on the violin. accompanied by Miss Higinbotham on the organ was well received. Able addresses were delivered by Revs. Shaw and Snowdon. Miss L. Armstrong of Flesherton, recited "Poor Little Joe" with powerful effect. The recitations, dialogues, and readings by the school were well rendered. A most enjoyable evening was spent by the large crowd present. The proceeds were very satisfactory.

We do not sound a needless alarm when we tell you that the taint of scrofula is in your blood. Inherited or acquired, it is there, and Ayer's Sarsaparilla alone will effectually eradicate it.

HOW TO STOP A PAPER.—"You have an undoubted right to stop a newspaper when you feel disposed, upon the payment of all arrearages. Do not hesitate to do so on account of "tenderness" for the editor. Don't you suppose he would stop buying sugar of you, or meat, clothing, or dry-good, etc., if he thought he was not getting his money's worth, and why should you not exercise the same privilege with him? And when you discontinue a paper, do so manfully. Don't be so spiteful as to throw it back to the postmaster with a contemptuous "I don't want any longer!" and have "Refused" written on the margin, and have the paper returned to the editor. No gentleman ever stopped it in that way, no matter if his head is covered with grey hairs that should be honorable. If you do not longer wish to receive a newspaper, write a note to the editor like a man, saying so—and be sure that arrearages are paid. This is the way to stop a newspaper."

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg' Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box by Richardsons, Orange Soiree.

The Orange Soiree held in the Town Hall, Flesherton, on Friday evening last, under the auspices of Flesherton L.O.L., was a decided success. There was a large attendance, and the programme—including the edibles, of course—was all that any one could have desired. After the feasting came the intellectual part of the programme. Mr. James Brodie, District Master, was called to the chair, and filled the position ably. Revs. McGregor and Wilson and Dr. Christoe gave addresses which were listened to with much attention by the audience. Messrs. Walter Wood, Frank McDowell, the Parks Bros., and the Mirses McDowell and Campbell, contributed the musical part of the programme; while Mr. J. H. Carson and Miss Mary Brodie ably sustained the recitative part. The music by the Parks Bros. was particularly admired. They were accompanied on the organ by Mr. Frank McDowell. Mr. Wood's song "I'll make you Prove it in The Morning," excited much mirth, and fairly brought down the house, so to speak. Mr. Frank McDowell sang "The Minute Gun at Sea" with good effect. Miss Mary Brodie bids fair to be an excellent reciter at no distant date.—Mr. J. H. Carson recited "Ivan, the Czar" in good style. The Parks Bros., Mr. Walter Wood, and Mr. Frank McDowell were heartily encored several times during the evening. The programme was ably sustained throughout, and the chairman took occasion to congratulate the committee of management on the able mannor in which they had managed the affair throughout.

The proceeds amounted to the handsome sum of $60, which will be used to purchase a banner for the Lodge.

Blood Relations.

Presentation and Address.

On the evening of the 26th ult., the teachers and scholars of Salem Sabbath School took possession of the residence of Mr. Robert Hawkins, assistant superintendent of the school, much to the surprise of that worthy gentleman. After partaking of an excellent repast, Mr. Henry Meldrum, superintendent, on behalf of the school, presented Mr. Hawkins with a handsome pocket Bible, accompanied by the following

ADDRESS:

To Mr. Robert Hawkins, Assistant Superintendent Salem Sabbath School.

DEAR SIR,—We the teachers and pupils of Salem Sabbath School, have much pleasure in presenting you with this Pocket Bible as a mark of our respect for you, and humbly hope you may be long spared to fill the position of assistant Superintendent of our school. Wishing you the richest blessings for time and for eternity, we remain,

Yours faithfully

(for the School) GEO. MELDRUM.

Mr. Hawkins replied in fitting terms.

[In connection with the above we might also mention the fact that several of the Teachers have been the recipients of handsome presents from the worthy Superintendent, Mr. H. Meldrum, himself—contributed from his own private funds.—ED.]
