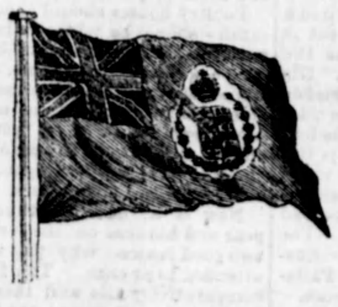
Heard's Improv'd HARROWS.

Artemesia, June 16th, 1883.

MR. JOHN H. HEARD.

Dear Sir,—I take pleasure in testifying that the set of ten-bulled Harrows I purchased from you last April has given me entire satisfaction. It being given to me on trial, I closely watched its operations when at work to find a fault with it, but I failed to see any. It is no heavier on my team than my six-bull wooden harrow. I am yours truly, JOHN WHITBY.



This is not the "Red Flag" you have read so much about; this is a good, honest price, good quality, & square dealing Flag, carried by Mr. Thos. Duncan, Tailor, Flesherton.

This & That.

Poor Harrigan.

OTTAWA, March 10.—A young man named T. Harrigan, a brakeman on the Canadian Pacific railway, met a fearful death to-day by being run over by a train while in the act of leaping of to it at the union depot here. He belongs to Pembroke, but he was going to Prescott to see his wife where she was visiting some friends. Harrigan has only been married a few months.

An Indian Mail Thief.

BARRIE, March 10.—John Waniboosh, an Indain mail courier, employed in conveying the mail between Parry Sound and Little Current, along the north shores of Georgian bay and Lake Huron, was recently arrested by direction of Mr. Sweetman, postoffice Inspector. of Toronto for tampering with the mail, and was placed in Barrie jail. Waniboosh was tried to-day before Judge Ardagh. He pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to five years imprisonment at hard labor in the Kingston penitentiary.

DANGER TRAPS.—Neglected colds are the fatel traps that en snare meny a victim beyond possibiliity of rescue. Take a cold or cough in time and it is easly conquered by that safe ann plesent vegetable remedy Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. Asthma, Bronchitis and pulmontary complaints generally soon yield to is healing influence.

The Sap Season.

From the Toronto World.

The Khan, who some weeks ago predicted three weeks of excellent sleighing in March and the greatest storm of the season before the 1st of April, ventures more predictions. This will be a great sap season, and more maple syrup and sugar will be made than for years past. Yesterday for instance the sap would have run quite freely, and trees tapped now would in favorable localities keep on running till the first hot dry weather in April. A good sap season is the invariable forerunner of a bountiful harvest. The Khan will stake his reputation on this prediction: That the fall wheat will come out better this spring than it has done for the past twenty years; that the crop of fruit will make up for the failure for the past five years, and that the yield of apples especially and peaches will be extraordinary.

CRUSHED BY THE CARS.—A little son of John Spinks, Toronto, had his foot crushed by a G. T. R. Express train some time ago. Two doctors attended him without benefit, and amputation was proposed, but Hagyard's Yellow Oil was tried, which gave prompt relief aed affected a speedy cure, even removing all stiffness of the joint.

Tax Exemptions.

From the Parkdale News.

THE REV. DR. WILD endorses our views with regard to clergymen and tax exemptions. In reply to a question on the subject, submitted Sunday evening last, the doctor gave it as his opinion that "neither ministers nor churches have a right to claim exemption, and a minister has no right to vote who does not pay taxes. The preachers were treated as if they were too weak to get along and make a living, and needed to be helped. He wished the Legislature would sweep them all into line, and so remove an injustice to the taxpayer and the workingman." In connection with the above, it may be remarked that there are a few who do not agree with the doctor's theory—among the rest the Parkdale Council.

FOR ALL AGES.—The aged, debilitated and infirm will find renewed vigor and strength by taking Burdock Blood Bitters. The young hastening to early decay will also find in this revitalizing tonic a remedy worth trying.

The Country Woods.

From the Toronto World.

