Meat of all kinds lower than the lowest at Sept. Good's, Flesherton.

A lot of New Trunks for sale cheap at WM. CLAYTON'S.

Meat cheaper than can be obtained elsewhere at Sept. Good's, Flesherton. Call and see.

EGGS, EGGS!—Mr. W. H. Campaigne has purchased an incubator for hatching eggs. Goodness! won't the chickens be thick around Little Mills this summer!

BACON.—Another case of that beautiful Long Clear Bacon will soon arrive at Flesherton Meat Market. S. Good. Prices very moderate.

RICHARDSON'S NEW BLOCK.—Mr. M. Richardson has been in Toronto several days during last and this week, making arrangements about certain important features in connection with his handsome new brick store on the corner of Durham and Sydenham streets. Among other important improvements, he proposes to light the new store by gas; he also contemplates putting up a large illuminated clock on the corner facing the hotel square. When completed we have no doubt it will be the most thoroughly equipped business block in the County.

A GREEDY LOT.—There are three butchers in Markdale, who, not satisfied with the patronage accorded them by the people of that village and locality generally, have come to the conclusion to visit Flesherton occasionally to solicit orders for meat; and in order to do any kind of a business at all, they sell meat here at very low prices. Now, our butcher, Mr. Sept. Good, is a square, upright business man, and charges honest prices for every pound of meat he sells, and we advise our citizens to give these greedy outsiders the cold shoulder. Ten chances to one but these Markdale butchers charge their home patrons higher prices than Mr. Good charges his.

NEW PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—The handsome Presbyterian Church, Flesherton, is now rapidly approaching completion. The plasterers are this week putting on the finishing touches on the ceiling, which when completed will present a fine appearance. The stucco work reflects credit on the contractors, Messrs. Large & Strain. The furnace, registers and other necessary apparatus in connection with the heating of the church, have already been put in. The seats will be put in their places as soon as possible, the painting will be expedited, and it is expected that the church will be formally opened by the Rev. D. J. Macdonnell on the 24th of May.

A $20 Bible Prize.

The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in their Monthly for April, among which is the following:—

We will give $20.00 to the person telling us how many words there are in the Epistle of Jude, as recorded in the New Testament Scriptures (not the NEW REVISION,) by April 10th, 1884. Should two or more correct answers be received, the reward will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner April 15th, 1884. Persons trying for the reward must send 20 cents in silver (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the May Monthly, in which the name and address of the winner of the reward and correct answer will be published, and in which several more valuable rewards will be offered. Address RUTLEDGE PUBLISHING COMPANY, Easton, Pa.

If you are suffering from a sense of extreme weariness, try one bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It will cost you but one dollar, and will do you incalculable good. It will do away with that tired feeling, and give you new life and energy.

Is She a Kleptomaniac?

Mrs. McLeod Introduces Herself to the Public.

On Saturday last Mrs. Huuter, of Dundalk, had dinner at the Munshaw hotel, Flesherton. Before going into dinner, Mrs. Hunter left her satchel in one of the sitting rooms. Whether the satchel was locked or not, we do not know, but when she returned to the sitting room in question, her satchel was open. On investigation of the articles contained therein, it was discovered that a veil was missing. Search was made for the missing article, which was finally observed, by some one of the guests whose eyes were sharp, protruding from the coat pocket of a woman named McLeod, who hails from the neighborhood of Priceville. Quite a commotion was caused by the discovery, but we do not think it is the intention of Mrs. Hunter to take proceedings against the would-be thief. The theft of such a common article as a veil would almost lead one to the belief that the woman McLeod belongs to that peculiar species of humanity called Kleptomaniacs. We can not see what else could have induced the woman to be guilty of such an offence.

Incendiarism.

On the night of the 19th inst., some person or persons maliciously set fire to Mr. Atkinson's hotel stable, Priceville. The fire was started in the hay mow, but was discovered in time to prevent a very serious conflagration, which, with a high wind, might have endangered every business place in the village. As it was, the flames had gained considerable headway when discovered, but they were quickly got under control by the aid of a buffalo robe and a few pails of water. Suspicion is rife as to the identity of the perpetrator or perpetrators, for whose apprehension and conviction, Mr. Atkinson announces by printed hand-bills, $50 reward will be given. We trust the scoundrel or scoundrels, who would thus endanger the lives and property of a community of respectable citizens, will be speedily brought to justice.

Destructive Fire.

The residence of Mr. Aaron Teeter, 3rd line, Euphrasia, was destroyed by fire last Saturday night. The fire was first noticed at about 11 o'clock, and by that time had made such headway, that Mr. Teeter and family barely escaped with their lives. Nothing was saved. 150 bushels of wheat, a quantity of barley, pork and provisions was stored in the house, all of which was lost. Some of the children had a very narrow escape from being burned alive. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed a defective flue was the cause.

It is needless to say the public deeply sympathize with the family in their misfortune. We hope, however, that something more tangible than mere words will be conferred upon Mr. Teeter in his sad misfortune.

A Valuable Gift.

The Travellers Insurance Company of Hartford, Con., whose graceful Tribute to the American press, the engraving of the "Representative Journals and Journalists of America." was last year given such wide distribution, are now giving further proof of their artistic enterprise. This time they have brought out a special edition for the press, of the official engraving of the colossal French statue of Liberty, as it will appear on the gigantic pedestal now being erected for its reception in New York harbor, above whose waters it will next year raise its flaming torch to more than double the height of Niagara Falls. This office has received a copy of this interesting work with the compliments of the "Travelers," to whom acknowledgments are hereby tendered.

FREEMAN'S WORM POWDERS require no other purgative. They are safe and sure to remove all varieties of Worms.

Band Entertainment.

The literary, dramatic, and musical entertainment given in the Town Hall, Flesherton, last Thursday evening, under the auspices of the Dundalk Brass Band, was attended by rather a small gathering, no doubt owing to the large number of entertainments held in the same place this season. The entertainment, on the whole, was a very good one. The selections given by the band were very well rendered indeed, especially when it is considered that the majority of its members are, comparatively speaking, greenhorns. It bids fair to take a front rank among the bands of Grey at an early date. Mr. Ketchum's solo on the cornet was loudly and deservedly applauded. Messrs. McEachern and Gardner sang "Larboard Watch, Ahoy!" with good affect; but the accompaniment on the organ was wretched, and to a certain extent, spoiled the effect this grand song might otherwise have had upon the audience. Mr. Marshal, the dentist, scored a good hit in his solo, on the violin—"The Mocking Bird." The orchestra did exceedingly well. Mr. McEachern's reading from "Peck's Bad Boy," created some merriment. It was lengthy, however, and rather bored the audience than otherwise. Mr. R. O. Whitby recited a parady on Longfellow's famous poem, "Excelsior." Mr. Whitby recited rather rapidly; otherwise, he made a good hit. Mr. McEachern sang a solo, accompanied on the organ by a young gentleman of rather remarkable musical talents. This young gentleman accompanied Mr. McEachern about half way through the song, when he suddenly discovered that he was playing the wrong accompaniment, and stopped short, to the entire satisfaction of the audience, who now had the pleasure of hearing Mr. McEachern's clear voice to some advantage. Two comic Irish songs were given by a gentleman whose name we did not ascertain. Whoever he was, we must say he is as good a delineator of character as many so-called "professionals" we have heard. The farce, "Paddy Miles' Boy," was capitally put on. Mr. McEachern, as the irrepressible "Paddy Miles' Boy," fairly brought down the house, by his splendid delineation of that rollicking Irish character. The other characters were very ably sustained.
