Local and Other News.

The best tonic for the blood and stomach is McFarland's Tea three times daily.

PERSONAL.—Mr. A. G. Campbell, of Collingwood, formerly of Flesherton, gave us a short call on Monday last.

Richardson's Spring Clearing Sale is attracting those who are on the look-out for bargains. It will continue next week.

PERSONAL.—Our good-looking young friend, Mr. Will Keefer, dropped in to see us last Friday. He is home on a short visit, and is suffering from a very severe cold.

Let politicans hurrah for whom they like, we shout for McFarland's Tea.

THE PEOPLE.

See Miss Stewart and Mrs. R. G. Trimble's adv't in another column. Dressmaking promptly attended to. Straw and Felt Hats cleaned or done over on short notice.

We had a call from our old friend, Mr. Jos. Dunwoody, on Saturday last. He and his brother William are now farming near Stayner, in the fertile Township of Nottawasaga.

Be on the look out for Mr. Jas. G. Russell's new advertisement next week. Just received a large and well-assorted stock of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, &c., which are being sold off at astonishing low prices.

TO LET.—Lot 38, 10th Concession of Artemesia, 70 acres cleared, well fenced, and well watered; good buildings, some ploughed. Apply to W. EKINS, Lot 163, East of Flesherton, Toronto & Sydenham Road.

We understand that Mr. J. G. Keefer—formerly of THE ADVANCE—is now foreman in the news department of the St. Thomas Times. Jake is just the youth to fill such a position creditably as we can testify. Go on and prosper, old boy.

Look out for Mr. Earle Strain's new advertisement next week. He is rushing business in the Tinware line now. Sap Pails, Milk Pans, Eavetroughing, Repairing, and everything in the business promptly attended to, in the old stand, Flesherton.

We are glad to know our esteemed citizen, Dr. Christoe, is on the mend. On Sunday his case was considered almost hopeless and prayers were offered up in the Methodist Church for his recovery. On Monday there was a change for the better, and he has been slowly improving ever since.

When the blood is loaded with impurities, and moves sluggishly in the veins, an alterative is needed, as this condition of the vital fluid cannot last long without serious results. There is nothing better than Ayer's Sarsaparilla to purify the blood, and impart energy to the system.

GRANGE SUPPER.—A grand supper will be given in the Orange Hall, Eugenia, on the evening of Thursday, March 27th inst., under the auspices of Eugenia Grange, 684. Mr. R. J. Doyle, Rev. Thos. Grandy and others are expected to deliver addresses. Vocal and instrumental music will be furnished by home talent. Doors open at 7, to commence at 7:30 o'clock. Admission 25 cents. See bills.

It was Wet.

He was a pleasant looking gentleman, and had come into Flesherton on the "noon bus." Shortly after dinner he started out from Munshaw's hotel on a voyage of discovery.

Arrived at Trimble's corner, he started for Richardson's.

There was some water lying loose around on the road.

In fact the pleasant looking gentleman observed to one of our citizens, who was crossing at the same time, that "it looked rather wettish."

"It is wet," observed the citizen, as he crossed on before the pleasant-looking gentleman.

Whizz-z-z zip-z-z splash!

With an exclaimation of surprise the citizen turned around and beheld the pleasant looking gentleman "comfortably" seated in a large puddle of water, with a look expressive of the most profound astonishment. As he arose to a standing position—the water dripping from his garments like a miniature Niagara—he was heard to murmur in pathetic accents:—

"Ginger! it's wetter'n I thought!"

Band Concert at Markdale.

On Tuesday evening last the Dundalk Brass Band gave one of their entertainments in the Markdale Opera Hall to a large and most appreciative audience. The programme was well rendered throughout, the musical part calling forth hearty applause, and the farce "Paddy Miles" causing most uproarous laughter. Judging from these thinds we can safely say that those who failed to hear "Paddy Miles," and watch his pranks, missed a rare treat. The same company play in the Town Hall, Flesherton, this Thursday evening.

LECTURE.—The lecture given by J. W. Frost, Esq., of Owen Sound, in the Town Hall, last Wednesday evening on "Manitoba as I saw it in 1882" was owing to various other meetings in the village and vicinity, poorly attended, however, Mr. Frost was not discouraged, and as there was but a small audience, he would not enter fully into his lecture but give a free and easy talk, which he did, much to the pleasure and satisfaction of those present. The speaker did not give a one-sided view, but tried to describe briefly Cities, Towns, Lakes and Rivers, and the vast and fertile prairies just as he saw them, giving much to encourage those seeking homes in the far West, to locate on British soil than across the lines. Mr. Jos. Blackburn, Chairman.

