This & That.

The Editor was Startled.

One of our townsmen stepped quickly into this office on Friday and glancing up from his work the editor was startled to see him pulling off his under-coat. A feeling of sympathy at once took possession of the editor's heart as he thought of the man's family and how they would manage to get along until the husband and father had recovered from his injuries, &c., &c. When the man got his coat off he turn'd it inside out and expos'd to the editor's view a badly ripped lining which the wearer had just stepped in to pin up before going down street. That was all and nothing more. –[Mt. Forest Advocate.

HOPE IN HOPEVILLE.—Mrs. McArther, of Hopeville, declares she could not keep house without Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. It is a remedy in which the sufferer may safely hope for speedy relief and effectual cure for Coughs, Hoarseness, Bronchial, Throat and lung troubles which neglected end in hopeles consumption.

Smith on "Waisting."

The following is an exact quotation from an article in the Orangeville "Gazette" of last week, but the Italics are ours:—"It is astonishing the amount of legal knowledge that is being WAISTED in Orangeville." This is refreshing. When the girls get through waisting the legal knowledge of Orangeville, or the pastime becomes monotonous to them, we extend them a cordial invitation to come to Shelburn. We have knowledge of various kinds that ought to be looked after and waisted before it spoils.—[Shelburne Economist.

A Great Discovery.

Mr. Wm. Thomas. of Newton Ia., says "My wife has been seriously affected with a cough for twenty-five years, and this spring more severely than ever before She had used many remedies without relief any being urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery, did so, with most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved her very much, and the second bottle has absolutely cured her. She has not had so good health for thirty years."

His Golden Wedding.

Mr. Simon O'Brien, of Eramosa, father of Mr. John O'Brien, of this town, celebrated his golden wedding on Monday evening. There was a large number of people present conspicuous amongwhom were the old setl'rs in the neighborhood, who have known Mr. and Mr. O'Brien since their first residence in Eramosa over forty years ago. Not least conspicuous in the merry gathering was a group of two sons and two daughters with their children. The presents to the aged couple were numerous and valuable. Mr. O'Brien is now 74 years of age, and Mrs. O'Brien 72 years. They came from Ireland to Hamilton where they settled for a while. The present site of the city of Hamilton at that time, with the exception of a clearance here and there, was a bush, and Mr. O'Brien on coming to the country was first employed chopping down the giants of the forest where the present flourishing city now stands. The aged couple are hale and hearty, and the large gathering on dispersing wished them many more years of joy and happiness.—Confederate.

A Ridiculous Rumor.

An absurd rumor, was prevalent in town last week, that Mr. Ketchum of the "Post," had skipped out to avoid the consequences of a libel suit. We are glad to be able to emphatically contradict the canard. Ketchum has the sympathy of every newspaper man and better than that will win the case. The circumstances were briefly these. A contract was accepted from the medicine firm—they agreed to pay quarterly—the account was rendered several times, without any response, and the "Post" published them, as dead beats. Ketchum's idea is that if they can make $5000 out of the "Post"—it would be more than he can. At anyrate he'll stand the suit, if it is pushed, which is extremely doubtful. We know quite a few dead beats, and they all deserve exposing.—Durham Chronicle.

what To Do.

If troubled with an unhealthy, slow-healing sore use McGregor & Parkes' Carbolic Cerate. You will find it invaluable, for healing, cleansing and completely removing your trouble. If the Blood is out of order, take with it a few doses of McGregor's Speedy Cure from Richardson's Drug Store.

Civil Service "Pets."

From the Montreal "Post."

SOME of our servants in the Civil Servise are very fortunate, especially in regard to the superannuation fund. A parliamentary return gives the amount that has been paid into this fund during his offiicial career by each person superannuated last year. Among the most remarkable instances of those who paid in little or nothing during their time of service, and who draw thousands a year out of treasury for doing nothing, are the following:—Hon. Joseph Pope, of Prince Edward Island Savings Bank, who paid into the fund altogether $35, has retired with over $1,200 a year. Mr. E. C. Barber, late of the Finance Department, retires at $1,275 a year after paying $474 into the superannuation fund, Messrs. Hunter and Hector, of the same department, fare equally well. Mr. Harper, of the Public Works Department, receives $1,300 a year after paying $499. Mr. Whitcher receives over $1,800 a year, while the whole amount to his credit in the superannuation fund is only $697. These are only a few of the more glaring illustrations of the prodigal munificence of the Dominion towards its civil service pets.

GREAT EXCITEMENT.—There is always excitement in case of sudden accident and injury. Every one should be prepared for an emergency. Hagyard's Yellow Oil is a reliable friend in need; it is for internal and external use, curing Burns, Scalds, Bruises, Lameness, Croup, Sore Throat, Rheumatism, and painful affections and wounds.

Insulting the Irish.

An Ottawa dispatch says that the St. Patrick's Society at the Capital, which had secured the services of the Hon. Edward Blake for a lecture in the Opera House on the 17th of March next, applied to Mr. W. Sothern, the actor, who had the Opera House engaged for the same night, to cancel his date. Mr. Southern replied that he would do so for the sum of $250. That was his right: but the actor, it is said, went out of his way to insult the Society in particular and the Irish people in general. In his reply he said "he did not think the small Irish population at Ottawa would materially interfere with him and that if St. Patrick wished to enjoy himself on that night he could not do it at his (Southern's) expense." If this be a true account of the insult offered to the St. Patrick's Society of Ottawa by haughty Mr. Southern, he should not be surprised to find out that the Irish population "can materially interfere with him." If Mr. Southern would only instruct his advance agent to publish a copy of his reply to St. Patrick's Society in the journals of the towns that he will visit, we have not the slightest doubt but that it would ensure for him very warm receptions.—"Montreal Post."

AYER'S Hair Vigor

restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the VIGOR is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

MR. C. P. BRICHER writes from Kirby, O., July 3, 1882: "Last fall my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

J. W. BOWEN, proprietor of the McArthur (Ohio) Enquirer, says: "AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The VIGOR is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give entire satisfaction."

MR. ANGUS FAIRBAIRN, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairn Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1880: "Ever since my hair began to give silvery evidence of the change which fleeting time procureth, I have used AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, orators, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

MRS. O. A. PRESCOTT, writing from 18 Elm St., Charlestown, Mass., April 14, 1882, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly used but one bottle of the VIGOR, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."

We have hundreds of similar testimonials to the efficacy of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. It needs but a trial to convince the most skeptical of its value.
