SILVER JUBILEE

Of The Western Fair, London

This great Live Stock and Agricultural Show is, perhaps, the most successful of any in Canada to-day. The increase in the number of exhibits has been simply marvelous. Each year the directors are called upon to extend the buildings to accommodate the additional demand for space.

There has been 79 box stalls added for the horses this year. The carriage building has been increased by over 5,000 square feet. The main building, having been too small for some years past, is to have a much needed extension to the south, of 50 x 60 feet, which will be used as an "art annex," being specially prepared and arranged for the display of oil paintings and decorative art. This will enable the management to rearrange the spaces in the main building proper, to accommodate the demand of the manufacturers and inventors The original intention was to increase the machinery hall also, but the directors find it impossible to accomplish this, and have laid it over for next year. They feel satisfied that when this is done the Western Fair will be equipped equal to, if not better, than any other association on the continent for exhibition purposes. The half-mile speeding track is acknowledged to be the best in Canada (and now holds the Canadian record,) and the necessary conveniences for exhibitors and the public generally cannot be surpassed.

Several important additions have been made in the live stock classes, and a number of handsome specials offered by Breeders' associations.

London the home of the "Western Fair," being situated in the heart of an Agricultural and stock raising district, has always been favored by a large attendance of the yoemen of Ontario, as well as their friends from far and near. This year, owing to the present agricultural prospects, it is expected to be a record breaker and a decided financial success.

The prize list to hand proclaims this to be their Silver Jubilee. It is thirty years since the first Western Fair was held, but on five occasions the Provincial Association demanded the right to hold their show in London, so this is actually the twenty fifth consecutive exhibition of the Western Fair Association. The dates are September 8th to 17th, and a general invitation is extended to all.

The Secretary has been notified by the railway companies that exhibitors must have a certificate from him to get the advantages of the special return freight rates allowed, and at the time of reshipping later would not be of any use. Exhibitors will therefore require to bear this in mind.

The special features will be advertised in this paper later, but it goes without saying they will be good.

Eugenia.

From our own Correspondent.

Rev. Mr. Plunkett preached a special sermon to Orangemen in the Methodist church on Sunday evening last. The church was not able to accommodate the large number who came out. It was a most excellent discourse and was adapted to all present as well as to Orangemen.

Mr. Rogers of Toronto preached in the Presbyterian church to a large congregation on Sunday afternoon. He is still a welcome visitor to the people of Eugenia.

A large number of our Toronto people came up to spend the Twelfth, viz., Miss Minnie Carr, Miss Mary Purvis, W. J. Latimer, R. Purvis, W. Williams, and J. Bowerman.

There was a severe frost on Sunday night and ice formed in some places. Serious injury has been done to potatoes and other green crops in this vicinity

The ever glorious Twelfth was celebrated at Eugenia with great enthusiasm. The town was handsomely decorated with beautiful arches and great pains was taken by the bretheren here to make the day as pleasant as possible to the various lodges that came to commemmorate the memory of William of Orange.

War Items

The Spanish Philipine fleet is returning to Spain.

Admiral Cervera and 800 other prisoners of the destroyed Spanish fleet have been brought to Portsmouth, N.H., on the cruiser St. Louis.

A despatch from Madrid says it is the government's intention to sue for peace just as soon as the war situation, according to Spanish ideas, will permit it.

President McKinley last week signed the papers declaring the annexation of the Hawaiian islands to the United States.

An action recently brought in the division court at Toronto by a farmer against a grain dealer has been attracting a great deal of attention. The farmer, it seems, brought a load of wheat to market. The grain dealer opened a bag, examined the contents and offered $1.01 per bushel, which the farmer accepted. After the grain had been delivered the buyer refused to pay the price agreed upon, claiming that part of the load was inferior to the bag examined. The farmer thereupon brought an action for the price of the load. The buyer's defense was that the sale had been made by sample and there was an implied warranty that the contents of all the other bags were equal to the one inspected. The farmer claimed that the sale was in bulk; that the purchaser had the opportunity to inspect all the bags and that as the buyer had not exercised his right of inspection he could not afterwards complain. The decision of the judge is most important He gave judgement for the farmer, holding that the sale was by bulk and not by sample.

The pretty little town of Mount Forest is reported to be enjoying a romance worthy of the pen of a Hawthorne. Seventeen years ago Andrew Crabtree, a well-to-do cattle dealer, left Toronto for England with a consignment of live stock. The arrival of the vessel was recorded, but that was all. Andrew Crabtree himself unaccountably dropped completely out of sight, like a pebble cast into the middle of lake Ontario, and for 17 years was not heard of. Mrs. Crabtree, giving her husband up for dead, removed to Mt. Forest with her son, now a boy of 18, and engaged in dressmaking. Her father died not long ago and left her a large estate, but she never married again. On Sunday last there walked into the Tremont Hotel, Toronto, a big, well dressed, ruddy-faced man, with grey beard, who registered as Andrew Crabtree. From friends he ascertained his wife's whereabouts in Mt. Forest, and going tremblingly to the telephone he asked if she would receive him. "It depends upon how you look," came the answer, The traveller at once set off for the town. He has not returned empty handed from abroad and owns a row of buildings on Strachan Avenue.—World.

CATARRH SUBJECTS

This dread malady lurks behind the most incipient head colds, and when the seeds of disease are sown steals away the beauty bloom and makes life pleasures a drudgery.

DR. AGNEW'S CATARRHAL POWDER will sure the incipient cold and the most stubborn and chronic Catarrh cases. It puts back the beauty pink and sheds sunshine in its trail.

"My wife and I were both troubled with distressing Catarrh, but we have enjoyed freedom from its distresses since the first application of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder—it acts instantaneously—gives grateful relief in 10 minutes, and we believe there is no case too deeply seated to baffle it in a cure."—Rev. D. Borhnor, Buffalo, N.Y.—32