Tho' cribbed, cabined and confined in the dull Sunday city yesterday, yet the Khan could fancy what the fields and woods looked like out in the country under the fresh fallen snow. The lordly pines and cedars hooded and cloaked in dazzling white, but showing here and there the rich green tunics below. Overhead the garrulous blue jay, the industrious chichadeedee, or the philosophical crow flitted here and there For as March grows older the blue jay grows more and more garrulous, and the crow puts on insolent airs. Every day across the treetops flocks of dusky birds can be seen making short trips to the north, waiting with wonderful patience till the first thaw will uncover the proverbial dead horse. This is the month when squirrel tracks, fox tracks and rabitt tracks are thick in the snowy woods, and when the juvenile trapper has an open eye for musk rats and mink at the mill pond. It is mornings like these that the farmer's boy rushes out to say that old Spot has a new calf, or bears a shivering lamb in to be warmed in a blanket by the kitchen fire. On the sunny side of a log the bronze ants can be seen straddling about in an ill-humored kind of a way—in short, all nature points to the coming of gentle spring.

The C. P. R.

From the Owen Sound Times.

AFTER a lengthened debate, the Bill providing for the loan to the C. P. R. to secure its rapid completion was read a third time in the Commons on Thursday last, and though it has still to go through the Senate the measure may be considered practically decided on by Parliament. We never had any fear of the successful result of the resolutions from the moment they were submitted to the house, for the Country is too intensely interested in the construction of our great national railway to allow of any faltering in the work. The opposition, however, given to the measure was bitter; and it seemed that those opposing were willing to catch at any proposal, no matter how unpatriotic, if it afforded a chance of defeating the scheme, as witness the willingness to join hands with the Grand Trunk in handing the whole of Ontario over to the mercies of that corporation. The fact that the Opposition, led by Mr. Blake, were willing to aid the Grand Trunk in its effort, will remain a lasting stigma of them in the eyes of the of the people of Ontario. We regret especially that the member for North Grey, whose constituents perhaps more than those of any other member in Ontario are directly interested in the success of the C. P. R., should have disregarded their interests by taking the stand he did. An opportunity that does not occur every day was here afforded him, of showing that he preferred the material interests of his constituents to those of party, and raising himself in the estimation of all parties in the Riding, but he has proved himself unequal to the occasion, and the fact will no doubt be remembered against him.

The amendment made by Sir. Charles Tupper to the Bill before its third reading is one that will give satisfaction to the whole country, irrespective of politics. The way in which the large railway corporations (aided so far as Ontario is concerned, by the Goverment of the Province,) have been gobbling up the smaller independent lines, till it became apparent that we were only to have the two, has of late been attracting attention and creating alarm amongst the people, who saw no guarantee ahead that when the Grand Trunk and C. P. R. had absorbed all the other lines, they would not join hands themselves, and have the whole country at their mercy, so far as the railway accommodation was concerned. The danger having been pointed out, Sir Charles Tupper, in marked contrast to the course of the Ontario Goverment, has taken action to prevent such a calamity, and provided that there shall never be amalgamat'n polling arrangements between the Canada Pacific and the Grand Trunk; while special power has been conferred on the Supreme Court to take notice of any violation of this provision. We venture to say that this amendment will give renewed confidence in railway matters, especially to the people of Ontario, and that nothing that has transpired in Parliament for a long time will give such satisfaction to the people as a whole, irrespective of their political leanings.

A FAVORITE EVERYWHERE.—Wherever introduced Hagyard's Yellow Oil finds friendt. It is the old reliable household remedy for external and internal use in all aches, pains, lameness and soreness of the flesh. A. L. Geen, a prominent druggist of Bellevile, says: "It is a great favorite here, and has a great sale."

PROF. LOW'S SULPHUR SOAP is highly recommended for the cure of Eruption, Chafes, Chapped Hands, Pimples, Tan, &c.

A DOUBLE BENEFIT.—James Moore, a prominent resident of Leamington, writes that he cured himself of Dyspepsia in a year's duration by one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and two bottles cured his wife who had been for years a sufferer from the same disease. He conscientiously recommends it to all suffsring from similar troubles.

AYER'S Hair Vigor

restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the VIGOR is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

MR. C. P. BRICHER writes from Kirby, O., July 3, 1882: "Last fall my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

J. W. BOWEN, proprietor of the McArthur (Ohio) Enquirer, says: "AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The VIGOR is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give entire satisfaction."

MR. ANGUS FAIRBAIRN, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairn Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1880: "Ever since my hair began to give silvery evidence of the change which fleeting time procureth, I have used AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, orators, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

MRS. O. A. PRESCOTT, writing from 18 Elm St., Charlestown, Mass., April 11, 1882, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly used but one bottle of the VIGOR, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."

We have hundreds of similar testimonials to the efficacy of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. It needs but a trial to convince the most skeptical of its value.