THE EX-KIMBERLEY SHOEMAKER.—David Holman has another letter in that receptacle for all sorts of "literary" slops—the Markdale Standard. The letter has not a truthful statement in it. Anybody can see that if young Holman had come to our office with the money he would have got the stationery. But young Holman played a sharp trick on us, and we are not inclined to let him off scot free. He knew the stationery would be of no use to us when printed, and thought we would risk sending it to him. But we were not so foolish, as a very near relative of David's advised us not to give that hopeful youth a cent's worth on tick. David may bluster, and pull the wool over the Standard's eyes—a very easy thing to do—but the people in this locality know very well he is nothing but a ne'er-do-well.

GRAND SOCIAL.—On Tuesday evening, 11th inst., the ladies of the 10th line Methodist Church, Markham, by invitation of Col. and Miss Anna Button, gave a social at the residence of Col. Button, in aid of and as a slight token of the deep felt sympathy evinced for the affliction of Mr. Samuel Philp, son of the Rev. S. C. Philp, Methodist minister, Markham. Notwithstanding the inclement state of the weather, the Colonel's stately residence was crowded from cellar to attic, no less than 230 enjoyed the well-known generous hospitality and excellent spread provided. The Whitevale band was in attendance. The crush-in assembly appeared to enjoy themselves to the utmost. $80 was realized.—Markham Economist.

Cheese Factory Meeting.

The annual meeting of the patrons of the Flesherton Cheese Factory, was held in the Town Hall, Flesherton, on Monday 10th inst., for the purpose of electing officers and other business; there was a good attendance of the patrons. A good deal of time was taken up in discussing the propriety of the patrons buying the factory and plant from Mr. Garrett. The matter was laid over for future consideration. The following are the officers elected for the current year:—President, George Stewart; Secretary, Jas. Brodie. Directors, W. C. Wilcox; Thorp Wright, Jas. Beecroft, Wm. Buchanan, Wm. Hill, Wilmot Pickle. and A. Muir.

Social at Eugenia.

On Thursday evening last a social was held in the Orange Hall, Engenia, under the auspices of the Ladies aid Association in connection with the Presbyterian Church in Flesherton. After a full supply of tea and cake had been served, Mr. Meldrum was called to the chair. The programme was long, varied and well sustained. Messrs Damude, Vandusen, Cairns and Powers from Flesherton. The Cuckoo Valley Choir and Misses Smith and Meldrum entertained the audience with music and singing. Mr. Wright sang a song very nicely. Miss Buchanan gave a splendid recitation. The Misses and Mr. Hislop gave a dialogue, Mr. F. T. Carr a fine address, and Rev. Mr. Wilson an address chiefly on Ladies Aid Associations. Master Robbie and Miss Nellie Smith gave the "Tardy Scholars," which was admired by all and brought down very great applause. Robert Carruthers also gave a recitation; altogether this was the most successful social of the season. the proceeds were $18.35. It was got up by Mrs. Meldrum, Mrs. Hislop, and Mrs Carruthers. These ladies turned out next day and scrubbed out the hall, and the Loyal Orange Lodge kindly refused the rent charged on such occasions, so that the whole $18.35 has been landed over to Mrs. McMaster, the Treasurer. Votes of thanks to chairman, ladies &c., were heartily responded to, God Save The Queen was sung, and all went home pleased.

Wedding Bells.

Last evening Sunnybank, the residence of Mr. Richard Russell, the well-known jeweler, was the scene of a happy gathering, the occasion being the marriage of his daughter Nettie to Mr. E. B. Varey, contractor of Port Hope. The Rev. John James, D. D., performed the ceremony. Miss Maggie A. Russell, sister of the bride, and Miss Lillie F. Varey, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaids, and Mr. Lyman H. Stienhoff, of Simcoe, and Mr. Richard Russell, jr., as groomsmen. After the ceremony the guests sat down to an excellent spread, after which dancing and other amusements were indulged in till an early hour this morning. The happy couple left on the midnight train for the West amid the congratulation of their many friends. The presents were numerous and costly, showing the high esteem in which the bride was held.—Hamilton Spectator.

[The bride is a sister of Mr. Jas. G. Russell, our new watchmaker and jeweller.—ED.]

The Notorious Jack Hopps.

One day last week Jack Hopps borrowed a horse and cutter from Mr. Robert Thompson, Jr., Artemesia, for the purpose of driving to Markdale. Mr. Thompson did what few other men would have done, viz., lent Hopps the necessary outfit. But Mr. Hopps not returning the said horse and cutter at the time promised, Thompson went to Markdale last Saturday to hunt him up. He found Mr. Hopps, and after certain necessary explanations, that gentleman (Hopps) prevailed on Thompson to take "a hooker." The twain made way with a good many "hookers." and finally—when they were about "three sheets in the wind"—hitched up the horse and started for home. Now, instead of going to Thompson's, young Hopps drove to Flesherton, where both young men made an exhibition of themselves, to the disgust of all who saw them. Hopps was to blame in the whole affair. We fancy another three months in Owen Sound Gaol is necessary to Jack Hopps' health, and would no doubt prove a decided blessing to the general public.
